The Revelry & Joy of Purim

Rabbi Nancy Myers

February 2018

There is no doubt that of all our festivals, Purim is the most fun. What other holiday can kids as well as adults dress up in costume, act irreverently, laugh, get a little wild, and for adults to have the Mitzvah of drinking alcohol? I'm not joking; it is literally a Mitzvah, a commandment, to drink on Purim so much that one doesn't know the difference between "Blessed Mordecai" or "Cursed be Haman." In all fairness, though, the rabbis did try to moderate the drinking part and lessen the amount one must or should drink on this joyous holiday.

The essence of Purim is to be joyful, silly, and celebrate our people's survival from those who wished to destroy us. On this day we read the story of Esther, eat Hamentaschen, give Shlach Manot, "portions of food" to friends, charity to the poor, drink and be merry. The rabbis stated: Mi shenikhas adar marbim be-simcha, "with the start of the month of Adar we greatly increase joy." Well the Hebrew month of Adar is upon us and so is Purim. At Temple Beth David, we take celebrating and joy very seriously!

Purim carnival & silent auction: Sunday, February 25 @ 11:00 a.m.-2:00 p.m. There will be bouncers, booths, face painting, hamburgers, hot dogs, salads, margaritas and beer, fruit, and hamantachen. This has always been a great event that brings together the generations of TBD. We are one of the few synagogues to host our very own carnival and the energy and excitement on this day is amazing. Feel free to invite your friends and neighbors. We are blessed to have many volunteers from our religious school, Brotherhood and Sisterhood to help make this day happen. If you would like to help out, contact our Director of Education, Elizabeth Kleinman or Education VP, Adam Bernstein.

Purim-A Night at Barnes & Noble:

Wednesday night, February 28, at 7:00 p.m.

Come dressed as your favorite character from a book. That night you will see and hear from Sherlock Holmes, Mother Goose, Dr. Ruth Westheimer, Dr. Phil McGraw, George Washington, Carl Sagan Jane Goodall, RuPaul, Heidi Klum, Dracula, Katniss, and more! Crazy, crazy fun as always. Sharon Matalon and Mulu Harrison have out done themselves. You will not have a more creative, engaging, and comprehensive Purim experience than at Temple Beth David.

We look forward to sharing the joys of Purim and its traditions with all of you. Chag Sameach!

President's Message

Earlier this month, seven of our TBD high schoolers went to Washington D.C. to participate in the L'Taken Seminar, which is a social action seminar hosted by the Religious Action Center and the Union for Reform Judaism. The goal of the seminar is to have the youth learn about, and make presentations regarding, different social action initiatives about which they feel passionate. This was the first time TBD has ever participated in this seminar, and as one of the six chaperones who accompanied our youth on this trip, I can tell you it was an amazing time. During our weekend (which was one of six different weekends when the seminar is held each year), there were about 300 kids from 30 Reform Congregations around the U.S. Sure it might have been a brisk 10 degrees outside (the bomb cyclone hit D.C. the day before we got there), but the frigid air did not slow anyone down. In addition to researching topics involving the environment, gun control, and immigration reform, the kids toured the Holocaust Memorial, the Smithsonian, the Martin Luther King and Jefferson Memorials, the Supreme Court, and more. The trip culminated with the kids presenting the speeches they prepared to staffers at Congressman Alan Lowenthal, Senator Kamala Harris, and Senator Dianne Feinstein's offices. A special thank you goes out to the Temple Beth David Foundation, the Long Beach Jewish Federation, and the Religious Action Center for their generosity in sponsoring our congregation's first trip. I hope that this will be the first of many such trips to come for our TBD youth. The passion and the excitement was palpable.

JULIE METZ PROVIDING A MUSICAL DELIGHT FOR JEWISH BROADWAY BY WHAT YOU SEE AND HEAR!!

Award-winning violinist and educator Julie Metz will perform "From the Bowery to Broadway: A Delight of Jewish Tune Masters" on March 4 at 11 a.m (after your 10:30 brunch). The recital lecture and PowerPoint presentation will take place at Temple Beth David,

Julie Metz has been described as an outstanding musician and a dynamic teacher. At Temple Beth David, she will bring her twin passions to bear: music and education. A performer who has worked with major symphonies around the world, Metz will perform music of Gershwin, Rodgers, Weill, Bernstein, and Bock. Brunch is served at 10:30 a.m. followed immediately by the performance and learning that has earned Metz a loyal following.

"A performer who has worked with major symphonies around the world, Metz will perform music of Gershwin, Rodgers, Weill, Bernstein, and Bock."

"I think it's the beautiful music and the enjoyment of learning something new about the music that people come to see," Metz said. "I want people to enjoy the performance in the moment, but then I want to know they are taking something, some new knowledge, with them when the event is over."

"Julie Metz has been described as an outstanding musician and a dynamic teacher."

As a pre-concert lecturer, violin and viola player, and music program overseer, Metz has performed with musical acts that have run the gamut from Yanni to The Temptations to Johnny Mathis. While still a student, Metz became a consultant for the CBS Movie of the Week "Running Out." She has played for numerous television shows, videos, films and commercials. Her concert lectures draw on a life time of experience as a recitalist and educator to allow an audience to both experience and reach a deep understanding for the great composers and their music.

"She has played for numerous television shows, videos, films and commercials."

Tickets for "From the Bowery to Broadway: A Delight of Jewish Tune Masters" are available through Mr. Lee Netzer at leenetz@yahoo.com. Concert goers may purchase tickets by phone at (714) 963-7583.

February 2018

Charlie Niederman, VP, Planning & Development

The on again, off again peace negotiations between Israelis and Palestinians that have run so long with very little to show have clearly taken a new turn. In the past the US position on the negotiations by both Republican and Democratic administrations has been generally to take an even handed leadership role. The moving of the US embassy to Jerusalem appeared to indicate a more sympathetic attitude to the Israelis. The President's comments in Davos, threatening to stop aid to Palestinians if they do not negotiate, seems to make it clear that the approach toward the Palestinians has moved from the carrot to the stick. The administration still has negotiators pushing both publicly and privately for some kind of agreement. It seems unlikely that a two state solution is possible, but stranger things have been created by the current administration.

In mid January Israel's Defense Minister, Avigdor Lieberman, banned the Sephardic Chief Rabbi and two others from participating in Israeli Defense Force events because of their comments and strong opposition to the long standing integration of women in the IDF. Lieberman's action has not improved his relationship with the religious right members of the governing coalition and his relationship with Prime Minister Netanyahu has often been strained, but there will probably be no strong push back.

On the international scene relations between Israel and Poland have become severely strained after the Lower House of the Polish Parliament passed a bill that says making mention of terms like Polish Death Camps will be punishable by up to three years imprisonment. The response from Israel spoke strongly about restricting accurate historic research and included outcries by Holocaust survivors. It was passed very publicly to Polish officials. The bill has yet to pass the Polish Senate and can be amended before it goes to President Andrzej Duda for signature.

When starting this column the goal was to make Temple members more aware of ARZA and the Reform movement in Israel and the news which explains our own movement's attitude and reaction to Israel and its governing coalitions. There have been articles explaining Israel's election process, the roles of the Knesset, the Supreme Court, and others. To add perspective to the picture also requires historic background. I'll add historic thumbnails about leading figures and documents that played a role in the reality and dreams that formed the modern Jewish state.

Here is a look at Ahad Ha'am, the penname of Asher Ginsberg (1856-1927) that translates as "one of the people" (based on Genesis 26:10). Born to pious affluent Hasidic parents in what is now Ukraine, he was an early Zionist thinker and is considered the founder of cultural Zionism. He wrote prophetically, and with a perceptive honesty about those who inhabited the land before the arrival of the Zionists. He believed that Zionism must bring Jews to Palestine gradually, while turning it into a cultural center. At the same time, he felt it was incumbent upon Zionism to inspire a revival of Jewish national life in the Diaspora. Only then would the Jewish people be strong enough to assume the mantle of building a nation state. The Holocaust obviously preempted this vision

In 1891 he wrote about his perceptions: "We who live abroad are accustomed to believe that almost all Eretz Yisrael is now uninhabited desert and whoever wishes can buy land there as he pleases. But this is not true. It is very difficult to find in the land [ha'aretz] cultivated fields that are not used for planting. Only those sand fields or stone mountains ...remain uncultivated... It is very difficult to find good land for cattle. And not only peasants, but also rich landowners, are not selling good land so easily...We... are accustomed to believing that the Arabs are all wild desert people who, like donkeys, neither see nor understand what is happening around them. But this is a grave mistake... All the townships of Syria and Eretz Yisrael are full of Arab merchants who know how to exploit the masses and keep track of everyone with whom they deal – the same as in Europe. The Arabs, especially the urban elite, see and understand what we are doing and what we wish to do on the land, but they keep quiet and pretend not to notice anything. For now, they do not consider our actions as presenting a future danger to them. ... But, if the time comes that our people's life in Eretz Yisrael will develop to a point where we are taking their place, either slightly or significantly, the natives are not going to just step aside so easily".

Much of the forgoing is inspired by or taken from a writing by Rabbi Reuven Greenvald, the director of Israel engagement at URJ with excerpts from Wikipedia quoting Wrestling with Zion, Grove Press, 2003, pp. 14–15.

2018 Is Off To An Exciting Start!

To close 2017, I had the pleasure of welcoming Amy Crowley as our new Youth Adviser. Many here at Temple Beth David have seen her grow up in our congregation. Amy has been an integral part of WAFTY in her time here and is a Past-President. She has also stayed involved with NFTY since graduating high school. We are lucky to have her here to guide our youth.

WAFTY started off the year with a mission to raise funds to rebuild Camp Newman. Unfortunately, most of Camp Newman burned down in the Santa Rosa Fire. The Brotherhood & Sisterhood invited WAFTY to make an appeal at the Paid-Up dinner. Want to thank Laurie Schneider and the committee for encouraging this. The Kleinman Family lent their table top hibachis to the youth to use so those that wanted to could donate to Camp Newman and buy Smores kits. It was quite the hit! Charlie Neiderman also announced on behalf of Brotherhood, that Brotherhood would match donations up to $1500. We have already raised. Hopefully we can get some more donations to hit the full $1500 match potential. As many here in our TBD family know Camp Newman is such an enriching experience for our youth. Want future generations to continue to have that experience.

Both WAFTY and Jr WAFTY should be on the lookout for upcoming events throughout the year. Keep your eyes posted on the Shavua Tov's for announcements.

Best Regards,
Mitch Halbreich
Youth Trustee.

Message from Membership Chair

Are you a little less or a little more than 40 years old? Did you know that the original TBD members were about your age when they founded the Temple? They came to this foreign place with their passports and their families from far distant lands like Chicago, Philadelphia, New York, and even...Brooklyn. They left behind treasured family and friends for a better life in California. Lonely and without focus, they founded a Temple, which became the center of their religious, social, and long-term friend lives. Those people are still here, a little more than forty years old now, many still filled with energy and the passionate desire to continue the vision of Temple Beth David.

But now the time has come for those of you presently on that earthshaking 40 year old line....many of you were born here in California, you have always had your families and friends nearby, your built in support groups. You have not felt the loneliness of displacement, you have had your Temple waiting right here for you. Now the time has come to take that Temple and bring it into today's world, into your world, so it will be here for your children when they are ready, and for their children.

Thanks to a fantastic President, Eric Schiffer, we are bridging the generation gap. Thanks to Co-Choir Presidents, Paige Berzak and Caitlin Greenfield, we are bridging about a generation and a half! And there are others, as well...others who understand that each of us has a part to play in growing and perpetuating Temple Beth David. Of course, it is not your only focus, but make it ONE OF THE IMPORTANT ones. Say YES to participating.

Sandra Russakov

Sandy is from Chicago. She attended the University of Illinois where she received a degree in Fine and Applied Arts. Sandy married Lew Russakov in Chicago and Lew's position with the government took them to many locations. They did a lot of moving during the early years of their marriage. When Lew changed jobs and became Sales Manager for a lighting company, they moved to California. Sandy became a night manager at the Broadway Department Store in Westchester, Los Angeles. She later assisted Lew at trade shows where he represented the lighting company.

Sandy has two children and four grandchildren. Her son, Steve, is General Manager for an automotive chemical company and her daughter, Diane, is a homemaker in Chicago. Steve has two children: Sam, who is a student at OCC, and Sydney, who is employed by Disney in the media department. Diane also has two children: Austin, who works for Federal Express, and Ryan, who is an electrical apprentice. Sandy likes to play Mah Jongg and read. She sings with the Singing Good Timers, who entertain weekly at retirement facilities in Orange County. Sandy especially likes the friendliness of everyone at Temple Beth David.

Temple Beth David

Dear Friends:

Thank you for the support that you have given Temple Beth David during the past several years. This year, on Sunday, February 25, 2017, we will be holding our annual fundraising Auction and Purim Carnival.

We are hoping that we can, once again, count on your much needed support this year by donating an auction item (or, given the size of the event this year, multiple auction items would be greatly appreciated)! In addition to assisting our Temple, the hundreds of people attending the event will become more familiar with your business, your generosity through our auction and event signage. Donors may also send advertising material for display and/or distribution.

Temple Beth David has been a vibrant part of Orange County for more than 50 years. Your generous donation will support our many activities including youth and adult educational programs, our Early Childhood Learning Center and our award-winning Outreach programs.

Enclosed you will find a Return Envelope for your convenience.

If you have any questions or comments, please feel free to contact either Edie Mino or Charlie Do at (714) 892-6623 (or email them at tbdavid@templebethdavid.org).

Thank you in advance for your consideration and for your generous support of our children and families in the local community.

Very truly yours,

Neil B. Kornswiet
Vice President, Ways & Means

To Our Temple Beth David Family:

As most of you are aware, our Temple depends on donations to deliver the high quality of services to all of you. We understand that many of you are still struggling with the recent economic downturn. However, we have come up with a way that will allow you to donate to the Temple without spending a penny of your own money, plus you will actually save money on many purchases that you normally make!

We would like to introduce you to Goodshop and Goodsearch. Goodshop works with more than 5,000 stores that will provide all of you with discounts on what you normally buy and then will donate up to 20% of the purchase price to the Temple. You will simply click on a link on the Temple Home Page, start saving money for your family and help the Temple out as well! We have included an easy step-by-step signup guide with this letter. Here are some examples of companies that participate in the program:

Target, Macy's, Nordstrom, Neiman Marcus, Sears, Sak's, Apple, Old Navy, the Gap, Amazon, Office Depot, Petco, Staples, Dell, The Limited, Holiday Inn, Groupon, Levi's, Lands End, Best Buy, 1-800 Flowers, 24 Hour Fitness, and Victoria's Secret.

These are companies that we all normally shop at, and by simply clicking on the link on the Temple website, you will be saving money for your family and actually raising money for the Temple. In addition, you can also save money by dining out at participating restaurants and, at the same time, raising donations for the Temple as well. It's simple, free and easy to use, and the average family using the site over a year will actually raise more than $350 annually for the Temple. Multiply that by our 300 families and we will raise more than $100,000 per year for the Temple! This program really works. Goodshop has raised more than $11 million for charitable organizations with this program.

Likewise, we are also rolling out Goodsearch. By doing your internet searches through Goodsearch.com, which links with Yahoo, the Temple will receive a penny for every internet search. If you can imagine how many internet searches you do, and your families do, this will also add up to real money for the Temple.

We encourage all of you to participate and to help strengthen our Temple for all of us and for the generations to come.

With best regards,

Neil Kornswiet
