I'm off to Camp Newman - at it's New Location

Rabbi Myers

July 2018

Well, soon I'll be joining the faculty at Camp Newman. There will be the same ruah, spirit, to be sure but at a completely different location. As you know, Camp Newman burned down in the wildfires that ravaged Northern CA last fall. They will rebuild but in the meantime, camp is at Cal State Martime. It's a bit north of San Francisco but south of where camp used to be.

I'm looking forward to the activities, to serving as the Rabbi for Rishonim, our high energy eighth and ninth graders, as they learn about nature and God. I've done this age group before and, sigh, know what I'm in for. I'll get caffeinated. We already have Evan and Sean Greenberg, Kai & Ari Fitzer, and Shane Prunty at camp. Joining them shortly will be Elizabeth Halbreich, Jessa Kleinman, and Juneau Resnick.

At another URJ (Union for Reform Judaism) camp, is Jacob Cantus attending for the first time 6 Points Sci-Tech in Los Angeles. Report from his mother says, "He's having the BEST time. He's thrilled to be there." Also, McKenzie Pantel is at Habonim Camp Gilboa.

We are grateful for our Temple Beth David Foundation that helps support our youth in attending Jewish overnight camp. Studies have demonstrated that this is an excellent way to inculcate strong Jewish values and identity that can last a life time.

I'm proud that our synagogue supports our youth, not just in going to camp but also our youth programming through WAFTY (our high school youth group) & Jr. Wafty (6-9th graders) The future looks bright indeed. See you when I return from camp.

Beth David Brotherhood

By Charlie Niederman

Our Mother's Day brunch as always was a fun filled event, that included a special menu, entertainment, and a rose, all dedicated to the mothers in our Beth David family. It was the last event major of our past fiscal year. Our annual Angels game was in June and was fun, but would have been more fun if the Angels had won. The year included well attended and interesting brunches, and the Brotherhood Shabbat service. During the year we added the "Dinner and a Show" that was well attended and exceeded expectations in all respects, including attracting attendees from outside of our Temple. We also added the car show, which went over so well that we hope to make it an annual event. This year it will run for our Temple family and the local community on Sunday, August 12 (see the flier in this Megillah).

Our success last year was based on the efforts and enthusiasm of our members, especially those who planned and lead our events. Brotherhood is dynamic and open to new ideas. This all happened under the enthusiastic leadership of our outgoing President, Steve Harris, to whom we owe a debt of thanks.

While our calendar is dark for July, August will be busy with the Brotherhood car show on Sunday, August 12, the Brotherhood summer barbeque on Sunday, August 26. The first day of school barbeque will be on Sunday, September 16.

Charlie Niederman,
President

SISTERHOOD MATTERS...

I am honored to begin my term as president of Beth David Sisterhood. In my 40-plus years at TBD I have served on the Choir, Sisterhood and Temple boards in a number of offices. Both my mother and grandmother served as president of their Sisterhood at our synagogue in Connecticut; now it is my turn. I am fortunate to take the helm of a vibrant Sisterhood, with a strong, dynamic board and many women actively participating. I want to thank Anne Farber, immediate past president, as well as the other women who have preceded me in this office, for all they have done to build our Sisterhood, and I hope to live up to their high standards of accomplishment, and continue to lead us forward.

Thank you to Mickey Lewin and Sue Leboff for a fabulous donor luncheon. I was not able to attend, as the Air Force did not consult me when scheduling my daughter-in-law's change of command ceremony, and I had to be in Boston! However, I have heard many compliments about what a lovely event it was, and I know Sue and Mickey worked hard to make it so. Also, thanks to Shirley Kahn for her photography, and even photo-shopping me into the board picture! We are lucky to have so many talented women in our midst!

I am pleased to announce that we now have our very own email address, which we can use for correspondence and RSVPs for Sisterhood events. You can reach us at Sisterhood@templebethdavid.org. Huge thanks to Edie Mino for setting this up for us!

We have two events coming in July. First is our Dine-out Delight, which will be at Macaroni Grill on July 9th. Please go to the Shavua Tov and print out the flyer to take with you, so Sisterhood and Brotherhood can benefit from this fundraiser while you have a delicious meal! Second, is a trip to Pechanga on July 31st. This is always a fun day! The cost is $20 for the bus, water, and snacks. If you haven't already signed up, you can do so by using our new email address above, and please put Pechanga in the subject line. Or you can call Lisa McCall to reserve your spot. Wishing everyone a Happy 4th of July and summer! I look forward to seeing long-time friends and making new friends at Temple.

Shalom,
Laurie

July 2018

Charlie Niederman, VP, Planning & Development

Looking back to last month, on the Gazan border things are quieter after a spate of Hamas fire balloons and some rockets attacks. Just how long it will last before Hamas tries to stage riots and get on the world news again remains unknown because there has been no formal cease fire.

J Street, an organization that strongly supports a two state solution to the Israeli Palestinian conflict, offered some insight into the US Administration's peace efforts. We have heard little about those efforts recently. J Street reported that last week Jared Kushner again traveled to the Middle East to talk with Prime Minister Netanyahu and with Arab leaders. While there, he gave a rare interview to a prominent Palestinian newspaper. The aim was presumably to convince the Palestinian people to embrace his soon-to-be-released US proposal, but he spent the interview lambasting President Abbas and the Palestinian Authority's leadership. Kushner while purportedly working toward full Palestinian statehood has not made any partnerships on the Palestinian side.

Prince William's recent "nonpolitical" visit to Israel in contrast broke with 70 years of royal tradition of no official visits to the Jewish state. The reason was primarily to avoid hurting relations with the Middle Eastern countries from which the UK draws most of their oil and also with the Palestinians. If Kushner's attitude appeared to strongly support Israel, while the Prince seemed to follow the more bilateral UK line. He did declare that ties between Israel and the UK "have never been stronger." He met with Israel's President Reuven Rivlin and Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu. Rivlin asked him to convey a message of peace to Palestinian Authority (PA) President Mahmoud Abbas.

While in the Palestinian Territories visiting President Mahmoud Abbas in a diplomatic slip he referred to the PA as a country. There was so much good will created on both sides of the conflict that there was no strong reaction to the errant comment. He told PA President Abbas that the Palestinians "are not forgotten".

As the prince neared the end of this first official visit by a British royal to Israel and the Palestinian territories he said to both sides "My sentiments are the same as yours in hoping that there is a lasting peace in the region."

A thing to watch over the next few weeks will be the advance of Syrian government forces with Russian support as they attack the rebel area that adjoins Israel. So far Israel has sent 300 tents, 28 tons of food and 30 tons of shoes and clothing to the thousands fleeing the conflict. Israel has said it will take in no refugees, and Jordan has said they can take no more. Whether or not an answer can be found to the humanitarian crisis, there will also be the issues that can arise as the Syrian .

"My sentiments are the same as yours in hoping that there is a lasting peace in the region, "government forces approach the Golan border with Israel.

Charlie Niederman

Message from Membership Chair

‘Summertime and the livin’ is easy’ .....school is out and it’s time to play. Whether it’s a day at the beach, a trip away from home, or dinners out so Mom doesn’t have to cook, we all like to relax and de-stress. Here is another place to relax and de-stress.....Temple Beth David on a Friday night.....during the month of July, Temple is a sublime and peaceful place to be.

Our Rabbi takes a vacation.....congregation members step in for her. Attendance is lower, but a unique sense of family pervades, greater perhaps than during the rest of the year. The service is respectful, as always, but seems more casual. Sometimes I even feel that G-d hears me better. While the ocean and beach are not exactly at our doorstep, an occasional pair of flip flops can be seen, and sometimes Eileen treats us to ice cream at the oneg!

So, even if you are not leaving home on a trip, program your navigation system to take you to Beth David on Friday nights this summer. And remember.....

‘Summertime and the prayin’ is easy’.

Have you Met.....

Rita & Richard Woods

Two wonderful Beth David members who are charming oxymorons. Rita says she is shy, yet she was President of Temple Beth Kneset Bamid Bar in Lancaster, California. Richard is not Jewish, yet he has been chief chef and architect of the Woods' family Passover seder dinner every year! I understand he makes a great matza ball soup.

Rita and Richard have been married for over 35 years. Richard began life in Indiana, but came to California after leaving the Marine Corps. They met at a Parents Without Partners dance, and have been 'dancing' together ever since. Richard brought four children, two daughters and two sons, to the marriage, and Rita brought three sons, so together they have seven children. Over the years, the children have become adults and married, and now Rita and Richard are the proud grandparents of.....thirteen children!! It's a good thing they are both retired now, so they have time for all those grand kids.

Before retiring, Richard worked for Boeing Aircraft for over 35 years, building airplanes. Rita worked as a medical transcriber. Now that they have more free time, Richard works on their cars, and they love spending time traveling. Both are proud that they have visited over twenty-five countries. Richard's favorite country is Italy...a man with excellent taste, says this half-Italian Membership VP. And of course, they love coming to Shabbat services. Both love the friendship at Temple. They always feel welcome. And, they greatly enjoy the Rabbi and Cantor whom they feel are, and I quote, "the best in the west".

The next time you are at a Shabbat service, say hello to two lovely people.

REPAIRING THE WORLD

The California Religious Action Center (RAC-CA) has chosen its legislative and ballot measure agenda for 2018. RAC-CA will be mobilizing all Reform congregations to act to help pass one of its central priorities: a $4 billion housing bond ballot measure, which will provide funding for affordable housing and homeless services for veterans and others.

View the complete list, descriptions and more information for all of RAC-CA's 2018 bills and ballot measures.

Save the Date: RAC-CA 2018 Lobby Day

Start planning your trip to Sacramento for the RAC-CA lobby day 2018 on August 7 from 9:30 to 3:30. The whole group will meet with a key leader – past meetings have included Governor Brown and then Senate President Pro Tem Kevin de Leon. There will be lobbying training, and we will break into small groups to go meet with our state legislators. This year we will do something new: meet with for part of the day with Camp Newman Hevrah campers who will be doing their own lobby day. Please register today for lobby day!

Beth David would like to have a large contingent, let Deb Lelchuk know if you've signed up.

Goodshop

Goodsearch

To Our Temple Beth David Family:

As most of you are aware, our Temple depends on donations to deliver the high quality of services to all of you. We understand that many of you are still struggling with the recent economic downturn. However, we have come up with a way that will allow you to donate to the Temple without spending a penny of your own money, plus you will actually save money on many purchases that you normally make!

We would like to introduce you to Goodshop and Goodsearch. Goodshop works with more than 5,000 stores that will provide all of you with discounts on what you normally buy and then will donate up to 20% of the purchase price to the Temple. You will simply click on a link on the Temple Home Page, start saving money for your family and help the Temple out as well! We have included an easy step-by-step signup guide with this letter. Here are some examples of companies that participate in the program:

Target, Macy's, Nordstrom, Neiman Marcus, Sears, Sak's, Apple, Old Navy, the Gap, Amazon, Office Depot, Petco, Staples, Dell, The Limited, Holiday Inn, Groupon, Levi's, Lands End, Best Buy, 1-800 Flowers, 24 Hour Fitness, and Victoria's Secret.

These are companies that we all normally shop at, and by simply clicking on the link on the Temple website, you will be saving money for your family and actually raising money for the Temple. In addition, you can also save money by dining out at participating restaurants and, at the same time, raising donations for the Temple as well. It's simple, free and easy to use, and the average family using the site over a year will actually raise more than $350 annually for the Temple. Multiply that by our 300 families and we will raise more than $100,000 per year for the Temple! This program really works. Goodshop has raised more than $11 million for charitable organizations with this program.

Likewise, we are also rolling out Goodsearch. By doing your internet searches through Goodsearch.com, which links with Yahoo, the Temple will receive a penny for every internet search. If you can imagine how many internet searches you do, and your families do, this will also add up to real money for the Temple.

We encourage all of you to participate and to help strengthen our Temple for all of us and for the generations to come.

With best regards,

Neil Kornswiet
