Stressed? Come and Laugh Rabbi Nancy Myers

March 2017

Many of us are under a lot of stress. There are always personal challenges. We have to deal with difficult members of our family, bosses, employees, friends, and students. It's hard to go very long without unwanted drama. Even if our personal relationships calm down, there are financial challenges with surprise costs associated with our homes, children, and health. And of course, many of us find the political climate in our country disheartening. I hear frequently of your concerns about our current administration and the direction of our nation.

Sigh. So I have to say, we need Purim this year more than ever. We need to celebrate the triumph of good over evil. We need to laugh, drink, and be merry. This is because of Esther's courage and Mordecai's leadership that the Jews of Persia were not only saved but were able to defend themselves against their enemies. Bravery and initiative can counter many evil plans and our people have survived for millennia because we adhered to our values. One of them is remembering our past. Our history lives in us and we transmit the stories of our people to our children. We have wonderful mitzvot with meaningful rituals and customs. And we have excellent ethical teachings that instruct us to be compassionate and to take care of those in need.

There really is a lot to celebrate. This year Purim will take us to the days of the Wild West. There'll be outlaws, a drunkard (well, after our early l'chayim, there may be a few more), sheriff, traveling salesmen, rail workers, and temperance league women (Okay, save your boos for Haman). Come in costume on Sunday morning, March 12 at 9:30 a.m. sharp. We'll have prizes for both adults and kids for best get-up. The shpiel is one of a kind, written and directed by our incredibly talented Sharon Matalon.

By eleven, our western Purim carnival will begin. There'll be games, photo booth, prehistoric pets, shooting gallery, pie eating contest, and gold mining. Food will include hotdogs, chili, hamburgers, salads, and more. I hear a rumor that there may be saloon spirits for adults.

The essence of Purim is to be joyful, silly, as we celebrate our people's survival. On this day we read the story of Esther, eat Hamentaschen, deliver Shlach Manot, "portions of food" to friends, give charity to the poor, and drink and be merry. The rabbis stated: Mi shenikhas adar mar-bim be-simcha meaning "with the start of the month of Adar we greatly increase joy." Well, the Hebrew month of Adar is upon us and so is Purim. At Temple Beth David, we take celebrating very seriously, and we look forward to celebrating with you on Sunday, March 12.

SISTERHOOD MATTERS...

Sisterhood would like to thank Eileen Tobey and her volunteer ladies for their dedication to Purim hamentashen baking. On Sunday, February 26, they baked over 500 and returned on Monday to complete the task! Wow!

Sisterhood/Brotherhood would like to invite everyone to join us at Katella Deli for our March 6th “Dining Delights”. It is a yummy way to show your support.

As you are probably aware, Drapers N Damon are going out of business. You guessed it... they are not going to be able to do the scheduled fashion show in April. So, if you are aware of a possible vendor who would do a show, please let me know. (714-846-1591)

The Sisterhood Shabbat service will be held on March 11th. We hope that you will be able to join us.

Carry out a random act of kindness, with no expectation of reward, safe in the knowledge that one day someone might do the same for you.

Shalom,

Anne Farber, President

BROTHERHOOD BRUNCH
AT 10:30 AM

This will be a truly incisive event for those seeing and listening to what Daniel Gary will be providing them in so many aspects. Plus, you will enjoy a delicious brunch that is another resource for your attendance.

Daniel will bring forth the various elements of what has been a challenge for our long-term drought. He has worked for the Los Angeles County Sanitation Districts since 1989. His experience lets us know what we need and how we need it every way, shape, and form for the recycling of water!!

Please RSVP by March 15!! The flyer of the event will be found in the Megillah and the Shavua Tov!! We look forward to seeing you all there!! Again, eat, drink, listen, and knowing will be the true benefit for your attendance!!!

Please Note that the flyers are in this Megillah!

We would truly love the TBD Brotherhood members helping us set-up the game booths on Saturday, March 11 at 1:00 PM for the Sunday, March 12, 11:00 AM Purim Carnival. We have four game booths and could truly use your service.

After the booth set-up, we need help to package the Yom Hashoah candles which will be given forth at the Purim Carnival. Also, they will be provided to our Temple members prior to and at the Yom Hashoah service on April 23 at 10:00 AM.

At the Purim Carnival, the Brotherhood will be selling delicious food and drinks. We would love to have our members helping to allow the cooking and offering of them. Contact Mitch Halbreich @ mitchellhalbreich@yahoo.com to say you are coming!!

March 2017

Charlie Niederman, VP, Planning & Development

This month we should focus on the new US administration and how it formalizes its diplomatic relationship and policy to Israel and the Middle East peace process. In order to ensure Israel's security and future as a Jewish and democratic state, the Reform Movement has long supported a negotiated two-state solution as the only viable means of resolving the Israeli-Palestinian conflict. Currently the administration has put forward David Friedman to become the next Ambassador to Israel. The Religious Action Center of Reform Judaism (RAC) and the Association of Reform Zionists of America (ARZA) as well as our Union for Reform Judaism (URJ) are all concerned by statements that indicate that the new administration is moving away from the two state solution as the basis for an agreement and lasting peace between Israelis and the Palestinians. During the election the Republican Party platform endorsed "the vision of two democratic states living in peace and security: Israel, with Jerusalem as its capital, and Palestine." Similarly the Democrats called for lasting agreement with "a democratic, viable Palestinian state dedicated to living in peace and security side by side with the Jewish State of Israel." The policy is clearly bipartisan.

In a reply to a letter to the Trump campaign the URJ asked questions about its position on the two state solution. David Friedman made clear that he is open to a single state and that he believes that the overwhelming demographic data showing that Jews in a single state would become a minority is incorrect. The letter and annotations in response by Rabbi Rick Jacobs, President of the URJ, are online at: <http://www.urj.org/blog/2016/07/07/donald-trump-advisers-response-rabbi-rick-jacobs-questions-middle-east-policy-raise>

The position of the administration puts them at odds with many in Israel that are promoting the two state solution to Netanyahu's coalition government. Most influential of Israel's supporters of the two state solution is the Commanders for Israel's Security, a non-partisan movement of more than 100 former senior security officials at the level of general or equivalent from the IDF, Mossad, Israel Security Agency and Police. They state on their web site that, "The IDF can provide an optimal response to any security challenge... The question of whether Israel has a negotiating partner at any point in time should not serve as an excuse for resigning ourselves to a deteriorating security and political situation. Political and security arrangements with the Arab world, together with progress towards an agreement with the Palestinians based on two states for two peoples, will contribute to Israel's security and preserve its identity for generations to come. Reaching such agreements is, therefore, a top national priority. Until such agreements can be reached, however, Israel must take independent measures to defend itself, to provide its citizens with a feeling of personal security, to maintain and improve conditions for dialogue with neighboring countries and for negotiations with the Palestinians, and to enhance its own international status."

If you feel the two state solution is important you should email Senator Feinstein at: <http://www.feinstein.senate.gov/public/index.cfm/e-mail-me> and Senator Harris at: <https://www.harris.senate.gov/content/contact-senator>

Continuing the status quo in Israel only makes final agreement with Palestinians and neighboring moderate Arab states more difficult.

In 1948 a group of World War II pilots volunteered to fight for Israel in the War of Independence. This rag tag group of volunteers from abroad not only turned the tide of the war, they also laid the groundwork for the Israeli Air Force. This movie brings together pilots from the "48 Arab-Israeli War as well as scholars and statesmen.

A tale that reverberates up to the present day.

Do you have a college student living away from home?

Would you like to share in chag sameach pesach joyous holiday of Passover with your student?

If so, Sisterhood would be happy to send a small treat.

Help us let these kids know we're thinking of them. Just send me your student's information by March 30th - name and mailing address at school - and we'll do the rest. Of course this works best if your student is on campus for Passover to receive the package.

Thank you.

February 2, 2017

To our Temple Beth David congregants,

We are excited to host a Casino Night on Saturday, May 6, 2017 at 7:00pm as our spring fundraiser for the Temple. It will be fun to play, socialize, nosh, drink, and laugh together.

As you know, the funds from this night are a critical part of our annual budget and will help support our programs, building needs, teachers, and staff.

Would you or your business like to be a sponsor this evening? Sponsorships will be the primary source of revenue for this event.

We have three levels to offer:

Platinum ($1000.00)

- 8 admission tickets
- Parking spot
- $1000 additional play money for individual sponsor
- Name/business on invitation
- Name on sponsor display board

Gold ($500.00)

To Our Temple Beth David Family:

As most of you are aware, our Temple depends on donations to deliver the high quality of services to all of you. We understand that many of you are still struggling with the recent economic downturn. However, we have come up with a way that will allow you to donate to the Temple without spending a penny of your own money, plus you will actually save money on many purchases that you normally make!

We would like to introduce you to Goodshop and Goodsearch. Goodshop works with more than 5,000 stores that will provide all of you with discounts on what you normally buy and then will donate up to 20% of the purchase price to the Temple. You will simply click on a link on the Temple Home Page, start saving money for your family and help the Temple out as well! We have included an easy step-by-step signup guide with this letter. Here are some examples of companies that participate in the program:

Target, Macy's, Nordstrom, Neiman Marcus, Sears, Sak's, Apple, Old Navy, the Gap, Amazon, Office Depot, Petco, Staples, Dell, The Limited, Holiday Inn, Groupon, Levi's, Lands End, Best Buy, 1-800 Flowers, 24 Hour Fitness, and Victoria's Secret.

These are companies that we all normally shop at, and by simply clicking on the link on the Temple website, you will be saving money for your family and actually raising money for the Temple. In addition, you can also save money by dining out at participating restaurants and, at the same time, raising donations for the Temple as well. It's simple, free and easy to use, and the average family using the site over a year will actually raise more than $350 annually for the Temple. Multiply that by our 300 families and we will raise more than $100,000 per year for the Temple! This program really works. Goodshop has raised more than $11 million for charitable organizations with this program.

Likewise, we are also rolling out Goodsearch. By doing your internet searches through Goodsearch.com, which links with Yahoo, the Temple will receive a penny for every internet search. If you can imagine how many internet searches you do, and your families do, this will also add up to real money for the Temple.

We encourage all of you to participate and to help strengthen our Temple for all of us and for the generations to come.

With best regards,

Neil Kornswiet
