Come Celebrate Israel's 70th Birthday in Israel!

Rabbi Nancy Myers

November 2017

"Every time I go to Israel it is in many ways like going home, it is welcoming and comfortable to be in the only country where what we do as Jews is the norm and the way of life."

Charlie Niederman

I am excited to lead our trip to Israel this upcoming April! I've designed this trip for both newcomers and experienced visitors to Israel. You are welcome to join us whether you are a member of Temple Beth David or just feel a connection to our community.

We will explore the Old City of Jerusalem with its sacred sites to Judaism, Christianity, and Islam. There will be festive Shabbat celebrations. In Jerusalem, we'll enjoy a tasting tour of the Arab market and enjoy shopping opportunities. There will be unique opportunities to learn about the religious diversity of Israel in history and current day.

In Haifa, we'll learn about the Druze community, view the famous Baha'i Gardens, and learn about the plight of Jewish refugees coming to the land before it became a state. We'll enjoy wine tasting and great Israeli food.

Then in Tel Aviv, we will stand with Israel as the Memorial Day siren sounds all over the country and visit the Rabin center. This is dedicated to the history of democracy in Israel.

And we will celebrate Israel's birthday with music and dancing as fireworks light up the sky.

On the Western Wall: "You see pictures of it in books, and in the news you see people praying there, but when you are right next to it and can touch it, a whole different feeling came over me...I just stared at the wall and realized Israel is my home as well as the United States and I will always feel that way." Lynne Horn

Also, join us for our Israel information meeting on Wednesday night, Nov. 15 at 7:00 p.m.

I hope you can join us.

I agree that visiting Israel can seem like going home, but one where there is always something new to learn or see, even in such a small country. Cathy Niederman

SISTERHOOD MATTERS...

What an enjoyable membership brunch many of us attended last month. Love the new addition to my garden.

Sisterhood is sponsoring the back page of the new Temple Member Directory. Look for yours at the Hanukkah carnival. Speaking of the carnival, we have 27 vendors for the boutique and many new items purchased for the gift shop, plus delicious latkas and brotherhood's bar-b-q, game booths and much more.

We are dedicating the carnival/boutique in memory of Edie Schwartz who spent many years organizing this annual event. Please plan to attend the carnival. Much work goes into planning the carnival and we appreciate your support.

Hope you had an opportunity to browse the historian's scrap book. Phyllis is a pro at this!

Thanksgiving is fast approaching and I want to extend wishes for a wonderful holiday from your board of directors.

Shalom ,

Charlie Niederman, VP, Planning & Development

In what turned out to be a follow up to last month's article I attended a lecture at the Alpert J.C.C. by Dr. Steven Spiegel (UCLA) on "The Middle East and the Trump Administration." He did not feel that US Ambassador to Israel, David Freeman, was really a player in the Trump administration. His main theme was that Donald Trump really wants to conclude an Israeli-Palestinian peace treaty. According to Dr. Spiegel, a special envoy has been sent to work with both sides. To say I'm skeptical is an understatement.

The leaders of the American Conservative and Reform movements will meet shortly with the Prime Minister Netanyahu to push for restoration of the 2016 agreement to create an egalitarian prayer area at the Kotel (Western Wall). It probably will be a less than cordial meeting.

Both the Economist and New Yorker have run articles about Avi Gabbay, the new leader of the Labor Party, elected in a July primary. Gabbay is the seventh of eight children of a Moroccan immigrant family who rose to head Bezeq, the internet service provider for most Israelis, after it was privatized. His prior experience in politics was working with the founders of Kulanu, a political party whose primary issues are improving the economic condition of the lower middle class. It is part of the ruling coalition and although he was not a Knesset member, Netanyahu appointed him to be Environmental Protection Minister. He broke with Netanyahu when the coalition took a turn to far right and resigned in protest over the appointment of Avigdor Lieberman as Minister of Defense. In December last year he joined Labor. Traditionally, Labor leaders have come from the military, the Kibbutz Movement, or labor movements; so he has broken that mold. He has initiated changes in policy that move Labor to the center, and now Labor shows new strength in polls. In the next election, if he continues on his current path, Labor stands a realistic chance of creating its own ruling coalition. As the Economist put it, "The anomaly of Israeli politics is that a majority of voters supports the left's two-state solution but continues to vote for right-wing leaders. Perhaps that will change if Labour is led by a right-winger."

There is a bill in the Knesset, initiated by 14 members from mostly far right religious parties, that addresses the "Basic Law: Israel - The Nation-State of the Jewish People" often referred to in pleadings before Israel's Supreme Court as "Basic Law" and in the Knesset bill as the "Nation-State." This law and related legislation now being proposed in the Knesset is the result of Israel not having a constitution after nearly 70 years of trying.

The provisions of the bill are extensive and it is highly controversial. It purports to advance the principles Israel's Declaration of Independence that describes the state as democratic and pluralistic.

One area of extreme concern is the addition of Halakhic Law (Jewish Law) as part of the basis for court decisions. Defense Minister Avigdor Lieberman, who is the leader of Yisrael Beiteinu that is not a friend of the left, was critical of the bill, saying he feared it would be used to turn Israel into a state governed by halakha, Jewish religious law. He said, "I have great difficulty with the nation-state law. Instead of turning Israel into a Jewish state they're trying to turn it into a halakhic state," Lieberman continued that "our position is to take the Declaration of Independence and legislate it."

He was referring to the provision which specifies that courts rule "in light of the principles of Jewish law" in the absence of clear legislation or legal precedent. This provision has been changed to a separate bill for ordinary law, so it is not now part of the current version of the Nation-State Basic Law bill and it can be overruled. The Jewish Law provisions have been criticized over concerns that they discriminate against women, non-Jews and homosexuals.

A coalition of ten women's groups says the law could undermine the status of Israeli women. The groups fear that the effort to strengthen the state's Jewish characteristics by making religious law part of modern law will be detrimental to women. They say, "A number of bills being advanced in the Knesset undermine the right to equality by granting unprecedented status to religious law in Israel," the organizations also expressed their concern about "giving halakha the power to affect the status of numerous populations and substantially broadening the authority of the rabbinical courts."

We are sure to hear more about the Nation-State bill.

Message from Membership Chair

The High Holy Days are Over... Now what?

You have experienced beautiful Jewish holidays....now what should you do to gain part ownership of Temple Beth David? For, the best way to really be part of a family is to PARTICIPATE in the life of that family. Here are some suggestions to help you on your way. If you choose just ONE of these ideas, you will be a life long member of the Temple Beth David family because you will own its spirit, its ruach.

Attend Shabbat services REGULARLY.

Join Brotherhood or Sisterhood (perhaps Brotherhood will open up to the female gender, just as the Boy Scouts did!!)

Join the Choir (reading music not required).

If you work, attend weekend activities, such as Mind, Body, Spirit, or the special programs that are offered regularly.

Be a Shabbat greeter.

If you do not work, attend Club 55 programs, Lunch and Learn with the Rabbi, or volunteer to help in the office.

Tell Eileen Tobey you would LOVE to bake for oneg shabbats.

Find Lynn Horn or Debbie Lechuk (no, they are not actually lost) and volunteer to work on social action projects.

If you have children in religious school and/or youth groups, be an active parent.

There are probably more suggestions, but any one of these will put you well on your way to BELONGING in the truest sense.

Shalom and love,
Florence

The Temple Beth David Library is finally all cataloged and automated.

The Online Public Access Catalog will be on the Temple Beth David website soon. The Library will be completely organized sometime in November. Once the catalog is up on the Temple's website feel free to use. The library has 2,200 books and about 100 multimedia items.

To check out a book take the card out of the book pocket and write your name and phone number and date of check out on the card. Put the card in a plastic box which will live in the wire basket. Take a card out of the plastic box and write the due date on the card and place it in the pocket in the book. Check out is 4 weeks. When you return items to the library find the card in the plastic box return it to the items pocket. Return the card in the items pocket to the plastic box. Place the item on the black six shelf book truck. I will file the items away once or twice a month.

Do you have a BUCK for the Bucket?

TBD Sisterhood is participating in Women of Reform Judaism Pacific District's 2017 Bucket Brigade: Seeds and Mortar for Camp Newman

As many of you know, raging fires recently swept through Northern California. Sadly, Camp Newman lost its physical structure in the fire. We are grateful that no harm came to staff or campers. The Torah scrolls were evacuated. Miraculously, the entrance gate, vineyard, prayer books, tallitot, and the iconic wooden Star of David that overlooks the camp from a rocky perch somehow were spared. Read more in this iweekly.com article and check Camp Newman's Facebook for updates and for other ways you can help.

And if you can spare a buck, our bucket will be on the table in the foyer. All monies collected will be forwarded to WRJ's Pacific District to be forwarded to Camp Newman.

Goodshop

Goodsearch

To Our Temple Beth David Family:

As most of you are aware, our Temple depends on donations to deliver the high quality of services to all of you. We understand that many of you are still struggling with the recent economic downturn. However, we have come up with a way that will allow you to donate to the Temple without spending a penny of your own money, plus you will actually save money on many purchases that you normally make!

We would like to introduce you to Goodshop and Goodsearch. Goodshop works with more than 5,000 stores that will provide all of you with discounts on what you normally buy and then will donate up to 20% of the purchase price to the Temple. You will simply click on a link on the Temple Home Page, start saving money for your family and help the Temple out as well! We have included an easy step-by-step signup guide with this letter. Here are some examples of companies that participate in the program:

Target, Macy's, Nordstrom, Neiman Marcus, Sears, Sak's, Apple, Old Navy, the Gap, Amazon, Office Depot, Petco, Staples, Dell, The Limited, Holiday Inn, Groupon, Levi's, Lands End, Best Buy, 1-800 Flowers, 24 Hour Fitness, and Victoria's Secret.

These are companies that we all normally shop at, and by simply clicking on the link on the Temple website, you will be saving money for your family and actually raising money for the Temple. In addition, you can also save money by dining out at participating restaurants and, at the same time, raising donations for the Temple as well. It's simple, free and easy to use, and the average family using the site over a year will actually raise more than $350 annually for the Temple. Multiply that by our 300 families and we will raise more than $100,000 per year for the Temple! This program really works. Goodshop has raised more than $11 million for charitable organizations with this program.

Likewise, we are also rolling out Goodsearch. By doing your internet searches through Goodsearch.com, which links with Yahoo, the Temple will receive a penny for every internet search. If you can imagine how many internet searches you do, and your families do, this will also add up to real money for the Temple.

We encourage all of you to participate and to help strengthen our Temple for all of us and for the generations to come.

With best regards,

Neil Kornswiet
