Rabbi Myers September 2016 Bulletin

The wonders of the High Holy Day season

A Chasidic teaching states "Just as the hand, held before the eye, can hide the tallest mountain, so the routine of everyday life can keep us from seeing the vast radiance and the secret wonders that fill the world."

It's so easy when we are busy to miss the radiance and wonder in the world around us. Most of us are just trying to get by, finish the next chore, face the next challenge, and then we collapse in exhaustion at the end of another day. However, if we can manage to slow down; maybe we can think, feel, pray, and live. By shifting our focus away, even momentarily, from our tasks, perhaps we might see the beauty in nature, the kindness of others, and the love of family. The High Holy Day period, beginning with Selichot, can offer an opportunity to move beyond the ordinary into a realm of radiance, beauty, wonder, and meaning. To be sure there is gravity to this time of reflection but there is also an opportunity to sense our place in this world and to appreciate how special each and every day is to us.

Our Selichot program this year is on Saturday night, Sept 24 beginning at 6:15 p.m. We will view the movie Groundhog Day and discuss how we can learn from our mistakes. Immediately afterwards, we will have Havdalah under the stars and then experience a moving candlelit service starting at 9:00 p.m. (yes, we moved it one hour earlier. No excuse not to come!) A highlight of our service will feature the melodic voices of our choir in the sanctuary. Selichot at TBD always sets the stage for a moving High Holy Day Season.

Of special interest this year will be our second day Rosh Hashanah service with Congregation Bnai Tzedek at the Huntington Beach Pier on Tuesday, October 4 beginning at 10:30 a.m. Invite your neighbors and friends to this interactive Rosh Hashanah service. There is no cost. Dress to be outdoors!

Once Yom Kippur is over, we hope to see you in our beautiful, one of a kind sukkah. I promise you no other synagogue has a sukkah like ours. This one was specially designed for our Temple and the men of our brotherhood put it up every year. Come to the first night of Sukkot on Sunday night, October 16, study in it on Shabbat morning, or pack a picnic lunch or dinner and dine in it during the week. It's a mitzvah to eat, study, and even sleep in a sukkah. What a wonderful way to remember the Israelites' trek in the desert and the beauty of our world.

Wait, wait! There's even more joy with Simchat Torah. We have a brief worship service followed by dancing with the Torahs to live music. It is so uplifting! Simchat Torah is on Sunday night, October 23 at 7:00 p.m.

The holidays of this season give us an opportunity to remove barriers that prevent us from seeing the wonder of our world and the radiance of our lives. May this season be meaningful for you and your loved ones and as always, we pray for a sweet new year to come.

ARZA By Charlie Niederman Association of Reform Zionists of America

September 2016

Charlie Niederman, VP, Planning & Development

Both the foreign ministries of Israel and Turkey say that ambassadors will be named shortly which will reestablish full diplomatic relations. The Turkish government also announced that it will continue to speak out for Palestinians when they believe that Israel is violating their rights. Israel for its part has not commented. However in an unrelated announcement Defense Minister Lieberman has said that Israel will adopt a carrot and stick approach with Palestinians; rewarding those locations that have had no residents attack Israel, while those that are the homes of attackers will be punished. The carrot approach is new and it remains to be seen what action the IDF will take.

There was no movement by Israel's government last month on the egalitarian prayer area at the Kotel (Western Wall). While it was agreed in February, the religious parties and the Rabbinate have prevailed upon the governing coalition to stop the process. There was some slight progress on fairness in funding rabbis and facilities of the progressive Jewish denominations as reported in the following ARZA blog.

"ARZA, The Association of Reform Zionists of America, applauds the Israeli government's affirmative vote and plan to invest 10 million shekels ($2.6 million) to construct four mikvaot to be used by Reform and Masorti Jews in Israel for their purposes including for Jews-by-Choice in their conversion rituals.

Though ARZA supports this decision, we remain concerned about the governing coalition's unwillingness to confront anti-Reform extremism by Members of the Knesset, members of the governing coalition, and in the country as a whole. Time and again, political and Orthodox actors seeking to deny the legitimacy of Reform and Masorti (Conservative) Judaism have targeted these streams' rabbis and access to such sacred sites as the Kotel and mikvaot. This compromise solution is not enough: separate is not equal.

As long as state funds are available for Orthodox yeshivot, synagogues, and mikvaot, equivalent funds must be made available to the Israeli Reform and Masorti movements. They should not be forced to rely upon private donations and largess for their growth and operations, nor should Reform and Masorti rabbis be compensated by an entity other than the Rabbinate (non-Orthodox rabbis are compensated currently by the same ministry that compensates athletic coaches). Reform Zionism seeks an Israel that is democratic, diverse, and free from religious coercion, and in which the tax dollars paid by Reform and Masorti Jews are not used to support religious spaces to which they cannot access and use according to their respective traditions. ARZA will continue to fight for an Israel that is pluralistic, democratic and open to all."

Goodshop

To Our Temple Beth David Family:

As most of you are aware, our Temple depends on donations to deliver the high quality of services to all of you. We understand that many of you are still struggling with the recent economic downturn. However, we have come up with a way that will allow you to donate to the Temple without spending a penny of your own money, plus you will actually save money on many purchases that you normally make!

We would like to introduce you to Goodshop and Goodsearch. Goodshop works with more than 5,000 stores that will provide all of you with discounts on what you normally buy and then will donate up to 20% of the purchase price to the Temple. You will simply click on a link on the Temple Home Page, start saving money for your family and help the Temple out as well! We have included an easy step-by-step signup guide with this letter. Here are some examples of companies that participate in the program:

Target, Macy's, Nordstrom, Neiman Marcus, Sears, Sak's, Apple, Old Navy, the Gap, Amazon, Office Depot, Petco, Staples, Dell, The Limited, Holiday Inn, Groupon, Levi's, Lands End, Best Buy, 1-800 Flowers, 24 Hour Fitness, and Victoria's Secret.

These are companies that we all normally shop at, and by simply clicking on the link on the Temple website, you will be saving money for your family and actually raising money for the Temple. In addition, you can also save money by dining out at participating restaurants and, at the same time, raising donations for the Temple as well. It's simple, free and easy to use, and the average family using the site over a year will actually raise more than $350 annually for the Temple. Multiply that by our 300 families and we will raise more than $100,000 per year for the Temple! This program really works. Goodshop has raised more than $11 million for charitable organizations with this program.

Likewise, we are also rolling out Goodsearch. By doing your internet searches through Goodsearch.com, which links with Yahoo, the Temple will receive a penny for every internet search. If you can imagine how many internet searches you do, and your families do, this will also add up to real money for the Temple.

We encourage all of you to participate and to help strengthen our Temple for all of us and for the generations to come.

With best regards,

Neil Kornswiet Aaron Kern Nancy Meyers
