Myers August 2016 Bulletin Thank You

I'm back.

I want to thank all of you for supporting me and our synagogue during my sabbatical. It was my hope for the synagogue to be okay in my absence. I've been happy to hear that all has been well and this is because of so many of you.

First all, thank you to our lay leaders. I've always marveled at the bright, kind, and hard-working board members who give of their time in building and maintaining our congregational community. I understand that many stepped up to ensure that our programs, services, and events flowed smoothly. Thank you especially to our outgoing president Aaron Kern and new president Eric Schiffer.

Thank you to Cantorial Soloist Nancy Linder. I have heard how she cared for our congregants in times of need and ensured organization to our worship services. I feel blessed to serve our congregation by her side. I began my time away also feeling great confidence in Edie Mino as our office manager, Elizabeth Kleinman as the director of our Religious School, and Vanessa Johnson in charge of our preschool.

Many of our congregants also volunteered to assist to cover services, holidays, and programs in my absence.

Friday night service leaders: A big thank you to Robin Harrison. He did a beautiful job leading our monthly family service. Larry Matalon always brings a great knowledge of Judaism and sweetness to leading our services. Also, I am grateful to our other service leaders: Charlie Niederman, Rabbi Robin Hoffman, Anne Katz/ Anne Farber, Arnie Weintraub, Matt Paretsky, Elliot Semmelman, & Cantor. We had great story telling by Florence Sudakow and Michelle Twisselmann. Larry Matalon, Arnie Weintraub, Irma Moskowitz, Rabbi Hoffman, Elliot Semmelman, and Dan Karmon offered wonderful d'vrei torah, i.e., sermons and discussions.

In the arena of learning, a big thank you goes out to Dan Karmon for facilitating our Lunch and Learn and to our Torah study leaders: Mercedes Neves-Hatchwell, Larry Matalon, Joel Berman, & Robin Harrison.

For holidays, Charlie Niederman provided organizational support for our Yom Hashoa, Holocaust remembrance day, Joel Berman organized the pre-Purim l'chayim, and Perry Goldstein led a fun second night Passover seder.

Thank you to Sharon Matalon for leading our Tot Shabbat with our cantor.

Thank you to those I forgot to list by name.

Even as I'm grateful, I also know that I must say I'm sorry as well. Because of my time away, I wasn't there for you in your times of need. There is no right or wrong with these sentiments. I hope you are comfortable approaching me to share your frustration or disappointment. I really want to hear from you.

Overall, I feel that I put my time to good use. I finished the draft of my novel. I am now working on the editing process and hopefully procuring an agent. This, I understand, will take a long time. I also used my time to help my children and in doing so, I have learned of the great resources provided by therapists and guidance counselors. I was also grateful to lessen my work stress for a while so I can come back re-energized and ready to meet the challenges and joys of synagogue life.

I am grateful for my time away and I am happy to return to serve you and our congregation as your rabbi.

>>> President's Message

Welcome Back

Has it already been six months? I mean looking back to early February, it doesn't seem that long ago that the Broncos won the Super Bowl or that Punxsutawney Phil (the groundhog) didn't see his shadow. Yet it was that same week that the Rabbi began her well-deserved Sabbatical, which, six months later, has now concluded. So please join me in welcoming the Rabbi back to TBD. She will be back in the office on August 2- and don't worry, we have already informed her that it is BYOHH (Bring Your Own Hard Hat)- at least for a few more days. We will also be having an Oneg to honor the Rabbi's return from Sabbatical following services on August 5, so we hope to see all of you there.

While it will certainly be nice to have the Rabbi "back in the saddle" as they say, I would be remiss if I did not offer sincere thanks on behalf of the board to everyone who stepped-up in the Rabbi's absence to help TBD navigate through this Sabbatical. Yes, I'm talking to you Cantor Linder who filled-in so admirably. I'm also talking to you Larry and Sharon Matalon, the entire TBD office staff, and of course, all our lay leaders who stepped-in to lead excellent Shabbat services. Thank you all for helping to make this Sabbatical as seamless as we hoped it could be.

Before I wrap up this article, I just wanted to share that I did a little digging into the derivation of the term "Sabbatical"mainly because it looks an awful lot like Sabbath to me- and low and behold, I found that the term is related to the Hebrew word "Shmita," which literally means "release." Apparently the Sabbath year (or Sabbatical year) was traditionally the seventh year of the sevenyear agricultural cycle when the land was left to lie fallow and all agricultural activity was forbidden. For those who observed the Shmita, which was a test of faith, bountiful harvests were promised.

So welcome back Rabbi, and welcome to our (almost completed) beautiful new TBD office. Here's to new beginnings, rejuvenation, replenishment, and of course, a prosperous year for TBD and for all of us. And one final nudge: please get your membership renewed if you have not yet done so. Happy August. Stay cool and hydrated. And did I mention membership renewals?

ARZA By Charlie Niederman Association of Reform Zionists of America

ARZA ARZA Association of Reform Zionists of America Connecting Reform Jews and Israel

August 2016

The status of relations between Israel and Turkey, discussed last month have taken a back seat to the purges going on in Turkey since the failure the short lived coup. One interesting item indirectly related is that there is threatened legal action by Cyprus against Israel over the planned route of the natural gas pipeline between Israel and Turkey. The future exporting of natural gas was an incentive for the improved relations with Turkey.

On an item important to Reform Jews, there has been no progress by Israel's governing coalition on the development of the egalitarian prayer area that was proposed and approved in January. Jerusalem Online reported that Rabbi Rick Jacobs, President of the Union for Reform Judaism, the movement to which our Temple belongs, led a group of 200 men and women that prayed, and sang at the kotel, the Western Wall of the Temple. A similar prayer service last month at the kotel generated fierce opposition from haredi and national-religious protesters. This month's rally elicited only a few whistles and shouts from half a dozen veshiva students. Rabbi Jacobs said that it would be the first of many prayer sessions this summer. Hundreds of groups from the Reform and Conservative movements will visit Israel this year and conduct egalitarian prayer sessions.

Leaders of the progressive Jewish denominations from the US and in Israel, including Jacobs, met with Netanyahu in June to reiterate the importance of implementing the agreement to Diaspora Jews. Asked by The Jerusalem Post about the way forward following the meeting with the prime minister, Jacobs said that it was time for the government to implement the agreement.

A surprising item that Jerusalem Online reported was that the government issued a report on the discrimination against the Arab citizens in Israel. It reveals a bleak status quo, but it is impressive that the current right wing coalition government is the first to take any action on the situation. According to the report the assistance program for the Arab sector in Israel. Only 23% of Arab Israelis (not Palestinians) are eligible for quality high school diplomas, as opposed to 47% of all the Israeli population. Meanwhile, only 13% of university and college students in Israel are Arab, despite the fact that they constitute 22% of the relevant population. At least 60 Israeli Arab towns have intercity roads crossing through them as opposed to a small number of Jewish towns that do, and that Israeli authorities invest $1507 in every Arab citizen, as opposed to $2607 invested in every Jewish citizen. The gaps are also evident in the field of employment, as only 33.2% of Arab women are employed, as opposed to 71.4% of Jewish women. Among the reasons for this disparity is the small number of daycare services provided for Arab children: only 6% of the children who stay in daycare centers in Israel are from the Arab sector, and until 2012 barely any daycare centers were built for the Arab community.

The government is implementing an assistance program for the Arab sector.. Around $3.7 billion in total will be invested in the Arab sector throughout the next five years, thanks to the effective cooperation between the Finance Ministry, the Prime Minister's Office and the Social Equality Ministry.

To Our Temple Beth David Family:

As most of you are aware, our Temple depends on donations to deliver the high quality of services to all of you. We understand that many of you are still struggling with the recent economic downturn. However, we have come up with a way that will allow you to donate to the Temple without spending a penny of your own money, plus you will actually save money on many purchases that you normally make!

We would like to introduce you to Goodshop and Goodsearch. Goodshop works with more than 5,000 stores that will provide all of you with discounts on what you normally buy and then will donate up to 20% of the purchase price to the Temple. You will simply click on a link on the Temple Home Page, start saving money for your family and help the Temple out as well! We have included an easy step-by-step signup guide with this letter. Here are some examples of companies that participate in the program:

Target, Macy's, Nordstrom, Neiman Marcus, Sears, Sak's, Apple, Old Navy, the Gap, Amazon, Office Depot, Petco, Staples, Dell, The Limited, Holiday Inn, Groupon, Levi's, Lands End, Best Buy, 1-800 Flowers, 24 Hour Fitness, and Victoria's Secret.

These are companies that we all normally shop at, and by simply clicking on the link on the Temple website, you will be saving money for your family and actually raising money for the Temple. In addition, you can also save money by dining out at participating restaurants and, at the same time, raising donations for the Temple as well. It's simple, free and easy to use, and the average family using the site over a year will actually raise more than $350 annually for the Temple. Multiply that by our 300 families and we will raise more than $100,000 per year for the Temple! This program really works. Goodshop has raised more than $11 million for charitable organizations with this program.

Likewise, we are also rolling out Goodsearch. By doing your internet searches through Goodsearch.com, which links with Yahoo, the Temple will receive a penny for every internet search. If you can imagine how many internet searches you do, and your families do, this will also add up to real money for the Temple.

We encourage all of you to participate and to help strengthen our Temple for all of us and for the generations to come.

With best regards,

Neil Kornswiet Ways and Means Aaron Kern President Nancy Meyers Rabbi
