Hear the life story of Holocaust Survivor Dorothy Greenstein

Rabbi Nancy Rita Myers

April 2015

As too many of us know, few Holocaust survivors are alive to share their personal experiences. Their testimony to the horrors of the Holocaust keep the memory of their families alive, teach those who weren't there of their experiences, and inform a new generation about the Holocaust. It is imperative that we hear the voices of our survivors and that we bring our youth to hear them as well. As a rabbi, I feel an enormous mission to encourage as many people as possible to meet, listen, and hear the life stories of Holocaust survivors.

On Wednesday night, April 15, starting at 7:00 p.m., we will have our Yom Hashoa/Holocaust Commemoration service. This will feature the participation of our youth, survivors and their families, and the beautiful voices of our choir. Speaking that evening will be Dorothy Greenstein. Dorothy was born in 1930 in Otwock, Poland just outside of Warsaw to Yehoshua and Golda Kirszenbaum. Her father was a rabbi and a shochet (one who ritually slaughters animals for meat). Dorothy remembers loving to read and studying Hebrew as a young girl. At the age of 9, things dramatically changed for Dorothy. She was forced to live in a ghetto with her family. However, Dorothy was lucky, very lucky. She had light hair and blue eyes. Since the Nazis were taught that Jews don't have blue eyes or blonde hair, she could escape their detection. Dorothy would climb through a hole in the wall of the ghetto to bring back food. The Nazis always assumed she was just a Polish girl.

When she was 11 years old, she snuck out of the ghetto and worked as a "mother's helper" where she cleaned and took care of children. She abruptly had to leave her first job because her boss noticed that no family ever visited her. When asked if she was Jewish, Dorothy took the first opportunity to flee. At the next house, she was very careful. She never spoke Yiddish and willed herself to not even dream in that language that could reveal her identity. One night as she lay in bed frightened, her father came to her in a dream where he told her, "Don't be afraid. I'll watch over you." In August 1945, her sister arrived at the door to pick her up. Come hear more of Dorothy's story on Wednesday night, April 15. Please invite any friends, students, and teens to our Yom Hashoa commemoration.

Rabbi Nancy Myers

Now that spring is officially here, Sisterhood is looking forward to the events at Temple Beth David.

Friday evening, March 13 was the celebration of Sisterhood Shabbat. Sisterhood along with the Rabbi and Cantor led a beautiful service read by many of our Sisterhood members and prospective members. This year our service included the first publishing of poems written by our Religious Practices Chair, Anne Katz. Our guest speaker was Sharon Kenigsberg, Director of Endowments and Community Relations at the Long Beach JCC who spoke about the free PJ (pajama)

Library Program that benefits the kids and grandkids in our community. Ms. Kenigsberg had samples of books and information on how you can sign up for this free program for your children or grandchildren. A special Oneg Shabbat followed the service organized by Eileen Tobey.

Sisterhood is a proud to be a Platinum Sponsor for the Cantor's concert this month, an event we all look forward to for many years to come!

The new hearing assisting devices are installed in the sanctuary now and we are receiving good reports regarding their use. In addition we are proud to say that Sisterhood is in process of purchasing a new software program and tablet for the Early Childhood Learning Center that will greatly enhance their operational procedures. Plans are coming together for our annual Donor Luncheon in June. You will be receiving packets of tickets at the beginning of May to buy and sell for the wonderful items that are given away at this event. A Donor is worth $100 so if you haven't earned your donor yet, there is still time to contribute by donating cookies, brownies, and other sweets, purchases in the Judaica Shop, and serving on a committee at Sisterhood events.

It takes a large abundance of great men (and women) to make the Temple Beth David Brotherhood successful!!

Many of our dedicated volunteers put in numerous hours of their personal time during the last month and I must say THANK YOU!!!

Being a major part of the Purim Carnival by setting up and tearing down to game booths were Joel Berman, Mitch Halbreich, Rick Katz, Jeff LeBoff, Lee Netzer, Charlie Niederman, Rick Perlstein, Scott Telford and Yehuda Treiger. Grilling the hot dogs and hamburgers were Rick Katz, Howie Tobey and Jerrold Korn. The backbone of every event is Scott Whiteside. Again, thanks to all!!

During the past month, Brotherhood served food

2014 movie starring Tina Fey, Jane Fonda, Jason Bateman and others. The movie is about a family whose Jewish father passes away and the four grown siblings are forced to return to their childhood home and live under the same roof together for a week, along with their over-sharing mother and an assortment of spouses, exes and might-have-beens. Come and enjoy a relaxing evening and theatre snacks. Remember, the new chairs are comfortable.

The Brotherhood is presently working on our Annual Mother's Day Brunch which will be May 10th. Mother's are always our guest. I feel lucky that my 96 year old mother, who lives in Houston, is still living on her own and driving her car every day. Keep it up mom!!

Temple Member SPOTLIGHT: Yehuda & Mary Treiger

~ written by: Keri Gee Semmelman

April 2015

It takes one to know one. They both are kind. They both have a deep love for Israel. And, they both know what it is like to find love again...with the second time around finding their beshert. So is the beautiful lives of Yehuda and Mary Treiger, members of our temple since 2012.

Mary was born in Vancouver, British Columbia. Much of her childhood, alongside her sister, was spent living by and enjoying the ocean. However, after her parents divorced when she was six, she and her sister did live for three years in a boarding school (solely for economic reasons) which was an hour's bus ride away. There all the kids were like one big family who spent lots of time playing together. Coming home on the weekends was a joy for both them and their loving mom. Sadly her sister, a teacher, died at age 20 and then her mom passed early, too, by age 52.

An only child, Yehuda (called then by his English name "Edward"), was born in Philadelphia just like his mom. His dad was of Russian, Polish dissent. Yehuda grew up in Jewish neighborhoods, had a Bar Mitzvah, and they observed Jewish holidays. It was during junior high that Yehuda – who is in the Temple choir – first began to sing and dance. The truth be told, if you joined the school show, you didn't have to go to Social Studies class. He continued performing in high school and also joined the Fencing team which won City and State Championships two years in a row. For college, he stayed close to home to be near to his mom since his dad had passed when he was only 14. Yet by age 18 he married, left college to pursue full time employment, and began a family (two boys and a girl).

Over the course of his life, Yehuda worked in many different occupations – often elevating to supervisor or manager. They included: medical x-ray tech, industrial radiographer, jet engine factory worker, raising turkeys (which he especially enjoyed the physicality of), work at the Navy Yard, and was owner/operator of a truck transporting hazardous materials. He retired three years ago after spending 23 years driving smaller vehicles to deliver packages. Mary, too, got her Class C license and helped drive big rigs. Her past jobs were as a bookkeeper and bank teller.

Yet much earlier in her life, by age 19, Mary had completed some coursework in psychiatry, got married, and had a daughter and twin sons. After 12 years, the marriage ended and six years later she met Yehuda in Israel while volunteering on the Moshav where he and his family lived after making aliyah. Moving to Israel was a dream come true for Yehuda, yet once there his wife felt the opposite. They lived on a Moshav Shitufi – where one could look down the mountain and see the Mediterranean. Living was independent and work communal. They ultimately divorced, yet Yehuda will never forget the 2 ½ years there. Once back in the states, he realized how special his friend Mary was. Eventually he went to Canada, proposed, they married, and are now celebrating 36 years of marriage. In the process, Mary converted to Judaism and they moved to Orange County to live closer to Yehuda's son and his family.

Currently the Treigers are moving from Huntington Beach to Costa Mesa while keeping involved with Temple Beth David. Yehuda enjoys the Brotherhood, currently sings in the choir, and actively serves on the temple's Membership Committee. The sweet couple are in the "Clan Yehuda" Chavurah, attend many temple happenings, and serve as Shabbat greeters one Friday a month. The participatory music and warm congregation remind them so much of their temple back in New Jersey. They greatly admire our Rabbi and Cantor and the very dear friends they've easily made since joining.

Mary enjoys computer games and romance novels. Yehuda exercises daily, enjoys TV, and collects magnets, ducks, and pewter items. They also enjoy visiting family which includes three half-sisters for Mary and eight grandchildren between them. Mary's kids still live in Canada. One son is a lawyer, another a pharmaceutical consultant writing for medical journals, and her daughter is in customer relations. Yehuda's son who lives here owns a laser measurement service.

The couple especially enjoys one another. Yehuda appreciates that when he reaches for Mary, she is always there. She's warm hearted, tender, and happy. Mary especially enjoys Yehuda's sense of humor saying they laugh a lot together. She also likes how he keeps her organized and is so loving. While they live a very full life, including having travelled to all 50 states and most provinces in Canada, Mary hopes to take Yehuda to Italy to see all the historic sites. The Mayan ruins in Mexico is also on their bucket list.

A mantra they live by is "Don't sweat the small stuff." Mary adds, "We also look forward to every day." Thanks to the kind of people they are, we at Temple Beth David very much look forward to seeing them often. ✨

HOBBY CHAVUROT LAUNCHED

...Want to join one or more?

On March 22, the current Chavurah groups joined together and shared ideas, solutions, and bonded. It was a great meeting and the start of a new tradition. Right after, the new concept of Hobby Chavurot was launched. That, too, was a success! So far we've begun the groups below.

(If interested in joining one or more, please contact the person noted - ph # in Directory; or if you want to start a new Hobby Chavurah, please contact kerige1@aol.com.)

There was also great interest by members in cooking, hiking/nature, music, history, etc.

(Most are 1x/mo.)

Gardening Chavurah — Lynne Horn

Book Club Chavurah — Sandy Friedman

Movie Night Chavurah — Keri Gee Semmelman

Movie/Walk Chavurah (daytime) — Nancy Linder

Movie/Cultural Dining Chavurah (daytime) — Thea Weintraub

Thank You to the Congregants who attended and celebrated their fellow members... as 9 couples renewed their wedding vows.

That was very thoughtful and appreciated! ♥

Once again the Israeli voters confounded the pollsters and political pundits. Prime minister Netanyahu and his Likud Party, that on the day before the election was predicted to draw into a tie with the left center Zionist Union coalition at about 24 seats, actually won 30 seats, while Zionist Union remained at 24. Netanyahu's gains are generally considered to be the result of last minute electioneering on the day before and the day of the election. He called out to right wing voters to turn out because he said that Joint Arab List voters were being bused to vote in droves and then announced that he did not support the two state peace talks. His position on the peace process was a sharp shift from the position of prior Israeli governments, including his own. It widened a growing gap between Israel and the US and Western European governments. While he apologized for the Arab voter comment and has softened his position on peace, those statements have provoked mostly skepticism.

Israel's President Reuven Rivlin has called upon Netanyahu to form a coalition government; requiring him to build a 61 or more seat coalition. It is expected that the right of center parties will have to include some religious parties in the new government and that the left center parties and Arab list will be in the opposition minority.

On the day after the election ARZA hosted a conference phone call from Israel with Rabbi Gilad Kariv, the President of the Israel Movement for Reform and Progressive Judaism. He was himself a candidate on the Zionist Union list at number 31 for a Knesset seat. He wanted Americans to draw from the election that democracy in Israel is strong, and certainly a turnout of more than 73% of the electorate bears that out. He closed saying that it was very important for the Reform movement to get out the vote for the ARZA slate of representatives to the World Zionist Congress in the election for seats on the US delegation.

He said the votes help support our rapidly growing Reform movement in Israel.

It is more important than ever that there be a strong voice for Reform and Progressive Judaism at the World Zionist Congress this fall. Your vote for ARZA can decide how millions of dollars allocated worldwide are distributed in Israel and in the Diaspora. That money can allow Reform, Progressive and Conservative movements in Israel to get funding, and can insure that women's rights are protected. It can allow all streams of Judaism to reestablish themselves in the former Soviet Union, and it can help fight the rise in anti-Semitism in Europe.

You can register and vote at the same time. All Jewish men and women over 18 are entitled to vote for the slate of their choice. You may vote by going to the ARZA website www.arza.org and clicking on "Vote" and then "Vote now" and following the directions. To cover the election cost the American Zionist Movement, who run the voting, charges $5 fee for persons under age 30, and $10 for those over age 30.

As Rabbi Kariv pointed out, democracy in Israel is strong and it needs a strong Reform and Progressive Jewish voice.

PLEASE VOTE THE ARZA SLATE NOW.
IT DOES MAKE A DIFFERENCE.

You Can Help Kids with Less Put a Birthday in a Box!

A Concrete, Hands-on Way to Give

It's hard for many of us – adults or children – to imagine celebrating a child's birthday without a party or presents. But for many families, finding the extra money to afford a child's birthday celebration is a struggle at best, and frequently impossible.

One way to help is to provide a small "party in a box" for a child in need... The idea is to decorate and fill shoe boxes with everything needed for a small birthday party. (Or, pretty, decorated shopping bags can be used instead.) Each box goes to a different child.

Everyone is invited to donate:

Large sneaker-sized shoe boxes

Birthday wrapping paper and/or largish gift bags

Cake mixes

Frosting cans

Birthday candles

Wall decorations (like streamers, or happy birthday banners),

Gently used children's books (or new ones) that a child (age 3-12) might like

Small $5-$10 dollar child's gifts (again ages 3-12)

Please Also Join Us for Sisterhood's Social Action Sunday

April 12th, 9:30-11:30 am

We will be assembling the birthday boxes/bags for children in a local homeless shelter.

You do not need to be a Sisterhood member to attend.

Goodshop

Goodsearch

To Our Temple Beth David Family:

As most of you are aware, our Temple depends on donations to deliver the high quality of services to all of you. We understand that many of you are still struggling with the recent economic downturn. However, we have come up with a way that will allow you to donate to the Temple without spending a penny of your own money, plus you will actually save money on many purchases that you normally make!

We would like to introduce you to Goodshop and Goodsearch. Goodshop works with more than 5,000 stores that will provide all of you with discounts on what you normally buy and then will donate up to 20% of the purchase price to the Temple. You will simply click on a link on the Temple Home Page, start saving money for your family and help the Temple out as well! We have included an easy step-by-step signup guide with this letter. Here are some examples of companies that participate in the program:

Target, Macy's, Nordstrom, Neiman Marcus, Sears, Sak's, Apple, Old Navy, the Gap, Amazon, Office Depot, Petco, Staples, Dell, The Limited, Holiday Inn, Groupon, Levi's, Lands End, Best Buy, 1-800 Flowers, 24 Hour Fitness, and Victoria's Secret.

These are companies that we all normally shop at, and by simply clicking on the link on the Temple website, you will be saving money for your family and actually raising money for the Temple. In addition, you can also save money by dining out at participating restaurants and, at the same time, raising donations for the Temple as well. It's simple, free and easy to use, and the average family using the site over a year will actually raise more than $350 annually for the Temple. Multiply that by our 300 families and we will raise more than $100,000 per year for the Temple! This program really works. Goodshop has raised more than $11 million for charitable organizations with this program.

Likewise, we are also rolling out Goodsearch. By doing your internet searches through Goodsearch.com, which links with Yahoo, the Temple will receive a penny for every internet search. If you can imagine how many internet searches you do, and your families do, this will also add up to real money for the Temple.

We encourage all of you to participate and to help strengthen our Temple for all of us and for the generations to come.

With best regards,

Neil Kornswiet

Library News!

Dear Congregation:

Help me improve the children's and teenage section of the Temple Beth David Library:
If you have a birthday or anniversary coming up in your family would you consider donating one of the following award winning books to the Temple Beth David Library. The awards are the Sydney Taylor Book Awards given out by the Association of Jewish Libraries of which I am a member. The other awards are given out by the Jewish Book Council. The children's and teenage section of the Library are very small and I would like to build up this section for our younger members of Temple Beth David.

2015 Winners Sydney Taylor Award

My Grandfather's Coat by Jim Aylesworth, Scholastic Press – for younger readers

Hidden: A Child's Story of the Holocaust by Loic Dauvillier, Roaring Book Press – for older readers

Storm by Donna Jo Napoli, Simon and Schuster – for teenage readers

2014 Jewish Book Council Winners

Spinoza the Outcast Thinker by Devra Lehmann, children's and young adult literature

The Patchwork Torah by Allison Ofanansky, illustrated children's book

2014 Winners Sydney Taylor Award

The Longest Night: A Passover Story by Laurel Snyder, Schwartz and Wade Books– for younger readers

The Blessing Cup by Patricia Polacco, Simon & Schuster Books – for older readers

The Nazi Hunters: How a Team of Spies and Survivors Captured the World's Most Notorious Nazi by Neal Bascomb, Arthur A. Levine Books – for teenage readers

2013 Jewish Book Council Winners

The War within These Walls by Aline Sax, children's and young adult literature

Hanukkah Bear by Eric Kimmel, illustrated children's book

Sincerely,

Michelle Sandler

Librarian, Temple Beth David

The Jean Collection Project

A special thank you to all of the Temple members who brought jeans to give to Orange County Promises.

We have 21 pair of jeans to give to the homeless.
