Camp Newman is an excellent Jewish summer camp experience

Rabbi Nancy Rita Myers

August 2015

So, I survived my two weeks working at Camp Newman in Northern California. I have to say first and foremost that I was impressed with the Jewish learning and teen bonding that occurs up there. From the first moment a new camper is welcomed into his/her bunk, there is the singing of “Haveinu Shalom Aleichem, we are so glad to see you!” Seeing the smile on a newcomer’s face is heartening. Then every day in the morning, there’s an outdoor assembly with morning prayers, songs, and some silliness. Meals in the dining hall have motzi and the birkat hamazon. There are services, Judaic programming, and lots of great energy.

Shabbat evening at Camp Newman is special. Everyone wears white as we gather outdoors for a beautiful and spirited service. Dinner is roast chicken, eggplant and tofu, rice, green beans, and brownies. And then after dinner, the fun really begins. Each unit comes dancing out of the dining hall with the CIT’s singing full force. Everyone meets up at the basketball courts and joins in traditional Israeli dancing followed by more current dances to “Golden Boy” and other favorite songs. Seeing over 500 hundred people dance with all their might including staff and faculty to these songs was exciting. I almost forgot about my injured ankle! Thank God for my boot.

I loved seeing our Temple Beth David youth there! I hosted two TBD parties in my room. Our kids told me how nice it was for them to catch up with one another. I also liked “spying” on our kids and sending a few photos to their parents. With the exception of my own daughter, they didn’t seem to mind.

So the two weeks were an amazing experience for me. I worked hard with my 83 eighth and ninth graders in leading morning services and running programming on God and what it means to be perfect and holy. I was challenged and had to learn fast about camp culture but I honed my skills while there.

All in all, I left feeling that this is a very worthwhile experience for our youth. I am grateful for the Lynn Front Memorial URJ Campership Fund managed by the Foundation to support our youth who want to attend Camp Newman. So next year, who wants to go? I do.

Rabbi Nancy Myers

President's Report - August 2015

Aaron Kern, Temple President

As I begin this fourth and final year as Temple President, I wish to extend a warm welcome to our newest Board Members: Mitch Halbreich (Youth), Kelley Halbreich (Membership), Chuck Brochner (Buildings and Grounds) and Bob Altman/Michelle Sandler (co-trustees for Publicity). Once again, I believe we have a strong Board dedicated to sustaining and enhancing the TBD community.

I also wish to thank those individuals who have completed their terms and gave so much of their time and energy over the last few years: Keri Gee Semmelman, Marc Serlin, Diane Prince, Steve Harris and Terry Krieger. You all made significant contributions to Temple Beth David and your efforts shall be carried on by those that follow you.

Of course, it is not just the Board and its committee that work hard but so many of our members who step up to the plate when asked and donate their time, expertise and/or funds so generously. As a community, we have a lot to be proud of! Part of building and maintaining strong community focuses on building bridges and engagement. We see this through our multiple programs including the Oneg Shabbat and Havurahs by way of example. To further enhance our connectivity, we will soon be developing an updated photo-directory. The last one is 5 years old. If you are like me, you will see familiar faces but not recall names. The photo-directory will help us remember each other and our families and it will make our connections more personal. I strongly encourage each and every one of you to participate in the photo directory. More to follow soon.

If you have not already submitted your membership renewal by the time you read this, please consider doing it promptly. Early renewals make our planning much easier and, importantly, reduces the stress on Kim who is dedicated to ensuring a smooth process. It is your support that keeps us vibrant.

Thank you!

The month of July slipped by without hardly a notice with all of our vacations, work obligations and other activities in the summertime. Sisterhood Board took a rest from our regular meeting in July in order to get plans organized for the coming year. Our calendar for the year has been added to the Sisterhood pages of the Temple website. Thank you, Edie Mino!

This month I would like to honor and send a tribute to a few of our longer-time members, that is 50 years or more for their service and donations of time and money to our organization over the years. They would be:

Lois Abrams
Frieda Caplan
Jean Keleman
Hannah Levine
Annabelle Sandler

Thank you ladies – we look forward to your continued participation in Sisterhood. There are others who have been long-standing members of Sisterhood as well, but 50 years of membership and contributions are really special and deserve a huge Mazel Tov and L'Chaim!

Our first exciting event will be our annual Membership Brunch on Sunday morning, October 11. You will want to mark your calendars for this opportunity to join Sisterhood. Although this event is free you will need to RSVP by October 1 to Cathy Katz at (714) 381-4136 or Elaine Netzer at (714) 963-7583 to reserve your seat for this program. There will be entertainment that will bring you joy and lots of laughs, blintzes, bagels, balloons, a 50-50 raffle, and a great time to pay your dues if you haven't already done so.

In the near future there will be a "Kitchen Shower" to provide some new equipment for our sparkling new facility – more information to follow – and other exciting events. Please keep your Sisterhood calendar handy so you can plan ahead to attend our events.

Wishing you the best of health and happiness this summer!

Remember Sisterhood Matters!

Brotherhood Upcoming Events

T*his is your synagogue. Come and enjoy the many activities that are always taking place.* One of the Brotherhood engaging activities is the Jewish Men's Discussion Group. The group meets to have spirited discussions on a wide variety of subjects. They can range from current events and politics to happiness and greed. The actual discussions range far afield of the selected subject.

The purpose of the group is not to resolve anything. It is an interesting and fun opportunity for Jewish men to get together and share ideas in a respectful, and considerate manor. Plus, getting to know each other better, and develop friendships. The group usually meets the 2nd Wednesday of the month at 7:30 pm, in the synagogue's Spielman Schmooze and Bridal Room. The 3 upcoming ones will be 08/12, 09/09 and 10/14. For more information and to get on the email distribution list, contact Max Sudakow at fmsudakow@earthlink.net or call (714) 356-3245.

Here is a list the next three upcoming dates:

The High Holy Days are approaching soon. Many Brotherhood members fulfill their mitzvah by ushering for one or several of the services. If you are a Brotherhood member and would like to usher, also contact Max Sudakow at fmsudakow@earthlink.net or (714) 356-3245.

Membership Report - August 2015

Kelley Halbreich, VP Membership

With summer in full swing I found myself starting to plan for back-to-school, back to religious school and planning for the High Holy Days. Our beautiful summer days are dwindling quickly for crisp fall days-it has gone by so quickly. I hope you all have enjoyed your summer with family, travel and fun.

As we all begin planning for fall and the High Holy Days, this is a wonderful time for each of us to ask those around us not affiliated with a Synagogue if they would like to visit Temple Beth David. For some it may just be the invitation they were waiting for as the New Year approaches. There are also those folks in all of our lives that may have questions about what it is to be Jewish-bring them to a Shabbat Service. That simple action could make a great impact on someone because of you extending an invitation.

We have a wonderfully active congregation with great diversity. Our Religious School and Early Childhood Learning Center are second to none, the music is unique to our Synagogue thanks to Cantor Linder and Sharon D. Matalon and of course Rabbi Myers always brings a great twist with her presentation of weekly Torah portions. In addition to all of that we have great ways for all members of our congregation to be involved if they want to through Sisterhood and Brotherhood.

TBD EARLY CHILDHOOD LEARNING CENTER

Preschool News

Summer 2015

Summer has definitely arrived at the Early Childhood Learning Center. Children are running through our water obstacle course every week. There is mud cakes baking in our toy oven and children screaming in delight are all signs that we are in the midst of our favorite season.

We are well into our second session of summer and the fun has not slowed down. Our summer program is messy and busy as usual. The program runs somewhat differently from the rest of the school year. We base our curriculum on a weekly theme and keep the day less structured, with outdoor water play, crafts and art. The weekly themes include Community Helpers Week, Garden Week, Literature Week and Camping Week. The teachers and I are having a great time and the children seem to enjoy it also.

We have welcomed many new friends this summer and are currently enrolling for our new school year. We would love to tour anyone that is looking for an exceptional preschool experience for their children.

Wishing everyone a safe and fun summer.

For the next 60 days any discussion about Israel will center on the Iran Nuclear Agreement negotiated with the P5+1. Our Reform Movement Issued the following statement on July 14.

REFORM MOVEMENT LEADERSHIP STATEMENT

This morning, after extensive negotiations conducted under intense international scrutiny, P5+1 negotiators, led by Secretary of State John Kerry, announced that they have reached an agreement with Iran over that country's nuclear program. We in the Reform Jewish Movement remain committed to our belief that the United States and its allies must do all that is possible to prevent a nuclear-armed Iran, as well as to protect and enhance U.S. security and the security of our allies—particularly Israel—and promote stability in the entire Middle East.

We deeply appreciate the intense efforts of the multinational negotiators, especially the U.S. administration, for having worked so hard to try to come to a diplomatic resolution with Iran on containment of its nuclear program. As the U.S. Congress, other world leaders, and the American public, including the Jewish community, evaluate the details of the proposed agreement, we recognize that thoughtful people can and do hold strongly different opinions as to whether this agreement is the best obtainable result in securing our shared goals and upholding the ideal that solutions should be found through the negotiating process rather than a military confrontation.

During the last several months, leaders of our Reform Movement have consulted with experts and heard from advocates who both oppose and favor the framework outlined in March by the P5 +1 and Iran. We have conferred with our fellow Jewish organizations and met privately with the White House, the Secretary of State, and representatives of the State of Israel. Right now, we are continuing our ongoing dialogue with the U.S. administration, key members of Congress, Prime Minister Netanyahu, and other prominent Israeli leaders including leaders of the opposition. One helpful touchstone for our analysis of this agreement is the Washington Institute for Near East Policy's Public Statement on U.S. Policy Toward the Iran Nuclear Negotiations, which was endorsed by a panel of bipartisan diplomats and calls for a five-point program ensuring that Iran will not become a nuclear threshold state.

In the coming days and weeks, we will go back to our trusted experts and continue to consult with our constituencies to better understand the consequences of this proposed agreement. We urge all committed parties to take similar, carefully considered approaches before rushing to conclusions.

As the Congress moves forward, we will share our opinion on the viability of this agreement to achieve our goals: that the final agreement will put the optimal standard for restraints on Iran, preventing a nuclear-armed Iran, protecting the security of the United States, Israel and our allies around the world.

CENTRAL CONFERENCE OF AMERICAN RABBIS:

Rabbi Steve Fox, CEO, and Rabbi Denise L. Eger,

President RELIGIOUS ACTION CENTER OF

REFORM JUDAISM: Rabbi Jonah Dov Pesner,

Director, and Jennifer Kaufman, Chair, Commission on

Social Action of Reform Judaism

UNION FOR REFORM JUDAISM, Rabbi Rick Jacobs,

President, and Steve Sacks, Chair of the Board

While there have been comments that the Reform statement should have taken a defined position, making a thorough study of the document and the impact it will have also has merit. We cannot really put ourselves in the position of the Israelis who are wary of the agreement, because we are not in easy range of Iranian missiles.

As we do form an opinion about the agreement we need to acknowledge that the agreement was intended only to reduce the chance for Iran gaining a nuclear weapon. Iran is still the principal supporter of Israel's enemies, Hamas and Hezbollah. Beside their announced goal to destroy Israel, they are attempting to become the dominant power in the Middle East. Ultimately the agreement was negotiated with a nation that is a current enemy on many fronts, so are we better off with this nuclear deal than with the status quo? Is it realistic to believe that we could negotiate a better deal? There already is heavy TV lobbying against the agreement and there will be partisan pressure from both sides. So, if you have not already decided whether or not to support the agreement I hope you will be able to make an informed decision.

To Our Temple Beth David Family:

As most of you are aware, our Temple depends on donations to deliver the high quality of services to all of you. We understand that many of you are still struggling with the recent economic downturn. However, we have come up with a way that will allow you to donate to the Temple without spending a penny of your own money, plus you will actually save money on many purchases that you normally make!

We would like to introduce you to Goodshop and Goodsearch. Goodshop works with more than 5,000 stores that will provide all of you with discounts on what you normally buy and then will donate up to 20% of the purchase price to the Temple. You will simply click on a link on the Temple Home Page, start saving money for your family and help the Temple out as well! We have included an easy step-by-step signup guide with this letter. Here are some examples of companies that participate in the program:

Target, Macy's, Nordstrom, Neiman Marcus, Sears, Sak's, Apple, Old Navy, the Gap, Amazon, Office Depot, Petco, Staples, Dell, The Limited, Holiday Inn, Groupon, Levi's, Lands End, Best Buy, 1-800 Flowers, 24 Hour Fitness, and Victoria's Secret.

These are companies that we all normally shop at, and by simply clicking on the link on the Temple website, you will be saving money for your family and actually raising money for the Temple. In addition, you can also save money by dining out at participating restaurants and, at the same time, raising donations for the Temple as well. It's simple, free and easy to use, and the average family using the site over a year will actually raise more than $350 annually for the Temple. Multiply that by our 300 families and we will raise more than $100,000 per year for the Temple! This program really works. Goodshop has raised more than $11 million for charitable organizations with this program.

Likewise, we are also rolling out Goodsearch. By doing your internet searches through Goodsearch.com, which links with Yahoo, the Temple will receive a penny for every internet search. If you can imagine how many internet searches you do, and your families do, this will also add up to real money for the Temple.

We encourage all of you to participate and to help strengthen our Temple for all of us and for the generations to come.

With best regards,
