All are Welcome to Attend Our Grief Support Group

Rabbi Nancy Rita Myers

February 2015

Losing a loved one is terribly painful. Even though we all know that some day we will all leave this world, when a loved one dies, it can be very difficult to accept. We dearly miss those who have left us: our parents, spouses, children, friends, and more. Too often, in times of death, survivors feel isolated and alone in their grief. For those in mourning, knowing that others cope in similar ways can bring some measure of comfort. At least it can lessen the loneliness that accompanies great loss. As Jews, we pray for strength and hope from God that the next day will be better than the present one, as we seek the comfort of community to help us make it through the week.

During the past few of years, we have had a grief support group meeting twice a month thanks to our TBD Foundation. We are grateful once again to the TBD Foundation for a grant to continue our group this year. Facilitated by social worker

Christine Goldman, our participants share their experiences and try to grow stronger through them. All are welcome to attend any session or all of them if they choose. It doesn't matter if you lost a spouse, friend, or parent; you are invited to attend. You can, in essence, just drop in and see if it is helpful to you.

"Grieving is a long, difficult road, but we don't have to make the journey alone. The grief support group is a safe, non-judgmental environment in which to express our thoughts and feelings, experience our own emotions, and share our steps with others traveling on similar paths. "

~ Anne Katz, Temple Member Since 1980

Our upcoming meetings will be in the Spielman Schmooze and Bridal room on Tuesday afternoons at 5:00 p.m. on Feb. 17, March 17, April 14, May 5, June 2, and June 23.

Also we are offering some Sunday mornings at 9:30 a.m. on Feb. 1, March 1, March 29, April 26, May 17, and June 14. We would love to welcome you to one of our sessions.

Saturday night, January 24, brought together a fun evening of treats and amazing prizes at our first Classic Movie Night. All who attended viewing or re-watching "Young Frankenstein" enjoyed snacks and beverages and a trivia quiz. All the profits from this event will be ear-marked for the Sisterhood's purchase and gift to the congregation of a new hearing assisting system. Kudos to Jackie Hewitt and her committee for organizing this fun event.

Catching up from all the activities in January, Sisterhood is busy planning events for the spring. The first of these will be baking hamantashan in our beautiful new kitchen. Thanks to Katella Deli and their generous donation of the pastry dough, our members get together and create hundreds of these scrumptious delights. The hamantashan will be provided for the Religious School kids and this year we will be offering hamantashan for sale to our members who send in their order – you can even have them sent to a loved one with advanced orders. It is always a baker's dozen and if you are interested, see the flyer in the Shavua Tov and the Megillah for the order form. Eileen Tobey organizes this fun event.

Sisterhood will be sending "goodie boxes" to all our college kids for Passover. If you are not sure if your college student is on our list, please contact Debbie Lelchuk with the name and address of your family member who is away at school.

We are looking forward to our Sisterhood Shabbat celebration on Friday, March 13, featuring Sharon Kenigsberg, Director of Endowments and Community Relations at the Long Beach JCC who will speak about the free PJ (pajama) Library Program that benefits the kids and grandkids in our community. Ms. Kenigsberg will have samples of books and information on how you can sign up for this free program for your children or grandchildren. A special Oneg Shabbat will follow the service provided by members of our Sisterhood organization.

The nominating committee for next year's election of officers is being formed and if you are interested in serving on our Board, please contact Renée Dorfman. There is always room for participation in Sisterhood so please let your wishes be known to Renee.

Ruth Kramer
Sisterhood President

Sisterhood members enjoy a day together @ Pechanga!

FYI: Sisterhood hasn't forgotten your college students. We will be sending them a Passover surprise. You can send names and addresses to Debbie Lelchuk at the email address in your Membership Ddirectory.

JACK BROSCOW

More Brotherhood Events Coming Up for All

Garry Plotkin, Brotherhood President

BROTHERHOOD TEXAS HOLD'EM: The January 25th event at our temple was a treat to meet, greet, bet and eat. Another one will be coming up this summer!!

Brotherhood is off and running with so many activities scheduled for this year.

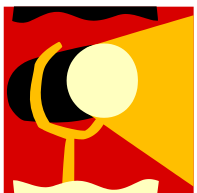

The Brotherhood Texas Hold'em Poker Tournament was held on January 25th. Thank you to Alan Jarrick and Jerrold Korn for their organizational skills. As always, everyone enjoyed Howie's (Howie Tobey) French Dip Sandwiches and the adult beverages! Thank you to Event Organizer Jerrold Korn, Event Director Alan Jarrick and Lee Netzer for organizing the event's food and beverages. We plan to have another tournament this summer. Stay tuned!

We hope everyone attended the Brotherhood/Sisterhood Paid Up Dinner on January 31st. The theme was Tail-Gate USA. Wearing your favorite team jersey or hat made the event even more fun. As always, each guest brought a wrapped "White Elephant" gift to be auctioned off by Brotherhood's official auctioneer, Paul Prunty. A special thank you to Jon Alban, Brotherhood Vice-President of Membership, for being our representative to organize the evening with TBD's Sisterhood.

The Annual Brotherhood Shabbat service is Friday, February 13th. We hope everyone will plan to attend with Brotherhood Board members conducting the service along with our synagogue's fabulous adult choir and Cantor providing uplifting music. As part of the service, Dan Karmon, an Israeli immigrant and member of our synagogue, will be speaking about his life while living in Israel.

A hearty congratulations to Brotherhood board member and past president of the synagogue Charlie Niederman. On February 28th, Charlie is being honored for his contributions to the Greater Long Beach Jewish Community at the "Above and Beyond" event which is organized by the Jewish Federation of Greater Long Beach and West Orange County Men's Philanthropy. Contact the Jewish Federation for more information.

Make Temple Beth David your second family. Come and enjoy many of the activities which happen each month.

Temple Member SPOTLIGHT: The Schiffer Family

~ written by: Keri Gee Semmelman

February 2015

It says something when you grow up going to a temple and then as an adult you decide to come back to raise your own family. Eric Schiffer went to religious school, was Bar Mitzvahed by beloved Rabbi Henry Front, and was confirmed at Temple Beth David. Experiencing Judaism – especially the big holiday observances – alongside his mom Jane (a longtime Temple Beth David member) was a special part of his childhood. Though raised reform, both sides of Eric's family were orthodox and his great grandfather was a Rabbi.

Fast forward, one day Eric and Peggy met. Though they both graduated from UCI (Eric earning a Bachelor's degree in Comparative Literature with a minor in Spanish; Peggy a Bachelor's in Psychology followed by a Teacher's Credential), the two actually met and began dating when Eric was starting law school. After passing the bar and getting established in his career, the two wed, yet not before they spoke extensively about how to make their interfaith relationship work as she was Catholic and he Jewish. Eric says it's a process that some interfaith couples avoid, to their detriment. For them, however, the journey included attending an interfaith educational program hosted by another temple and making a commitment to one another to raise their children Jewish. After a few years at the other temple where they first attended that interfaith educational program, they met and felt an instant connection with Rabbi Nancy Myers and were inspired by the growing diversity of Temple Beth David's congregation. They joined in 2009 which for Eric was like coming back home. Since then their son Zack, a high school freshman, had his Bar Mitzvah in 2013. Their daughter Leah, a 7th grader, will have her Bat Mitzvah this April.

It was Eric who recently inspired our Temple Board to launch an Interfaith program such as the one that was so helpful to him and Peggy. As a result, one will begin here this month.

Now a look further back. Eric is of Hungarian and Russian descent, was born on the east coast, and moved to California when he was eight. Through school he was in theater and choir, and graduated high school at the top of his class. After becoming an attorney, he earned a Master's degree in English at California State University, Long Beach. Since he says being a lawyer is 90 percent writing, he's glad he did! He now has his own law firm – Schiffer & Buus, APC – with one partner who he met in law school. Well known for specializing in civil appeals, Eric has had four opinions published making them precedent in the court of law. In addition to serving on the Temple's Board as VP of Operations, which he says is his way of giving back and also being a good role model for his own kids, this dynamo leader and dad is also on the Southwestern Law School's Board of Trustees and was on the City of Westminster's Personnel Commission until the family took new residence in Rossmore. He is a member of our temple choir with a great group of people under the direction of the ever talented Cantor Nancy Linder.

Peggy is of Italian and Korean descent and was also born on the east coast. As a result, Judaism wasn't foreign and it was a faith she understood and is supportive of raising her kids in while continuing to remain Catholic herself. As a family they enjoy honoring one another's holidays. Peggy is a dedicated elementary school teacher in the Los Alamitos Unified School District. Having been involved in speech and debate throughout her own education, one of her many admirable traits, Eric says, is what an engaging speaker she is.

As a family, a favorite pastime is exploring the grandeur and beauty of national parks. They love going to theater, singing, watching Zack perform in his high school's show choir, and seeing Leah being bitten by the acting bug. The proud parents marvel at how much Zack and Leah care for one another and heed their parents' advice to work hard and appreciate where that gets you. There is also lots of laughter in the house which may explain why all four have appeared on TV game shows – Peggy on Hollywood Squares, Eric on Win Ben Stein's Money, and with the kids on Family Game Night.

The Schiffer household also includes their dog Epo ("pretty" in Korean), Louie the parrotlet, Moe the goldfish, and the 13 koi that came with their new house.

How lucky we are at Temple Beth David that the Schiffers are a special part of our family tree! ☆

Preschool News

Our 2015 year started out with snowmen and winter fun!

Miss Susan's 2 year olds have enjoyed painting their own version of Brown Bear, Brown Bear. Every page is filled with a colorful animal and the children love to retell the story.

Miss Lizette's class has been having fun with letters M, N, O, and P. The children had a wonderful experience learning about eating healthy, keeping teeth clean, and being aware of germs. The last week of the month was focused on snow fun. The children made snowmen, played with ice, and made snowflakes.

Miss Vanessa's class came back on Gg week. They made gorillas and tasted different grapes. For Hh week they painted houses and made horses. Ii week was a favorite because the children made yummy ice cream. Jj week was filled with jaguars and jelly beans. During this month the children have also learned about the weather and have made their very own weather chart.

Miss April's class have decorated snowmen, made snowmen books, and talked about ice castles that are built in China. They had a wonderful field trip to the Rinks, where they laced up their ice skates and took to the ice all bundled up. The children are still working on writing lower case letters and the reading program is in full gear.

Come by next month to see what fun activities the preschool has in store for February!

ARZA By Charlie Niederman

Association of Reform Zionists of America

Charlie Niederman, VP, Religious Practices

The World Zionist Congress will be held in October this year. The last Congress was held in 2010 and I was fortunate enough to be designated a delegate. The Congress is prescribed to be held every 4 years, but it has often been extended to 5 years as is the case this year. It is the meeting at which all the world's important Jewish organizations have a voice. Before 1948, when the State of Israel was established, it met in various European locations, but since statehood it has met in Jerusalem.

Representation at the Congress is allocated by the World Zionist Constitution. The number of delegates to Congress will be allocated in the following proportion: Israel 38%, United States of America 29%, other countries of the Diaspora 33%. This works out to 145 delegates for the USA. IT IS WHY IT IS IMPORTANT FOR YOU TO VOTE. The congress decides how the millions of dollars allocated worldwide is distributed in both Israel and the Diaspora. It means that the Reform and Conservative movements in Israel can get funding, because Israel funds only the Orthodox. It means that there is money for all streams of Judaism to reestablish themselves in the former Soviet Union, and that funding can be available to fight the rise in anti-Semitism in Europe. Your vote can influence who is the Chairmen of the World Zionist Organization and the Jewish National Fund, and who fills all the other important positions of the World Zionist Organizations until the next Congress; assuring that the things passed by the Congress will get done. Some of the resolutions passed by the committee I served on, and approved by the Congress were increased representation in the congress by youth and women to assure that the Congress was representative of all world Jewry. The ARZA representatives and others that we allied with were successful in getting those and other meaningful resolutions passed to assure all Jews receive the support and respect they deserve.

Voting for representation in the US delegation is now underway and ends on April 30, 2015. You can register and vote at the same time. Every Jewish man and woman over 18 is entitled to vote for the slate of his or her choice. You may vote by going to the ARZA website www.arza.org and clicking on "Vote" and then "Vote now" and following the directions. To cover the election cost the American Zionist Movement, who run the voting, charges a $5 fee for persons under age 30, and $10 for those over age 30. PLEASE VOTE THE ARZA SLATE.

A few brief comments on the campaigning for Israel's Knesset election scheduled for March 17th:

- As to whether Prime Minister Netanyahu should have been invited to address Congress that is being debated in the US, whether he should have accepted is being debated in Israel.
- The polls indicate the Likud and the Labor/Livni are in a near dead heat with Labor/Livni leading about 25 seats to 23 for Likud with Labor/Livni making slow gains. In terms of coalitions, the right and Likud has a distinct lead over the center left and Labor/Livni.
- The Arab parties are presenting a United Front which is the third largest single party with 12 seats and along with the combined Ultra-Orthodox Parties with 14 to 16 seats they may be very involved in forming any coalition government.

Election junkies stay tuned in and remember that Israeli polls have been inaccurate in the past.

IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Local Synagogue Announces "The Interfaith Connection"
An educational series of workshops exploring Judaism

(Orange County, CA -- January 2015) Are you in an interfaith relationship? Is it time for you as an individual or with your significant other to discuss your religious background and explore the role of religion in your life? Temple Beth David, a Reform congregation in Westminster, CA, has launched "The Interfaith Connection," and invites interfaith couples, cultural Jews, and all others interested to attend at no cost.

Facilitating will be Rabbi Nancy Myers of Temple Beth David who says she is honored to offer this opportunity for people to talk about religion, Judaism, their relationship, family, and more in a comfortable setting. She adds, "We are lucky to live in a time of options and choices. Every person and couple has a unique past, personal beliefs, and values that guide their lives." The sessions will include teaching, sharing, and exploring that is responsive to the audience's needs.

Eric Schiffer, who with his wife Peggy attended such a series years ago, inspired the synagogue to offer such sessions this year given the impact it had on his own interfaith relationship. "It helped facilitate important life discussions with my then fiancé -- now wife. It also was very helpful and enjoyable to meet other people in the same situation." Now a Temple Board Member, Schiffer adds, "We hope this series will introduce participants to others who are grappling with the role of Judaism in their lives and also provide the opportunity to explore what works best for them."

The program, which is intended as a resource for the community with no obligation in any way, will be on Sunday mornings, 10 a.m. - 11:30 a.m. Attendees may attend any or all of the five sessions. The first will be on February 8, with a general topic entitled, "Introduction to Judaism." Rabbi Myers will go back to the basics of Judaism, answer any questions people have, and provide participants the opportunity to meet and dialogue with the one another.

Unique during the second session, on March 8, with a focus on marriage and children, will be a mock traditional wedding ceremony officiated by the Rabbi and Cantor. Numerous Temple Beth David congregants will join together to renew their vows - a first of its kind celebration at the temple. Also watching the ceremony and learning will be the Temple's religious school youth, as well as loved ones of those renewing their vows.

The third session on April 26 will spotlight many Jewish holidays. The fourth session on May 3 will address other life cycles such as birth, naming, bar/bat mitzvah and rituals surrounding the loss of loved ones. The final session on June 7 will explore the topics of "What is a Jew and role of the synagogue?"

With the generosity of the Temple Beth David Foundation, all of the sessions are free to the public. The program will be held at Temple Beth David at 6100 Hefley Street, Westminster. RSVP is requested by the previous Thursday at 714-892-6623 or tbddavid@templebethdavid.org. More information can be found on the Temple website www.templebethdavid.org

Temple Beth David was founded in 1961 as a Reform congregation and has grown to nearly 300 families. The synagogue has a diverse congregation and known for its music, adult and junior choirs, Shabbat services, philanthropic initiatives, Sisterhood and Brotherhood, adult education offerings, social activities, teen youth group, religious school, and its preschool.

Upcoming Bat Mitzvah

Daniella Leah Chait - February 7, 2015

Daniella Leah Chait, daughter of Ian and Gayle Chait, will be called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah on February 7, 2015. Daniella is passionate about horseback riding and her horse Jackson.

She is an honor student at Oak Middle School in Los Alamitos. For her mitzvah project, Daniella made and served food at a homeless shelter in Long Beach called Project Achieve.

Goodshop

Goodsearch

To Our Temple Beth David Family:

As most of you are aware, our Temple depends on donations to deliver the high quality of services to all of you. We understand that many of you are still struggling with the recent economic downturn. However, we have come up with a way that will allow you to donate to the Temple without spending a penny of your own money, plus you will actually save money on many purchases that you normally make!

We would like to introduce you to Goodshop and Goodsearch. Goodshop works with more than 5,000 stores that will provide all of you with discounts on what you normally buy and then will donate up to 20% of the purchase price to the Temple. You will simply click on a link on the Temple Home Page, start saving money for your family and help the Temple out as well! We have included an easy step-by-step signup guide with this letter. Here are some examples of companies that participate in the program:

Target, Macy's, Nordstrom, Neiman Marcus, Sears, Sak's, Apple, Old Navy, the Gap, Amazon, Office Depot, Petco, Staples, Dell, The Limited, Holiday Inn, Groupon, Levi's, Lands End, Best Buy, 1-800 Flowers, 24 Hour Fitness, and Victoria's Secret.

These are companies that we all normally shop at, and by simply clicking on the link on the Temple website, you will be saving money for your family and actually raising money for the Temple. In addition, you can also save money by dining out at participating restaurants and, at the same time, raising donations for the Temple as well. It's simple, free and easy to use, and the average family using the site over a year will actually raise more than $350 annually for the Temple. Multiply that by our 300 families and we will raise more than $100,000 per year for the Temple! This program really works. Goodshop has raised more than $11 million for charitable organizations with this program.

Likewise, we are also rolling out Goodsearch. By doing your internet searches through Goodsearch.com, which links with Yahoo, the Temple will receive a penny for every internet search. If you can imagine how many internet searches you do, and your families do, this will also add up to real money for the Temple.

We encourage all of you to participate and to help strengthen our Temple for all of us and for the generations to come.

With best regards,

Temple Beth David Club 55

A new place for seniors to meet, learn, play, and socialize on the third Tuesday of each month. Our next program featuring Dr. Aaron Shovers will be on Tuesday, February 17, 2015

“Famous Jews Who Altered World History”

Dr. Shovers is an avid student of world history, philosophy, and gives lectures to prove that even the most boring history stories can become truly fascinating!

The group meets from 10:30am to 12:30pm or as long as you want to sit and schmooze. We hope that you will bring your lunch so that you can eat and mingle at the same time.

Please call me, 714-377-9721 or e-mail me at moskowitzirma@yahoo.com with ideas, suggestions or to tell me you want to be involved in this exciting new happening!

Looking forward to seeing you February 17th!

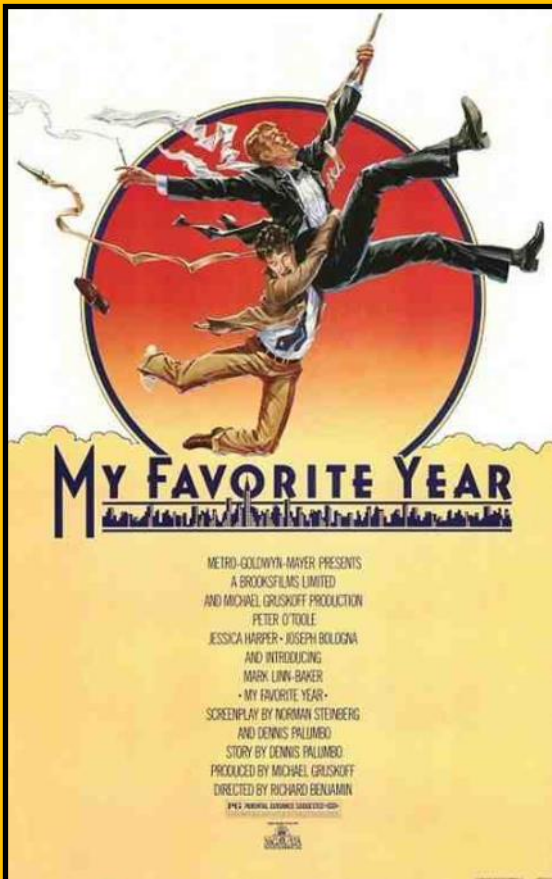

Thank you,
~Irma Moskowitz, Temple Member Since 1994

Havdalah Service & Movie Night!

February 21, 2015

My Favorite Year is a 1982 American comedy film written by Dennis Palumbo and Norman Steinberg, and directed by Richard Benjamin, which tells the story of a young comedy writer, who is put in charge of watching over a drunken, womanizing swashbuckling movie star.

Mel Brooks, executive producer of the film, was a writer for the Sid Caesar variety program Your Show of Shows, early in his career. Movie swashbuckler Errol Flynn was a guest on one episode, and this real-life occurrence inspired Dennis Palumbo's largely fictional screenplay. Swann was based on Flynn, while writer Benjy Stone, is loosely based on both Brooks and Woody Allen, who also wrote for Caesar.

5:30pm - Bring your dinner & hang out!
Havdalah Service starts @
6:30pm

Popcorn & drinks will be served

*You Can Help Kids with Less
Put a Birthday in a Box!*

A Concrete, Hands-on Way to Give

It's hard for many of us – adults or children – to imagine celebrating a child's birthday without a party or presents. But for many families, finding the extra money to afford a child's birthday celebration is a struggle at best, and frequently impossible.

One way to help is to provide a small "party in a box" for a child in need... The idea is to decorate and fill shoe boxes with everything needed for a small birthday party. (Or, pretty, decorated shopping bags can be used instead.) Each box goes to a different child.

Start saving the following (we'll begin collecting mid-march):

Large sneaker-sized shoe boxes

Birthday wrapping paper and/or largish gift bags

Cake mixes

Frosting cans

Birthday candles

Wall decorations (like streamers, or happy birthday banners), gently used children's books (or new ones) that a child (age 3-12) might like

Small $5-$10 dollar child's gifts (again ages 3-12)

Library News!

The Temple Beth David Library sold used Judaica books at the Hanukkah carnival. There are still a lot left over. More donations of Judaica books are gratefully accepted. I will be selling them again at the Purim carnival. The funds raised will be used to help out the Library.

I just switched the library automation software to ResourceMate. I will have the list of Library resources put on the Temple Beth David Website when I am finished with the project. Please donate to the Wendy Shekman Library fund so I can continue to put the Library into shape.
