President's Message

Are You Reading This?

So here I am about to embark on my presidency at Temple Beth David, and the thought occurred to me. We have a Temple newsletter. Maybe I should use that as a way to officially introduce myself and welcome everyone to the 5776-5777 Temple year. But then it also occurred to me. Does anybody read this? I mean I do- but I am a lawyer and I read everything, so I am not really sure that counts.

In an age where everyone is bombarded by information 24/7, selecting what deserves your attention can be tough. I have teenage children. I know about the Insta-Face-Chat. Not to mention emails. And texts. And Youtube. And Netflix. And on and on. So what deserves our time? Can our humble Temple newsletter actually have a place in all of that information traffic? We like to think it does, and I hope it does. But the only important question is what do you think?

I have heard tell that the Megillah is too long. Too short. Too in depth. Not in depth enough. Too repetitive (and did I mention repetitive)? Maybe all of that is correct to some extent. But the only way the Temple and the board can know if this newsletter is of value to you is if you let us know. So take a moment and email us (us being Edie at deskmafen1@templebethdavid.org) and let us know what you think about the Megillah. If you love it, hate it, are indifferent towards it, or have suggestions as to how you think it can be improved, tell us. I might just highlight one of those emails in an upcoming president's message.

And while we're all still getting to know each other, let's talk about that president's message. Since I sell my words and my time for a living, I like to write only when I have something to say. So while I am not promising a monthly president's message, I am promising to be respectful of your time when I do (or at least think I do) have something to say.

Which brings us to this month's message:

Hi. My name is Eric Schiffer and I am the Temple's new president.

Temple Beth David, as always, has a lot happening. We just started our membership campaign for this upcoming year, so please be sure to get your materials back to the office so we can hit the ground running this year. A new board filled with dedicated volunteers looking out for the Temple's well-being has taken office. Committees of all types are forming and we would love for you to be involved. The Rabbi is still on her sabbatical and will return August 1. And of course, the high holidays are just around the corner.

As you can see, your Temple needs you and is there for you. So take a moment and read this. The whole Megillah that is. And let us know what you think.

Enjoy your summer, and here's to a great year.

Eric Schiffer
Temple Beth David President

SISTERHOOD MATTERS...

Our upcoming fund raising events are a Maj tournament for June and a trip to Pechanga to visit our money! The trip is only $20 and you will receive $5 back in gambling money. If you are interested, please call Edie Schwartz at 714-894-0094 and make your reservations for July 26th.

On July 10th members of the board will be attending an All Area Day in Newport Beach. We will be participating in various workshops related to the position on the board.

I, personally, would like to welcome the incoming Sisterhood board members and thank the outgoing Board for their dedication and efforts

.Sisterhood wishes all the dads a very happy Father's Day.

Shalom,

Anne Farber and Ruth Kramer

JACK BROSCOW

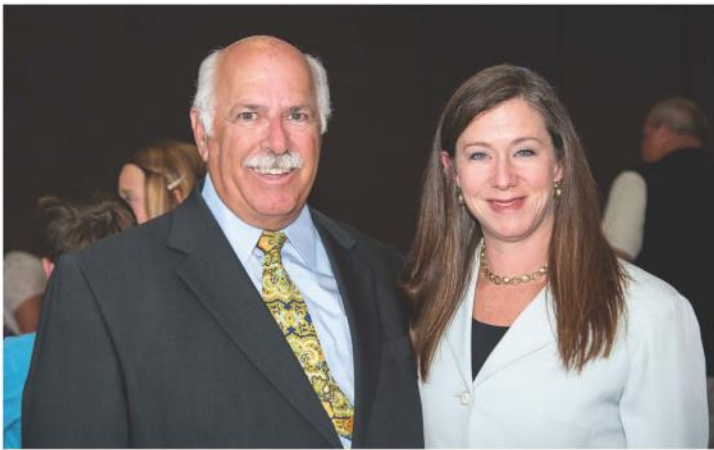

IN PRAISE OF RETIRING BROTHERHOOD PRESIDENT GARRY PLOTKIN

Steve Harris, Brotherhood President

GARRY HAS BEEN A TRUE RESOURCE FOR OUR BROTHERHOOD AND TEMPLE

GARRY PLOTKIN AND RABBI NANCY MYERS:

Garry created the 2014 event honoring her 10 years as our temple's rabbi.

Having worked with Garry Plotkin, our retiring Brotherhood Board president, I can deem him a true benefit and resource to all in our temple. Garry has focused on every different aspect for the needs of Temple Beth David. From security to providing our young students with a delightful event, he has worked in a very timely manner.

As the TBD former publicity trustee and the current Brotherhood one, I have met with Garry to bring forth what we need and when we need it. When you sit on a nice black chair in our social hall, they were purchased by Garry's acquired resources. Looking at our upgraded kitchen, Garry was a major donor and involved in having it upgraded. From cantors' concerts to speaker series, Garry knows what to do and how to do it. In a charitable manner, Brotherhood president Garry Plotkin worked to organize a High Holy Day resource of providing bags to attendees so a donation to the needed would take place.

With all of that being said, Garry's term has been a vital and meaningful accomplishment for every member at Temple Beth David. As a retired teacher, I will provide Garry with an A+ for everything he did as our former Brotherhood president!!

As the new Brotherhood Board president, below are our board members:

Steve Harris – President
Jeff LeBoff – Treasurer
Dan Karmon – Religious Practices
Robin Harrison – VP Membership
Scott Telford – VP Programming
Larry Davidoff – Social Action
Steve Harris – Publicity
Dan Gary – Facilities
Arnie Weintraub – Good & Welfare
Jerrold Korn – Ways & Means
Mitch Halbreich – School/Youth
Howie Tobey – Director-at-Large.
Charlie Niederman – Tikkun Fund
Yehuda Treiger – Historian

Having two open positions, and should anyone be interested about being one of them (Carnival Chair & Assistant Carnival Chair), let us know.

Brotherhood Board Meeting - Social Hall - 7:30 PM

June 2016

Charlie Niederman, VP, Religious Practices

To follow up on the report last month, there has been little change or action on the Temple Mount.

Israel's coalition government changed last week to include Avigdor Lieberman's Yisrael Beiteinu party, and Lieberman succeeded Moshe Yaalon as defense Minister. Lieberman is a tough, right-wing politician known for both his tense relationship with Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu and his aggressive attitude toward Israel's neighbors.

Yaalon's departure was precipitated by an incident in which an Israeli soldier shot and killed a Palestinian captured after a knife attack, who was lying severely wounded on the ground. The incident divided the Israeli public and its leaders, with some expressing outrage over the killing of an incapacitated man, and others supporting even the most extreme response to a stabbing attack Yaalon sharply criticized the soldier, saying anyone who supported what he did "is damaging the values of the Israel Defense Forces."

Yaalon decided to resign after finding out that Netanyahu was openly offering his job to other parties. He is a Likud party stalwart, as is Netanyahu. Yaalon also resigned from the Knesset saying that he was "taking time out from political life" due to his "lack of faith" in Netanyahu and that he was "fearful for Israel's future" under the current leadership.

If that wasn't enough, the Environment Minister, Avi Gabby, left the coalition government in protest of Lieberman's appointment saying that Netanyahu should wake up, Israel doesn't want an extremist government. Gabby was not a Knesset member, so the coalition lost no seat, but how long this new coalition will last, given Lieberman's prior bad relationship with Netanyahu, is anyone's guess.

On a more positive note for progressive Jews, the Israel Supreme Court provided the Reform and Conservative movements a ray of hope in their ongoing struggle to have Jews converted by their rabbis in Israel recognized as Jews by the state.

Responding to a request submitted by the Israel Religious Action Center (IRAC), the advocacy arm of the Reform Movement in Israel, the court ordered the state to explain within 60 days why individuals who are converted by Reform and Conservative rabbis in Israel are not entitled to benefits provided by the Law of Return.

The Law of Return grants automatic citizenship and other financial incentives to Jews who make aliya to Israel. Individuals who move to Israel and are converted by state-sanctioned Orthodox rabbinical courts, operated by the Chief Rabbinate, are entitled to benefits under the Law of Return.

Responding to the decision, Rabbi Gilad Kariv, executive director of the Reform movement in Israel, called on Attorney General Avichai Mendelblit to "take a bold but necessary step" and announce that in light of the court's decision, the state withdraws its opposition to Reform conversions."

SISTERHOOD MATTERS

WHAT IF...

Suddenly, you or a loved one passes away or becomes incapacitated, would you or your loved ones know where to find the check book, what bills to pay? Would they be able to find important papers, know what passwords to use to access accounts on the computer?

It is difficult to talk of these things when we are young and in good health. We all know that life can change in a second that is why it is so important to be prepared: to talk to your loved ones and get your affairs in order NOW.

I have put together a booklet with suggestions and helpful hints on how to get started. It is available in the Temple office for a suggested donation of $5.00, to help defray the cost of printing. Also see the following pages for your reference.

In Times of Need

PREPARING FOR A FUNERAL

at

TEMPLE BETH DAVID

The death of a loved one is so often a painful and confusing time for members of the family and dear friends. This guide will assist you in planning the funeral as well as offer helpful information.

- Contact Temple office (714) 892-6623
 - Contact Mount Olive (714) 361-9631 or Mortuary of Choice regarding Burial/Funeral Arrangements/Casket
 - If your loved one was a veteran, the mortuary can arrange for a military funeral.
 - Order food for Meal of Condolence.
 - Dairy or Meat platters can be ordered from:
Katella Deli (Los Alamitos) (562) 594-8611
Kosher Deli (Tustin) (714) 838-3108
Benji's (Tustin) (714) 541-6263
Lucci's (Huntington Beach) (714) 962-7998 or place of choice.
 - Meal of Condolence: The Mitzvah Corps will coordinate the date, time whether at the Temple or home. (see note)
 - Shiva - The Mitzvah Corps will also provide the same services for the first night of Shiva at either the Temple or at the home.
- The Mitzvah Corps is not responsible for ordering food for the Meal of Condolence.

Role of Temple Beth David and Mortuary

Coordinate with the Rabbi and mortuary as to time and date. If necessary, allow for out-of-state family to arrive.

Mortuary will order the Death Certificates and place the family prepared Obituary Notice in the local paper/s. They will also arrange for a Military funeral if requested.

Temple Beth David office will send out an Email Blast with information as to the time and place of the funeral.

Meal of Condolence: The Mitzvah Corps will set up and clean up at the Temple or home of mourning. The Mitzvah Corps only provides paper goods, coffee, tea, water and desserts. However, they can suggest the amount of deli/dairy food to be ordered based on the number of mourners expected.

Shiva: The Mitzvah Corps will provide the same service as above on the first night of Shiva at either the Temple or the home.

- It is customary to send an honorarium to the Rabbi and Cantor (Discretionary Fund) and Mitzvah Corps (Sisterhood) for their services.

Customs and Jewish Traditions

- Sitting Shiva: The practice of sitting shiva provides a time for mourning. A time where the mourners may dwell together and have friends and loved ones come to support them with short visits when they "make a shiva call." It is considered a great mitzvah (act of kindness) to visit someone "sitting shiva."

It is up to the family as to how many days they choose to "sit shiva."

- Meal of Condolence: Traditionally, the meal is dairy and would include such foods such as hard boiled eggs and bagels, which symbolize the cycle of life. Today, many families choose to have the Meal of Condolence catered by a local Deli.

FAQ:

A *benefit of Temple Beth David Membership is the use of the sanctuary and social hall in time of need. Funeral services may be conducted in the sanctuary before proceeding to the burial site. The social hall may be used for the Meal of Condolence. Shiva may also be held at the Temple.

*Please note that these benefits are only available to Temple members and their immediate family: ie Parents, Spouse, Children.

Unveiling

Unveiling is the formal dedication of the monument/tombstone. At an unveiling, a veil, cloth, or even a handkerchief draped over the stone is removed. This serves as a completion of the erection of the stone.

While many families wait until almost a full year has passed, others schedule the unveiling sooner, at a time when family members are available. This provides another opportunity for family and friends to gather and remember their loved one.

Choosing a headstone is a very personal choice. The mortuary (Mount Olive) handles all details and has many designs and styles from which to choose.

The headstone/plaque should be ordered well in advance of the scheduled unveiling date.

Unveiling Ceremony: The unveiling ceremony can be officiated by the Rabbi, family member or close friend. The ceremony consists of the recitation of Psalms, a very brief eulogy encapsulating the most salient characteristics of the deceased, removing the cloth covering the headstone, the El Maleh Rahamim, and the Mourner's Kaddish

Immortality

Do not stand at my grave and weep,

I am not there. I do not sleep.

I am a thousand winds that blow,

I am the diamond glints on snow.

I am the sunlight on ripened grain.

I am the gentle autumn rain.

When you awaken in the morning's hush

I am the swift uplifting rush

Of quiet birds in circled flight.

I am the soft stars that shine at night.

Do not stand at my grave and cry;

I am not there. I did not die.

Goodshop

Goodsearch

To Our Temple Beth David Family:

As most of you are aware, our Temple depends on donations to deliver the high quality of services to all of you. We understand that many of you are still struggling with the recent economic downturn. However, we have come up with a way that will allow you to donate to the Temple without spending a penny of your own money, plus you will actually save money on many purchases that you normally make!

We would like to introduce you to Goodshop and Goodsearch. Goodshop works with more than 5,000 stores that will provide all of you with discounts on what you normally buy and then will donate up to 20% of the purchase price to the Temple. You will simply click on a link on the Temple Home Page, start saving money for your family and help the Temple out as well! We have included an easy step-by-step signup guide with this letter. Here are some examples of companies that participate in the program:

Target, Macy's, Nordstrom, Neiman Marcus, Sears, Sak's, Apple, Old Navy, the Gap, Amazon, Office Depot, Petco, Staples, Dell, The Limited, Holiday Inn, Groupon, Levi's, Lands End, Best Buy, 1-800 Flowers, 24 Hour Fitness, and Victoria's Secret.

These are companies that we all normally shop at, and by simply clicking on the link on the Temple website, you will be saving money for your family and actually raising money for the Temple. In addition, you can also save money by dining out at participating restaurants and, at the same time, raising donations for the Temple as well. It's simple, free and easy to use, and the average family using the site over a year will actually raise more than $350 annually for the Temple. Multiply that by our 300 families and we will raise more than $100,000 per year for the Temple! This program really works. Goodshop has raised more than $11 million for charitable organizations with this program.

Likewise, we are also rolling out Goodsearch. By doing your internet searches through Goodsearch.com, which links with Yahoo, the Temple will receive a penny for every internet search. If you can imagine how many internet searches you do, and your families do, this will also add up to real money for the Temple.

We encourage all of you to participate and to help strengthen our Temple for all of us and for the generations to come.

With best regards,

Neil Kornswiet
