Body, Mind, & Spirit Shabbat

"Call the Sabbath a delight." Isaiah 58:13

June 2018

There is so much beauty to enjoy living in Southern California. We can almost always enjoy being outdoors. We feel the sun's warmth on our faces, smell fragrant herbs and flowers, see ragged mountains in the distance, and experience the cool waters of the ocean. Going outside and appreciating nature as we move our bodies can be rejuvenating. Now, add the holiness of our day of rest and we have our Body, Mind, and Spirit Shabbat.

This creative program is a novel way of celebrating our Sabbath. The seventh day of the week has for millennia kept the Jewish people together and provided a respite from the burdens of the week. Body, Mind, and Spirit strives to get us in touch with the wonders of creation, connect us with one another, add some sanctity to our day, and hopefully have a Shabbat experience that leaves us feeling refreshed. We all need a break from chores, stress, and endless projects and Shabbat can be exactly what one needs.

For those of you have haven't experienced one of our Body, Mind, & Spirit Shabbat, I'll catch you up. We meet at 9:00 a.m. for a breakfast of fresh bagels, lox, hard boiled eggs, fruit, coffee, and veggies as a great way to start our Shabbat experience. With an opening prayer, we leave for our separate activities. On Saturday, June 9, you will have a choice of taking a walk in El Dorado park with Larry Matalon or kayaking/stand up paddle boarding in the harbor with me. For each of our activities, we take seven breaks for prayer, reflection, and appreciation for the world around us. We need you to RSVP by the Thursday prior to our program. If you are in your 20's and 30's, breakfast is on me. Just mention this when you call or email the office.

Over the past few years, we have hiked through many nature reserves, walked through parks and beach; done yoga, Tai Chi, Zumba, stretched, kayaked, paddle-boarded, sketched, collaged, painted, and meditated. Our programs strive to include both those who want to be physically challenged and those who need gentle movements. The purpose, of course, is to experience Shabbat with our bodies, mind, and spirit.

I hope you consider joining us for one of our great Shabbat experiences.

President's Message

Dear Congregants & Community,

As Beth David begins a new program year, we warmly invite our past members to rejoin, and our prospective members to become a part of our special family. Together, we remember our Jewish ancestors and honor our family and friends; we celebrate life cycle events, Jewish holidays and festivals, and take joy in one another's blessings; we grow through education, spirituality, music, activities, and comradery. Guests who visit Beth David are often struck by how caring, spirited, and wonderfully diverse our members are, and how fortunate we are to have such spiritual, kind and responsive clergy and staff.

But Beth David needs your help to continue those sacred activities. As you know, last year Beth David changed to a voluntary philanthropic contribution model based upon our understanding that your giving and your generosity should not be based upon a mathematical formula; but rather, upon what your heart inspires you to give and what your means allow. While our contribution structure may now be voluntary, our need remains very real.

Although we have been blessed at Beth David with members who already generously contribute their resources and their time to make our synagogue a home where Judaism flourishes, our existence depends upon everyone giving what they can so that we can sustain a synagogue that has a great pre-school, an excellent religious school, an amazing music program, active Brotherhood and Sisterhood, meaningful adult education programs, memorable holiday observances, and the list goes on and on. If you have the means, please consider joining (or rejoining) the Circle of Honor. If you have been especially blessed during the past year(s), please consider increasing your commitment.

We hope that each of you will be moved to not only sustain our synagogue today, but to do your part to strengthen the Reform Jewish movement for our children, to ensure the survival of the Jewish people, and to honor past generations of Jews who have done the same for you and our greater community.

We look forward to sharing a meaningful year with you. Welcome back.

Sincerely,

Eric Schiffer---

SISTERHOOD MATTERS!

By Anne Farber, Sisterhood President

June 2018

SISTERHOOD MATTERS…

Hi All,

This is my last Megillah article as your president. I want to take this opportunity to thank my outgoing board and to welcome the incoming board. I will remain on the Sisterhood board as immediate past president.

Just a note to let you know we are going to have a fashion show this year in October! As many of you know, I have been trying to get a sponsoring store to do this. Chico's has agreed to do the show for our sisterhood.

Our annual donor luncheon is just around the corner. It will be a little different this year. Wait and see! Don't forget to sell your raffle tickets and you can bring them to the luncheon that day.

A few weeks ago we had a bunco party in the social hall. The consensus was that they wanted another one. So---- I will schedule one in the month of July or August. Try to come and ha fun. The top prize this time was a tie—Carole Blum and Robin Michaeloff. (see the pix)

Mark your calendar for our summer Pechanga trip on July 31st. The cost remains the same $20. For reservations, contact Lisa McCall.

Plans are almost finalized for the bathroom beautification project. We will begin in co-ordination with the Temple's lobby renovation schedule.

It has been my pleasure to serve as the Sisterhood president--- gracias, merci, grazie, domo arigato….

Shalom ,
Anne Farber, President

June 2018

Charlie Niederman, VP, Planning & Development

While the situation on the Gazan border has dominated the news over the last months, we have heard nothing from Israel's Attorney General about the indictment recommended by the Israeli police after their investigation of Prime Minister Netanyahu's possible kick backs and other dealings. The occasionally mentioned US Peace proposal still seems to be in its formative stage since nothing specific has surfaced recently, except assurances that it will continue.

The one thing that grabbed the headlines, and is a game changer in the Middle East, is the recent US withdrawal from the nuclear arms agreement with Iran. It now appears that the agreement will remain in force for Iran and the other signatories. The US action was hailed as a victory by the Netanyahu government, but with strong reservations by their intelligence agencies and the military. While it represented the fulfillment of a campaign promise for President Trump, the Israeli objection to it was that it did not cover the other problems that Iran is creating for Israel and others in the Middle East. After 20 months of intensive multisided negotiations, the first with the Iranian regime, the advance toward a nuclear weapon is greatly delayed and inspections are being conducted in accordance with the agreement. We will have to see just how much impact the US withdrawal will have, but I am not optimistic.

The situation at the Gazan border appears to have come to a close with the cease fire promoted by Egypt after a day of the most intensive rocket and mortar fire from Gaza in 4 years, which was followed by air attacks from Israel targeting military and bomb making facilities. The demonstrations were promoted by Hamas to cross the border into Israel to reclaim the land Palestinians lost in 1948 and return all displaced Palestinians. They tried to attack the border often with young boys in the lead. It is easy to see the cynicism in the Hamas position of "peaceful" demonstrations that promoted violence and invasion of Israel. The Response by the Israeli Defense Force left more than 100 dead. The majority were militants, some of them armed, but there were many civilians killed. That raises the issue of whether the responses were proportional to the threat, and whether the extensive use of live fire was necessary. The argument about these issues goes on in Israel where some call for a full investigation, and Israel gets broad condemnation on the world stage.

Israel is no stranger to world condemnation, but we should not be too quick to judge. Israel is a very small country in a hostile part of the world. It has peace agreements with Jordan, and Egypt, but there is no warm or comfortable peace. Its other two contiguous neighbors have only cease fire agreements. In Lebanon Hamas has the largest inventory of rockets that they have ever been able to assemble from their Iranian backers. Almost every threat to Israel is an existential threat. The current coalition was the result of promoting fear up to and during the election. Something for which the coalition leader, the Likud Party was fined by the Israel election committee.

So before we judge, we need to understand how close the threat is to every Israeli. Life does go on in a normal manner, and visitors feel safe and isolated from the external situation. Before you can jump to conclusions about mental health impacts, our guide on the Temple trip 2 months ago reminded us that Israelis are listed in national happiness studies among the happiest people on the planet. This is an enigma that defies our understanding, so let's be careful and open minded and not rush to judgment about our Jewish Homeland. Careful, but not necessarily quiet.

Charlie Niederman

Have you Met.....

Annette Ifrah Powell

Ooo-la-la.....Annette Powell was born and raised in Casablanca, French Morocco, the second of ten children in an orthodox Jewish family. She speaks French, Arabic, some Spanish, and English learned in school. She reads and writes Hebrew. And this charming woman is a member of Temple Beth David. Lucky us!

Annette came to the United States many years ago because of love. But not your ordinary love story, mind you. When she was twenty and working with the US Air Force and the French government, this barely 5 foot young orthodox Jewish woman met a 6 foot 2 inch Southern Baptist from North Carolina, aide to the Air Force base commander, and...you guessed it....they fell in love. And as you may also have guessed, the path was not smooth. Annette's father would not accept the relationship, due to the religious differences. Over the course of the next two years, Tom began converting to Judaism because he wanted Annette in his life. At one point, Tom and Annette, chaperoned by Annette's mother, went to Gibraltar and were married in a civil ceremony, before Tom had completely converted. They then returned to Casablanca, Annette to her parents' home, her father, none the wiser! Finally, when it was time for Tom to return to the USA for his next assignment, everyone confessed, and Annette and Tom headed for New York, where Tom completed his conversion. They were married again, soon after that, by an orthodox rabbi in Syracuse, New York.

Annette has many family members living in the Los Angeles and Valley areas, including her two daughters. Monique travels the world with her band. Michelle was a model in the greatest European cities, and now owns a beauty salon in Encino. So, if you want your hair done by a beautiful model, just go to Encino!! Although the family members are orthodox, when they came to services at Temple Beth David to honor the memory of Tom Powell, they were so impressed, they were ready to 'convert'. They loved the people they met, the warmth and caring they felt. In fact, when asked what is most special about Temple Beth David to her, Annette says that everyone helped her work through the grief of losing her beloved Tom.

Annette is a joyful addition to the Beth David family.

Goodshop Goodsearch

To Our Temple Beth David Family:

As most of you are aware, our Temple depends on donations to deliver the high quality of services to all of you. We understand that many of you are still struggling with the recent economic downturn. However, we have come up with a way that will allow you to donate to the Temple without spending a penny of your own money, plus you will actually save money on many purchases that you normally make!

We would like to introduce you to Goodshop and Goodsearch. Goodshop works with more than 5,000 stores that will provide all of you with discounts on what you normally buy and then will donate up to 20% of the purchase price to the Temple. You will simply click on a link on the Temple Home Page, start saving money for your family and help the Temple out as well! We have included an easy step-by-step signup guide with this letter. Here are some examples of companies that participate in the program:

Target, Macy's, Nordstrom, Neiman Marcus, Sears, Sak's, Apple, Old Navy, the Gap, Amazon, Office Depot, Petco, Staples, Dell, The Limited, Holiday Inn, Groupon, Levi's, Lands End, Best Buy, 1-800 Flowers, 24 Hour Fitness, and Victoria's Secret.

These are companies that we all normally shop at, and by simply clicking on the link on the Temple website, you will be saving money for your family and actually raising money for the Temple. In addition, you can also save money by dining out at participating restaurants and, at the same time, raising donations for the Temple as well. It's simple, free and easy to use, and the average family using the site over a year will actually raise more than $350 annually for the Temple. Multiply that by our 300 families and we will raise more than $100,000 per year for the Temple! This program really works. Goodshop has raised more than $11 million for charitable organizations with this program.

Likewise, we are also rolling out Goodsearch. By doing your internet searches through Goodsearch.com, which links with Yahoo, the Temple will receive a penny for every internet search. If you can imagine how many internet searches you do, and your families do, this will also add up to real money for the Temple.

We encourage all of you to participate and to help strengthen our Temple for all of us and for the generations to come.

With best regards,
