Gosh, I'm exhausted but in a good way

Rabbi Nancy Rita Myers

March, 2014

Was it the weeks and months of preparing to have lots of family and friends come into town? Could it be that our house was literally undergoing intense construction, i.e., that darn roof, days before Gabriel's Bat Mitzvah? Was it feeding our family and friends for a week? I don't know. I'm tired but in a good way.

musicians along with our gifted Cantorial Soloist Nancy Linder. Friday night was a great Shabbat experience and Saturday morning, was well, outstanding. I'm so appreciative of the patience and expertise of our B'nei Mitzvah Educator Larry Matalon. It was a pleasure seeing him work through the eyes of a parent. One highlight for me was seeing members of our TBD board come up for a group aliyah. Paul and I felt honored by our lay leaders and congregation's support of our daughter's Bat Mitzvah.

Thank you for your love and support during this simcha.

Rabbi

Rabbi Nancy Myers

I feel first of all so proud of my daughter and the incredible number of hours she put into preparing to chant her aliyot, lead the congregation in prayer, and deliver a fantastic sermon. She is a delight and I am proud of her brother Shane for his understanding and support. I can't tell you how wonderful it was that so many members of both Paul's and my family came out to California to be with us. This was the first time they had seen each other since our wedding. It was nice to see Paul's uncle Bruce laughing with my brothers. I was also happy to invite all of Gabriel's and our friends as well.

I was especially proud of our synagogue. I wanted to show off our musicality on Friday night and you didn't disappoint. We are lucky to have a talented choir and

By Ruth Kramer, Sisterhood President

The drum beat of the Dragon Dancers still linger in the Social Hall from the fun-filled evening on Feb. 8 honoring our Annual Paid-Up members of Sisterhood and Brotherhood. Kudos to Anne Farber, Marlene Wedner and Elaine Netzer - our membership co-chairs, who worked with the Brotherhood to create a fun evening with a Chinese theme. Mickey Lewin designed the lanterns and Chinese favors and thanks to all those who helped setup and cleanup.

Of course we are grateful to the Brotherhood, Scott Telford and Lee Netzer who helped make it all possible. Paul Prunty once again entertained all of us with his clever antics and auctioned the numerous white elephants items. And a special thanks to Scott Whiteside who is always there to help us with whatever we ask of him.

On March 6 our Sisterhood will be represented at the Visions fundraiser at the Jewish Federation of Greater Long Beach event co-chaired by Leslie Kern. Our own Renée Dorfman is among several other women in the Orange County-Long Beach area to be honored. Renée has served in so many capacities at our Temple, our Sisterhood, and in the community and she continues with her good work. Congratulations, Renée!

The Kitchen Renovation Fund is growing in hopes that the kitchen improvements can begin in June. We are awaiting final approvals from the Orange County Health Department and the City of Westminster. The kitchen, used by all arms of the Temple, is planned as a modern-user-friendly place for all to enjoy. Please indicate on your donation that it is for the Kitchen Fund.

The Sisterhood had a fun day at Pechanga Casino on January 28th – even if you don't care about gambling, it is a fun, relaxing day and a comfortable bus ride. The casino presented the Sisterhood with a check for over $700 for our visit there all which will be added to the Kitchen fund. So stay “in the know” for the next Pechanga trip, most likely this summer. Kudos to Edie Schwartz who takes care of the arrangements for this fun day.

On January 30, Sisterhood celebrated Women's Heart month with a special presentation by Dr. Leslie Kern and KeriGee Semmelman concerning heart health issues and relaxing techniques for women. Thanks to both Leslie and Keri Gee for their expertise on these important concerns.

We are in the process of preparing for Sisterhood Shabbat this month. Our speaker will be Rabbi Robin Hoffman and we are all looking forward to this special Shabbat.

Please support our Social Action project organized by Debbie Lelchuk on Sunday morning, March 9, by donating women's toiletry needs: combs, toothbrushes, toothpaste, bath soap, etc. (see flyer in the Megillah) and if you want to order hamentaushen to take home, your order must be in the TBD School Office by March 9 .

Remember that sponsoring an Oneg is a wonderful way to celebrate a special family event, anniversary or birthday. Please contact Eileen Tobey for your special occasion.

Get to Know the Brotherhood

Scott Telford ~ Brotherhood President

We are a fellowship of men who are members of Temple Beth David. Get to know the Brotherhood if you are a man who cares about Temple Beth David! You can serve as a member of our board or just volunteer for events we organize throughout the year.

The Brotherhood monthly meeting was held the second Thursday of the month, February 13, 2014.

- The Brotherhood/Sisterhood paid-up dinner on February 8th was truly a wonderful evening. We had Dragon Dancers, the theme was the Far East. We even had a visit from our auctioneer in residence, Paul Prunty! Special thanks to Paul and our Culinary Chair, Lee Netzer for making the whole thing run so smoothly. Special thanks to Ruth Kramer and the Sisterhood for the wonderful job they did in decorating the room for the event.

Our Feb. 23 brunch was exceptional! It featured a panel discussion moderated by Charlie Niederman. Rabbi Myers put together a panel consisting of herself representing Reform, Rabbi Joel Berman representing Conservative, and Rabbi Drew Kaplan representing the Orthodox view to compare and contrast the different sects of our religion.

- Members of the The Jack Broscow Brotherhood will be honoring Larry Davidoff at the Man of The Year Dinner! Larry was selected by a committee of former Men of the Year. Larry is recognized for his years of service to Brotherhood including filling the positions of Publicity Chairman and Membership VP. The Man of the Year dinner will be on March 1st at Temple Hillel in Valley Village.

- The "Above and Beyond" program recognizes men from Long Beach and West Orange County by the Jewish Federation of Long Beach. Gene Broscow is the honoree from Temple Beth David. There will be a program on Wednesday, March 19th. Congratulations Gene!
- Don't miss our next brunch on March 30th, "Jews in Baseball." Look for more information in the Megillah. Robin
- Harrison is putting together an informative program together with Donald Swartz.
- The Brotherhood is continuing to serve at the religious school Shabbat dinners. Special thanks to Charlie Neiderman, Robin Harrison and Jeff LeBoff.
- Brotherhood participation in the Dining Delight program is in full swing. Gene Broscow set up up a Dining Delight at the Gourmet Café in February. Jerrold Korn will set-up Dining Delights at TGIF on April 8 and Long Boards on June 9.
- The Yom Hashoah candles have been ordered. Each year the Brotherhood orders candles for the Temple Beth David congregation. The Brotherhood will be needing volunteers to help put the candle packages together. If interested, please contact me.

The next Brotherhood meeting will be on Thursday March 13, 2014! These meetings are open and all brotherhood members as well as any men interested in learning more about the Brotherhood are welcome to attend.

Temple Beth David ECLC

by Vanessa Johnson

The Early Childhood Learning Center is excitedly preparing for the upcoming holidays. Purim is always a favorite around here, with its costumes and cooking. This year, as always, we are having a Purim parade when we march through the temple in costume, bringing gifts of homemade cookies and treats to our neighbors, the children of the Preschool. The little folks there look forward to our arrival and even learn a little bit about Purim. It's a nice cultural exchange that benefits us all. If you find yourself near the temple on Friday, March 14 at 9:15, come join us – we guarantee a fun morning!

The younger children at our school have been exploring the many colors of the rainbow and starting to recognize letters in their own name. The three year-old class has been learning all about the body while continuing their alphabet unit. The Pre Kindergartners have been “Reader Rabbits” as they recently took a field trip to Cerritos Library and had a wonderful time exploring an area designed specifically for young readers like them.

Wishing everyone a happy Purim,

B'Shalom,

Vanessa

Temple Member SPOTLIGHT: Laurie Schneider

~ written by Keri Gee Semmelman

When you ask people the question, “What’s your earliest Jewish experience?” the answers will of course be varied. For Laurie Schneider, it was as a young toddler sitting in a balcony next to her mom, grandmother, and aunt with all the men, including her brother, sitting down below at the Orthodox synagogue where her Hungarian grandparents belonged. When it came time for Laurie to begin preparing for her Bat Mitzvah, her parents switched to a Conservative synagogue. By 1976 as a young adult, Laurie became member of our Reform synagogue. Raised in Fairfield, Connecticut, in a community nearly 40 percent Jewish, she was always involved in synagogue life just like her parents and grandparents had been. Every Jewish holiday was cause for family gatherings. The Jewish Community Center (JCC) was central to her social life... she was even a cheerleader for their basketball team!

Laurie earned her undergraduate degree in elementary education. For grad school she attended University of Southern California (USC) and has lived here ever since. Her Masters Degree in special education led to a successful 34 year teaching career. After grad school, Laurie began dating a Catholic man named Charlie. Yet the question, “How are we going to raise our children...Jewish or Catholic?” perplexed them both so they stopped dating. Looking for a deep connection with other Jews, Laurie called Temple Beth David to see if there was a singles’ group. Fay Newman, of blessed memory, who led the choir said, “No, but we have a choir.” Laurie replied, “But I can’t sing.” Fay invited her to come to services and so she did. Upon meeting Laurie, Fay warmly said, “I saw you singing!” Laurie felt so warmly welcomed, she joined the choir (and Temple) and has been singing the prayers and enjoying the congregants ever since.

One day Charlie said some words that changed Laurie’s life forever: “You can raise the kids Jewish and I will be supportive of this.” They soon wed, found harmony in each observing their own faiths, and had two wonderful children who were named, Bar/Bat Mitzvahed, and Confirmed at Temple Beth David. Charlie, a telecommunications engineer, went to church every Sunday yet also attended the temple regularly (monthly family class, family Shabbat services, High Holy Days). Laurie and Charlie lived a beautiful life together until he passed without warning in 2009. Her family and her temple family helped her endure the devastating shock, for which she is forever grateful. Her daughter Tracy is also a Temple Beth David member and works as community relations and player program coordinator for the LA Clippers basketball team. Andrew is married and pursuing an MBA while working as a pricing analyst for government contracts in Virginia.

A born leader, Laurie served actively on the temple’s building expansion committee that saw to it the sanctuary, lobby, and gift shop would be built. To help raise funds for the visionary project, she and her husband volunteered for the temple’s community bingo night. She’s served as Sisterhood’s religious practices chair, donor chair, and in charge of invitations. Deservingly, Sisterhood bestowed upon her the Woman of Merit in 2005. On the Temple Board she’s been VP/Membership, VP/Education, and Choir President. Now she’s busy co-chairing the April 26th “Dinner with Strangers, Dessert with Friends” member event.

Laurie appreciates how unpretentious Temple Beth David is. In addition to loving the diversity of ages, ethnicities, and backgrounds, she says, “It doesn’t matter how much you have or how you dress...we just care about people as people.”

In her free time, Laurie loves to line-dance, play tennis, knit, travel, read novels, and spend time with her family. From her grandma who lived to 103, Laurie learned how to (and loves to) garden and bake. She volunteers as a Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) helping foster children, serves as a reading partner in classrooms, knits with Mitzvah Mavens, and last year joined the Board of Women’s Philanthropy of the Jewish Federation and Family Services of Orange County. She also enjoys her temple Chavurah the MT Nesters.

Looking back, she advises not to put off things you want to do and to not let little things upset you. These are such important words of wisdom from a person who gives so much of herself to Temple Beth David. ☆

CHAVURAH SPOTLIGHT

~ written by Keri Gee Semmelman

This month we feature the MT Nesters Chavurah that began in 2011. The group meets monthly and is open to having a few more temple members join them.

They've enjoyed going together to the movies, theater, and museums, and also having potluck dinners, Chanukah celebrations, second day Rosh Hashanah, and attending Temple events together. The group is primarily social...they are the MT Nesters after all, and they also enjoy exploring Jewish related topics.

Current members include:
Herb & Lois Abrams, David & Trina Gaynon, Alma Herman, Jan Klein, Laurie Schneider, Charlie & Cathy Niederman, Ed Lindell, and Shel & Marcia Rosenzweig.

“In our Chavurah we have formed closer bonds with people who we had previously known only superficially. We enjoy having events to look forward to with friends.”

~ Laurie Schneider, Alma Herman

What is a Chavurah?

One of the many benefits of Temple membership is to be part of a Chavurah — a group of usually about 8 to 20 people with similar backgrounds or interests.

The group defines its own schedule most gather once a month and enjoy all kinds of festivities. Some are purely social while others also delve into Jewish topics for shared learning. It's a special way to make lifelong friends.

We will soon begin a couple of new Chavurahs. If you've filled out the interest form, we'll be in touch with you very soon.

For others interested in being in a Chavurah, please let Membership Committee Member Claudia Geller know by emailing her at gellerclaudia@aol.com or filling out the Chavurah Interest Form.

ARZA

By Charlie Niederman

Association of Reform Zionists of America

Looking at the news from Israel there once again is little to report on the peace process. The cause of religious equality was not as quiet as the negotiations of an egalitarian place to pray at the Western Wall took an unexpected turn. Haaretz Newspaper reported that the Israeli government tentatively agreed to a deal that puts a right-wing organization in charge of the Robinson's Arch area of the Western Wall. Under the draft agreement, the government transfers control of the Jerusalem Archaeological Park and Davidson Center to the City of David Foundation. The foundation runs the City of David tourist site in Jerusalem's Old City and works to settle Jews in Silwan, a mostly Palestinian village in eastern Jerusalem. The area to be transferred includes Robinson's Arch, a section of the Western Wall just south of the Western Wall Plaza designated for non-Orthodox prayer.

Israel's Reform and Conservative movements, along with the women's prayer group Women of the Wall, are negotiating with the government to expand the plaza's prayer space. The expansion is meant as a compromise to interdenominational conflict at the wall. The decision came as a surprise to these non-Orthodox groups. The CEO of Israel's Conservative movement said, "We were negotiating the final details of how it would be managed. It was never mentioned that the City of David Foundation would be the one to actually run the place." He said that the movements do not take a stance on the foundation's political leanings, but that if implemented, the draft agreement would depart from a compromise on the Western Wall requested by Prime Minister Netanyahu and outlined by Jewish Agency for Israel Chairman Natan Sharansky last year. Sharansky's outline proposed creating a pluralist council to manage the site.

On a more local note, the trip that Rabbi Myers has planned will be leaving for Israel on March 20 and Cathy and I will be part of the group. The group will have a chance to see the area in question and some in the group may be interested in the actions of the Women of the Wall at their prayer area and the Israel Religious Action Center's effort to make sure that women are not confined to sitting in the rear of public busses.

Last month's article covered the mission of ARZA in supporting our Reform movement in Israel. Rabbi Myers is in discussion with Professor David Barzali, of UC San Diego who is the West Coast Regional Director of ARZA. Tentatively he is scheduled to speak at our Shabbat service on April 11. It should be confirmed shortly and more information will follow.

Be sure to provide first/last name(s) of attendees. By early April, you will receive confirmation of what host home will be warmly welcoming you and additional information.

A Member's Memorable Moment of the Month...

I'm torn between two moments...Gabriel Myers Prunty's Bat Mitzvah when she, wise and poised beyond her years, shared with us the lessons she learned from the Torah portion ...and when our committee's two youth members Justine Krieger and McKenzie Pantel orchestrated the Kid Korner for the "America the Jewiful" Feb. 21st Synaplex that included Justine teaching kids a song she wrote about temple and McKenzie overseeing the craft activity. At Gabriel's Bat Mitzvah the congregation beamed with joy knowing she is such a beautiful part of the next generation of Jews! And, for the Synaplex, to the adults delight, the youth paraded into the social hall singing the song and waiving artwork. Hearing my daughter loudly yell "Yay!" at the end of the parade summed it up. Temple Beth David is a place where so many people have fun and enjoy one another!

The Song Lyrics: "Oh Jewiful, at Synaplex, We're learning about Presidents. For coming to Friday services and using the prayer books. Oh Jewiful, Oh Jewiful. Put some lox on that bagel. So many Jews across the U. We Jews sure love to schmooze!" (Great job Justine!)

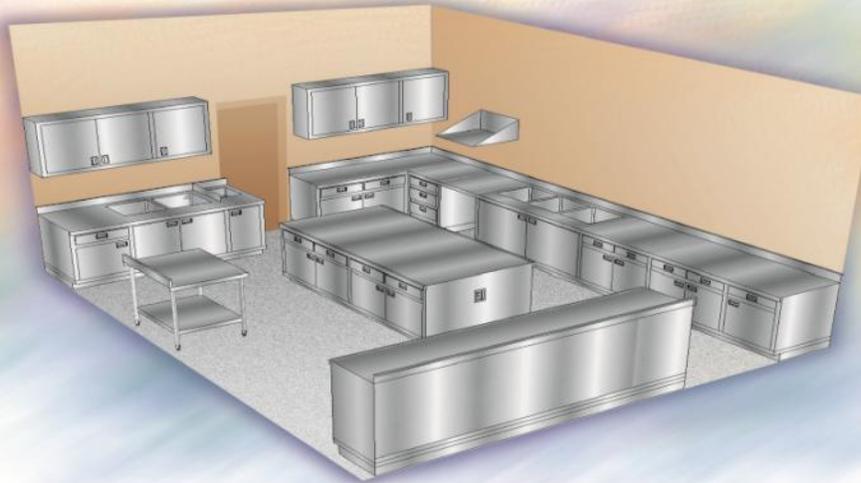

Your Membership Committee:

A MESSAGE FROM YOUR PROGRAM COMMITTEE

America the Jewiful was a wonderful success. Thank you to everyone who contributed to that success. George Washington aka Rev. Gary Beard, really made one think he was George Washington. Don Schwartz's presentation about American presidents and the Jews had the congregants silent.

The full shul joined with the Girl Scout Colored guard, presented by Sarah and Rachel Baroway and their friend, by leading us in The Pledge of Allegiance. Thank you also to the Membership Committee for planning and coordinating the Kid's Korner to add even more fun for the kids. The Cantor's sing-alongs were a lot of fun. Her ending song, "Change Begins With You and Me" sent a clear and spiritual message about how we can follow the Golden Rule and "do unto others as you wish others would do unto you."

This will be seen as more partners join the temple in making Westminster a City of Compassion. The Hope Lutheran Church is our first partner in this international program. Huntington Beach recently signed on as a City of Compassion. Westminster will be next with a little help from friends throughout the city.

Make a Difference By Supporting SPIN!

SPIN, Serving People in Need, was founded in 1987 by individuals who wanted to help the homeless of Orange County. SPIN is committed to giving people a hand-up, not a hand-out, enabling families leaving emergency shelter programs to become self-sufficient by providing needed support services. In 2006 (the most recent stats available), 85% of SPIN's clients were successful in becoming self-sufficient and independent of all public support. Many times clients come to SPIN without food or hygiene items. SPIN's warehouse helps to supplement families and individual clients. SPIN's volunteers also conduct a Street Services Project, delivering food, hygiene kits and much more to the homeless on the street. There are 35,000 homeless in Orange County and almost 70% are families.
