A Night on the Red Carpet

Rabbi Nancy Rita Myers

March 2015

The Oscars for “Birdman”, The Theory of Everything”, and “Still Alice” may be over but what about “Be Happy it’s Adar, the Purim Story” or “My Life with Abraham, the first henpecked Jewish husband” or “The Longest Day, Yom Kippur in the synagogue?”

Yes, we are having our own night on the red carpet at Temple Beth David on Wednesday night, March 4. Come at 6:30 p.m. and stroll down our red carpet, be interviewed by a reporter, and get your picture taken by the paparazzi. Come dressed as fancy as you wish! This will be an elegant affair. Starting at 7:00 p.m., awards will be given out as you hear the story of Esther like none other before. Celebrities such as Dr. Oz, Dr. Phil, the Muppets, Men in Black, Joan Rivers, Mariah Carey, Beyonce, and Blues Brothers will be here. The fashion police will give out prizes for hair and outfits.

Our thanks go out to Sharon Matalon our creative writer and director. Alejandro González, move aside! There is no one like Sharon. She brings together our actors, actresses, and musicians for the best Purim shpiel you’ll ever attend at a synagogue. Immediately following our “Night on the Red Carpet Purim shpiel and celebration” will be a champagne reception. Wow! What a night!

The fun of Purim gets going even earlier than March 4. We have a Tot Shabbat on the Saturday before on Feb. 28 at 10:30 a.m. This interactive holiday experience for toddlers will feature a puppet show on the story of Esther.

On Sunday, March 1, our one and only Purim Carnival begins at 11:30 a.m. There will be booths, rides, and fun for our youth. Come eat, drink and be merry. It’s Purim!

Rabbi Nancy Myers

Sisterhood is proud to announce its gift to the congregation of a new hearing assist system. The new system should be up and operational soon for all those who require assistance.

Charlie Niederman, Religious Practices Trustee, assisted us in this purchase with his expert knowledge of these devices. It is our hope that all those who use the new system will find increased enjoyment from the many programs and events that are held in our sanctuary. This gift was supported by several generous donors proceeds from our Classic Movie Night that was held in January.

Members of Sisterhood were fast at work in our new kitchen on Sunday, February 22 baking hamantaschan for our Religious School children. Thanks to the generosity of Katella Deli who donated the dough for these sweet treats, hundreds of hamantaschan were prepared for the school and for our congregants in celebration of the Purim festival. Many thanks to Eileen Tobey and her crew who prepared a variety of flavors and processed the orders for these delights.

Mickey Lewin has been chosen to be our VISIONS representative this spring for the Women's Philanthropy of the JCC. This organization provides for Jewish Family Service, the Israel Birthright program, and many, many other philanthropic causes. Temple Beth David Sisterhood has been well represented in past years with our members' donations to this worthy cause. We will celebrate with Mickey in April at a gala event at the Long Beach Jewish Community Center. The nominee is always someone who has gone well above and beyond in supporting our Sisterhood and its activities and purposes and a person who has a vision for the future. Some of our nominees from past years include Eileen Tobey, our Oneg chair and many other roles, Cathy Niederman who supports our mitzvah corp and blood drives, Anne Farber our past president and membership co-chair, and Renée Dorfman, who has served in so many capacities, currently as our Mazelgram maven.

Social action will again be supporting "families in need" by preparing Happy Birthday Boxes for both boys and girls. There will be a list of items that are needed to prepare these gift boxes and a collection box in the lobby for those who wish to donate to this project. This is a great way to do a mitzvah and to gain a feeling of "Happiness" as so cleverly sung by Ferrell Williams these days.

Wishing everyone the very best of health and happiness as we approach springtime and renewal.

Remember please that "Sisterhood Matters" to our congregation and to many others!

Ruth Kramer
Sisterhood President

THE BROTHERHOOD MARCHING DURING MARCH

Garry Plotkin, Brotherhood President

Each year, the members of Reform Judaism - West (MRJ) select a Man of the Year from their local synagogue who has dedicated himself to Brotherhood and their own synagogue. Temple Beth David's Man-of-the-Year is Lee Netzer. A hearty Mazel Tov event will be honoring him at the 2015 Man-of-the-Year Dinner which is being held at our temple on Saturday, March 7th.

Brotherhood assembled and dismantled the game booths for the Purim Carnival. During the Carnival, we were cooking delicious hot dogs and hamburgers. The Purim Carnival is run by our Religious School while the Chanukah Carnival is produced by your Brotherhood.

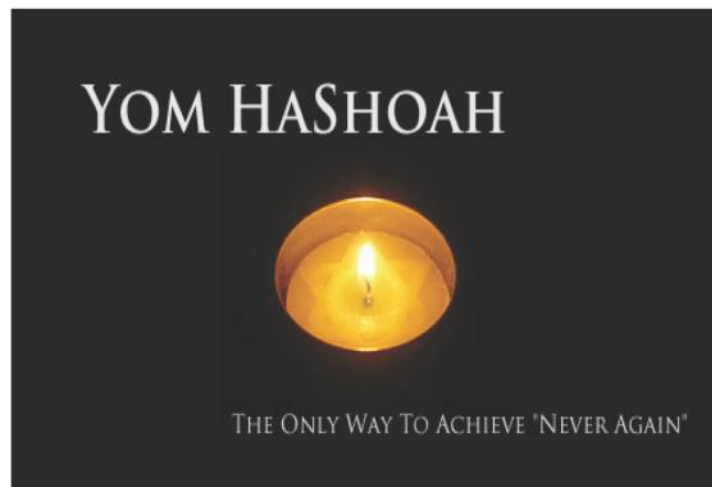

Yom Hashoah candles were boxed and prepared for distribution. During the next events (Purim Carnival, Passover Sedar, Shabbat services oneg, etc.), members of your Brotherhood will be available to distribute candles being lit on the evening of Wednesday, April 15 for Erev Yom Hashoah. The act of kindling a flame, reading a poem and reciting a blessing that is enclosed in your candle box, can create a moving ritual to remind us of what happened to our people not so long ago.

As in the past, we hope you will help underwrite the cost of this project by returning a check in the enclosed envelope. Funds received over and beyond the cost will sustain our programs, our synagogue, and the observance of Yom Hashoah.

Thank you to those who assisted with the project: Marcela, Jon & Noah Alban, Ted Cohen, Jonathan Davidoff, Larry Davidoff, Mitch Halbreich, Alan Jarrick, Jeff LeBoff, Lee Netzer, and Scott Telford.

Let us pray this never happens again.

Temple Member SPOTLIGHT:

Marlene Wedner

~ written by: Keri Gee Semmelman

March 2015

Marlene Wedner, an only child, was also the only Jewish kid growing up in the small Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania town of Bridgeville. When a classmate made a negative comment about her being Jewish, her reply was, “I don’t think you understand what being Jewish is” – and she’d go on to explain it. Her parents owned the only butcher and grocery store in town, and sent their daughter to a religious school on Sundays at a synagogue in the city – yet Marlene doesn’t recall either parent being especially observant. By the time she was 14 her family sold their businesses and moved to the city. For the first time, she was surrounded by many Jewish families.

While in high school, Marlene was active in a social club and then in college belonged to Alpha Epsilon Phi sorority at both Pennsylvania State University where she went for two years and University of Pittsburgh “Pitt.” With Penn State more than three hours away from home, and at the urging of her mom, she finished her degree at Pitt. Her mom would say, “If you stay far away you’ll meet someone, get married, and settle down somewhere other than here.” Funny thing is, Marlene did date, fall in love with, and marry a Pitt State student, though he was someone she knew in high school that lived right around the block from her family. Yet that local boy and Marlene ended up never living in Pittsburgh and soon lived in many places as Mort entered the Air Force. Marlene says adding to the irony is that the men she did date from out of town ended up settling down in Pittsburgh. Rest assured, Marlene and her husband did visit her parents (and his) often.

Morton, fondly known by many longtime Temple Beth David Members as “Mort,” will always be the love of Marlene’s life. Of the 43 years Marlene has been a temple member, 33 of those were by Mort’s side with both very active in the temple leadership until he passed away. Together they created a beautiful life including two precious daughters. Cheryl worked as the Human Resources Director for Hyatt Palm Springs and now oversees projects for an upscale club. Leslie is a speech pathologist.

In the early years of their marriage, the Wedners were stationed for a bit in California, then in Alaska for 2 ½ years – where Marlene says her connection to Judaism really began thanks to an active synagogue. She also fondly recalls teaching 3rd grade at the Air Force base for military kids and her second year at a city school where many students were Eskimo and Indian. Next they were stationed in Kokomo, Indiana. By then, Mort was an Air Force Captain and they had their first child which led to his decision to leave the military and they moved to Los Angeles, CA to settle down. There Mort opened an insurance business, they had their second child, and Marlene took a break from teaching (until the children were older) to stay home and raise the family. She later substitute taught in Huntington Beach, Westminster, and Ocean View school districts and then for eight years, given her love of travel, was a travel agent in an office where she and Mort were part owners.

Most of her travel these days is alongside her two children and granddaughter (who is graduating with honors from Berkeley this year with a political science degree). Trips to South America and Spain are on Marlene’s bucket list. She is also in a book club, a movie group, and a temple Chavurah. She likes to walk, do aerobics, and editor’s note: dresses impeccably. She’s very active at temple serving on the Sisterhood Board and recently rejoined the temple Membership Committee. A temple highlight was in the mid-70’s, when she had a B’nai Mitzvah alongside Max Sudakow, Faye Newman, and others. It’s no surprise when she thinks of Temple Beth David the word “community” comes quickly to mind. From being the only Jewish child in a small town to being surrounded by Jewish friends – especially after the loss of her forever love, this is what she values most. We are blessed that the spirit of Mort (who was pivotal in helping raise the $350k to build the sanctuary) and the ongoing commitment of Marlene help make our temple what it is...a very special family tree. ☆

TBD EARLY CHILDHOOD LEARNING CENTER

Preschool News

March 2015

It has been another busy and fun month at the preschool!

Miss Susan's class explored shapes this month by dedicating a full week to cooking with shapes. They made circle pizza and heart cookies. They also had a week all about rainbows — they made rainbow salad and rainbow fish.

The last week of the month was all about celebrating Dr. Seuss' birthday.

Miss Lizette's class had fun with letters Q, R, S, and T. The children had a wonderful time learning about the different types of weather. The last week of the month was focused on all the adventures that happen at the post office. Miss Vanessa's class continued learning one letter each week. K week was filled with kangaroos and koalas. For L week the children made lions and yummy lemonade. For M week the children made monkeys and muffins. This month we have also been learning about our body. This is a fun unit that helps the children learn how important some of their organs are, while having fun along the way. Soon the children will be taking home a duplicate of themselves.

Miss April's class has decorated their room and had a wonderful feast to welcome Chinese New Year. The celebrations were not over as the following week they celebrated day 100, and had a special visit from "Zero the Hero."

Come by next month to see what fun activities March is filled with!

This is a hectic time in Israel for all the political parties, as the Knesset election nears. The date is March 17 and for many Israelis it is observed as a holiday. By next month Israel should be well on its way to establishing a governing coalition. The question is will it be a right centrist or left centrist coalition.

Cathy and I have been in Israel during an election day. She went with my second cousin to Rabin Square to see the midday crowds. She was impressed by how many people voted and how much of a holiday it was. There was an hour or more wait for restaurant lunch tables around the square. I was on the Ride 4 Reform Bike Ride and watched the television post election reports. In that election there was a Pensioner's Party anticipated to receive no seats. It received 8. Last election a new secular centrist party, Yesh Atid (There is a Future), sprung up and again surprised the pollsters by winning 19 seats. The lesson is that the pre-election polls are not all that accurate.

The latest national poll (yesterday) from Israel Channel 2, with about three weeks until the election, shows Zionist Camp, the left center coalition, leading with 24 seats and Prime Minister Netanyahu's Likud with 22. However Zionist Camp lost one seat and Likud lost two from last week. Yesh Atid and Jewish Home (former National Religious Party) each showed 12 seats in the poll. The Joint Arab List also remained with 12 seats. There are 120 seats in the Knesset.

The second question asked in the poll regarded the most suitable leader to be Prime Minister. The result showed that 44% said Netanyahu is most suitable for the role; a decrease of 7% compared to last week's poll, and 32% responded that Herzog, leader of the Zionist Camp, was most suitable for the role; an increase of 4%. Netanyahu's controversial speech to Congress may well affect Israeli public opinion on his suitability to continue as Prime Minister.

THE ELECTION MOST IMPORTANT TO US NOW IS THE SELECTION OF THE 145 MEMBERS OF AMERICAN DELEGATION TO THE WORLD ZIONIST CONGRESS THIS FALL.

Your vote for ARZA can decide how millions of dollars allocated worldwide are distributed in Israel and in the Diaspora. That money can allow Reform and Conservative movements in Israel to get funding, and can ensure that women's rights are protected. It can allow all streams of Judaism to re-establish themselves in the former Soviet Union, and it can fight the rise in anti-Semitism in Europe.

You can register and vote at the same time. All Jewish men and women over 18 are entitled to vote for the slate of their choice. You may vote by going to the ARZA website www.arza.org and clicking on "Vote" and then "Vote now" and follow the directions. To cover the election cost the American Zionist Movement, who run the voting, charges $5 fee for persons under age 30, and $10 for those over age 30. PLEASE VOTE THE ARZA SLATE. IT IS IMPORTANT.

Goodshop

Goodsearch

To Our Temple Beth David Family:

As most of you are aware, our Temple depends on donations to deliver the high quality of services to all of you. We understand that many of you are still struggling with the recent economic downturn. However, we have come up with a way that will allow you to donate to the Temple without spending a penny of your own money, plus you will actually save money on many purchases that you normally make!

We would like to introduce you to Goodshop and Goodsearch. Goodshop works with more than 5,000 stores that will provide all of you with discounts on what you normally buy and then will donate up to 20% of the purchase price to the Temple. You will simply click on a link on the Temple Home Page, start saving money for your family and help the Temple out as well! We have included an easy step-by-step signup guide with this letter. Here are some examples of companies that participate in the program:

Target, Macy's, Nordstrom, Neiman Marcus, Sears, Sak's, Apple, Old Navy, the Gap, Amazon, Office Depot, Petco, Staples, Dell, The Limited, Holiday Inn, Groupon, Levi's, Lands End, Best Buy, 1-800 Flowers, 24 Hour Fitness, and Victoria's Secret.

These are companies that we all normally shop at, and by simply clicking on the link on the Temple website, you will be saving money for your family and actually raising money for the Temple. In addition, you can also save money by dining out at participating restaurants and, at the same time, raising donations for the Temple as well. It's simple, free and easy to use, and the average family using the site over a year will actually raise more than $350 annually for the Temple. Multiply that by our 300 families and we will raise more than $100,000 per year for the Temple! This program really works. Goodshop has raised more than $11 million for charitable organizations with this program.

Likewise, we are also rolling out Goodsearch. By doing your internet searches through Goodsearch.com, which links with Yahoo, the Temple will receive a penny for every internet search. If you can imagine how many internet searches you do, and your families do, this will also add up to real money for the Temple.

We encourage all of you to participate and to help strengthen our Temple for all of us and for the generations to come.

With best regards,

“Gentlemen’s Agreement” - March 17th - 10:30am

One of my favorite films made that confronted prejudice and discrimination and helped transform America for the better. Elliot Fein, our Religious School Director, will lead a discussion after the movie where we will identify common elements that society changing films possess. The movie is 2 hours in length, so plan to be here until 1:00pm.

“Stay & Play”

An exciting new addition to Club 55! Bring your games and spend 2 hours playing with your friends.

Our first field trip! - April 24th - 12:00pm

We are going to the Museum of Latin America in Long Beach. Our deadline for signing up is Tuesday, March 17th. We will have a docent lead the tour. The cost is $6. Space is limited. Carpools can be arranged. If you choose, there is a lovely place for lunch at the museum.

Any questions, please call Irma Moskowitz - 714-377-9721

Do you have a college student living on campus? Would you like to share in chag sameach pesach (joyous holiday of Passover) with your student? If so, Sisterhood would be happy to send a small treat. Help us let these kids know we're thinking of them. Just send me your student's information by March 20th - name and mailing address at school - and we'll do the rest. Of course this works best if your student is on campus for Passover to receive the package.

You Can Help Kids with Less Put a Birthday in a Box!

A Concrete, Hands-on Way to Give

It's hard for many of us – adults or children – to imagine celebrating a child's birthday without a party or presents. But for many families, finding the extra money to afford a child's birthday celebration is a struggle at best, and frequently impossible.

One way to help is to provide a small "party in a box" for a child in need... The idea is to decorate and fill shoe boxes with everything needed for a small birthday party. (Or, pretty, decorated shopping bags can be used instead.) Each box goes to a different child.

Everyone is invited to donate:

Large sneaker-sized shoe boxes

Birthday wrapping paper and/or largish gift bags

Cake mixes

Frosting cans

Birthday candles

Wall decorations (like streamers, or happy birthday banners),

Gently used children's books (or new ones) that a child (age 3-12) might like

Small $5-$10 dollar child's gifts (again ages 3-12)

Please Also Join Us for Sisterhood's Social Action Sunday

April 12th, 9:30-11:30 am

We will be assembling the birthday boxes/bags for children in a local homeless shelter.

You do not need to be a Sisterhood member to attend.
