Body, Mind, & Spirit on Shabbat

Rabbi Nancy Myers

August 2017

Years ago, I created an experience for us to engage in physical activity, utilize our minds, and engage our spirit as a way of enhancing Shabbat. Body, Mind, & Spirit Shabbat has become a beloved part of our Temple Beth David Saturday morning Shabbat celebration for the last three years. We have walked through El Dorado park, Bolsa Chica Wetlands, Talbert Nature preserve, and Seal Beach. We have hiked in Peter's Canyon, Santiago Oaks, Laguna Coast Wilderness, and Monrovia. A few of us biked along the San Gabriel Riverway. And we have done Tai chi, yoga, kayaking, art decolage, stretched, and sketched.

What a creative way to celebrate Shabbat! What I love the most is that we get to know each other, share a laugh, and leave feeling recharged and rejuvenated.

Abraham Joshua Heschel wrote, "The meaning of the Sabbath is to celebrate time rather than space. Six days a week we live under the tyranny of things of space; on the Sabbath we try to become attuned to holiness in time. It is a day on which we are called upon to share in what is eternal in time, to turn from the results of creation to the mystery of creation; from the world of creation to the creation of the world."

We are continuing our Body, Mind, & Spirit Shabbat experience this upcoming year! On Saturday, August 19, we will meet at 9:00 a.m. at the Temple for a breakfast of bagels, lox, fruit, hard boiled eggs, and coffee. The cost is $6.00. If you are in your twenties or thirties and you RSVP in advance to me, I will pay for your breakfast.

At 9:30 a.m., we will split between two groups. Some of us will go once again to El Dorado park for a walk with the Matalons and the rest of us will walk through the sand at Seal Beach. We invite you to join us!

President's Message

We Need You.....All of you

I hope all of you have been enjoying your summer and keeping cool (with all this humidity, when did we become Florida?). We here at TBD have been hard at work offering events and programming through the summer (just take a look at the Shavua Tov to see what is happening), gearing up for the High Holidays, and of course, processing membership renewals. So I thought I would take this opportunity to reach out and remind you to please submit your membership renewals as soon as you can. I know it is much more fun to wait until the last minute- right before the High Holidays- to keep our office staff on their toes. But on behalf of our office staff, and our congregation, I am asking that you do it sooner than later.

As you all know by now, this year TBD changed its membership model to one based upon voluntary contribution. While our contribution structure may now be voluntary, our need remains very real. In that way, our dues model only works if everyone contributes what they can to keep us operating. Of course, we don't think TBD membership should look like this:

I Gave At the Synagogue

We want you to feel good about knowing that you are doing whatever you can to keep TBD vibrant and growing. Every voluntary contribution we receive is crucial for our existence. When everyone gives what they can, we remain able to sustain a synagogue that has a great pre-school and religious school, incredible music, beautiful facilities, memorable holiday observances, and the list goes on and on. If you have the means, please consider joining the Circle of Honor. If you have been especially blessed during the past year, please consider increasing your commitment from last year.

So please take a moment from grilling your (kosher) hot dogs and watching your Dodgers run away with the NL to renew your membership today. We are counting on you. . . All of you.

SISTERHOOD MATTERS...

Difficult to believe that summer is flying by and soon the New Year will be here. I want to give you a heads-up as to our first Sisterhood function to be held October 8th in the social hall. The membership committee will be sending you more detailed info.

Thank you to all who supported our Dining Delights program in July. It was fun at Hoff's Hut in Los Alamitos. Watch for August's next restaurant.

Hope to see you at the Sisterhood/Brotherhood yummy barbecue on August 27th. It will be held at the Temple. We are asking each family to bring a side dish or a dessert of their choice. It will be a time of relaxation with family, friends, and to meet new members to our Temple.

Our recent maj tournament was a great success -- 76 players! We served a delicious lunch to our guests.

Enjoy the remainder of summer.

Shalom,

Anne Farber, President

ARZA By Charlie Niederman

Association of Reform Zionists of America

August 2017

Charlie Niederman, VP, Planning & Development

The month of July was a watershed moment in the relationship between liberal Judaism in both the Diaspora and Israel and Israel's current ruling coalition. I attended the joint convention of the Men of Reform Judaism (MRJ) and the Federation of Jewish Men's Clubs (FJMC) its Conservative counterpart. We were told at the opening session about a joint statement by important organizations at a reception at the Israel Embassy the night before, Tuesday, July 18. The top leaders and early convention arrivals had announced that they wished to read a statement at the close of the event. It was unique because it represented eight important organizations across the Reform and Conservative Movements. MRJ and FJMC were joined by WRJ and the Women's League of Conservative Judaism, as well as the Zionist organizations, ARZA and Mercaz (its Conservative equivalent) and also the Masorti Foundation for Conservative Judaism in Israel and the Conservative Cantors Assembly. The Israel Movement for Reform and Progressive Judaism had made a similar statement at a demonstration earlier in the month.

The tenor of the statement was that the government's latest actions at the Kotel, the Second Temple's Western wall, and the presentation of a bill in the Knesset to make all conversion decisions the sole province of the Ultra-Orthodox Rabbinate compelled that they stand united against a long series of assaults on pluralism and restrictions on all aspects of Jewish life and worship.

The Jerusalem Post report on the statement began with, "Our communities have long been the backbone of support for Israel...In light of those facts, it is painful to describe the anger, frustration, disillusionment and disappointment throughout our communities concerning the most recent developments with regard to the Kotel, conversion and the authority of the Chief Rabbinate of Israel. These developments, offensive as they were, unfortunately do not stand in isolation but are only the most recent manifestations of a lack of respect for non-Orthodox Jewry both in Israel and in the Diaspora."

It continued, "It is not our purpose today to recount a litany of betrayals of the religious ideals and values on which the State of Israel was founded, a state meant to be the homeland for all Jews..." and added, "We know, and you know, that we are speaking of more than just what has transpired over the last few weeks; nonetheless, to embrace what in some ways is a Middle Eastern metaphor, these straws have broken the camel's back." It added, "This is not some pro forma protest which can be airbrushed away."

The Federation of Jewish Men's Clubs president Allan Gottesman on Wednesday told The Jerusalem Post that in reading out the statement, the organizations "just wanted their voices heard. We love Israel, we visit Israel, but we had an agreement of having the pluralistic part of the Kotel," he said. "The prime minister had said that we'd work towards something, that we'd figure something out, but they decided we don't have a deal. We want the prime minister and the parliament to understand that we're upset. We had a deal and now you just changed it. We're all Jews. We're not telling you to change, we're not saying give up your part of the Wall or anything else. It's my homeland too. We have enough trouble with our neighbors, why do we have to fight with ourselves?"

The DC Embassy's spokesperson, Itai Bardov told the Jerusalem Post on Wednesday: "The Embassy was asked in advance by Men's Club representatives to read out a statement regarding the Western Wall and the embassy agreed, in light of its belief in freedom of speech and pluralism..." He added, "The Embassy is in constant dialogue with all streams of Judaism and will continue engaging in such dialogue...The event was a very positive one and we look forward to hosting similar events in the future."

It would be incomplete to avoid mentioning the sad state of events on the Temple Mount. ARZA wrote that, even though Israel is completely justified in keeping the metal detectors, sometimes, as Israelis say, it's better to be smart than right, and do what is necessary to avoid a cataclysmic clash, and start what one Arab Knesset Member already called the 3rd Intifada. Let us hope that this month calm will be restored to the Temple Mount.

Charlie Niederman

Message from Membership Chair

Hello TBD Congregation,

I went to sleep one night as Choir President and woke up the next morning as VP of Membership! Now how did THAT happen? Well, being the obsessively responsible person that I am, I had no choice but to say, “Of course, I would love to do that.”

And so here we are...it is August and those amazing days are approaching, the Days of Awe. Since I was a little girl, those days have always been mysterious and magical for me...especially since I had to walk the four miles to Temple by myself, and sneak in during a break in the service. I certainly never imagined I would be one of those adults up on the bema or planning a Shabbat Open House! My dream...a reality.

What is your dream? Being at TBD must evoke memories for all of you, as you help create new memories for your family. Through us, as adults, we model for our children and grandchildren the beauty of Judaism and the importance of belonging and supporting. My very short term dream is to see each of you WORSHIPING AND SINGING AT THE HIGH HOLY DAY SERVICES!!

Shalom and love,

Goodshop

Goodsearch

To Our Temple Beth David Family:

As most of you are aware, our Temple depends on donations to deliver the high quality of services to all of you. We understand that many of you are still struggling with the recent economic downturn. However, we have come up with a way that will allow you to donate to the Temple without spending a penny of your own money, plus you will actually save money on many purchases that you normally make!

We would like to introduce you to Goodshop and Goodsearch. Goodshop works with more than 5,000 stores that will provide all of you with discounts on what you normally buy and then will donate up to 20% of the purchase price to the Temple. You will simply click on a link on the Temple Home Page, start saving money for your family and help the Temple out as well! We have included an easy step-by-step signup guide with this letter. Here are some examples of companies that participate in the program:

Target, Macy's, Nordstrom, Neiman Marcus, Sears, Sak's, Apple, Old Navy, the Gap, Amazon, Office Depot, Petco, Staples, Dell, The Limited, Holiday Inn, Groupon, Levi's, Lands End, Best Buy, 1-800 Flowers, 24 Hour Fitness, and Victoria's Secret.

These are companies that we all normally shop at, and by simply clicking on the link on the Temple website, you will be saving money for your family and actually raising money for the Temple. In addition, you can also save money by dining out at participating restaurants and, at the same time, raising donations for the Temple as well. It's simple, free and easy to use, and the average family using the site over a year will actually raise more than $350 annually for the Temple. Multiply that by our 300 families and we will raise more than $100,000 per year for the Temple! This program really works. Goodshop has raised more than $11 million for charitable organizations with this program.

Likewise, we are also rolling out Goodsearch. By doing your internet searches through Goodsearch.com, which links with Yahoo, the Temple will receive a penny for every internet search. If you can imagine how many internet searches you do, and your families do, this will also add up to real money for the Temple.

We encourage all of you to participate and to help strengthen our Temple for all of us and for the generations to come.

With best regards,
