“Please consider remembering Temple Beth David in your will or trust.”

How many Holocaust scrolls do we have at TBD? Rabbi Nancy Myers

From the beginning of my tenure at our synagogue, I was told that the middle scroll in our ark was our Holocaust scroll. I believed this because the parchment looks burnt and damaged in many places. By the way, we use this Torah regularly. Most of our Bnei Mitzvah students carry it because it is lighter than the other Torahs. We read from it during our Second Day Rosh Hashanah service at the Huntington Beach pier and at select times throughout the year such as at Shavuot.

I have been aware that the seams are coming apart especially at the revelation of the Ten Commandments. It had become imperative to repair the scroll. Robin Harrison, VP of Religious Practice, and I have begun researching the origin of our Torahs. To my surprise, we identified two Torahs on the left as surviving the Holocaust.

In Cantor Harry Newman's autobiography, of blessed memory, he describes how the Germans during WWII collected thousands of Jewish religious artifacts in Europe and stored them in Czechoslovakia. After the war, the World Progressive Jewish movement created a repository in London for the "Czech Torahs."

He writes, "One scroll was sent to Temple Beth David and placed in the Ark... When conservative Congregation Hillel of Huntington Beach merged with Temple Beth David, they brought their own Czech Torah with them. Now we had two in our Ark and used both of them on Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippur."

Cantor Newman describes furthermore how the original atzei chayim (rollers) were replaced with newer ones and placed in our display case in the hallway. The letters on the TBD Torah scroll identified it as coming from Provstitz, a village in Czechoslovakia that was destroyed by the German army. According to Cantor Newman, it is well over two hundred years old. Cantor Newman informs that it is unusual for a congregation to have a Holocaust scroll, not withstanding two, since there are only 1500 Holocaust scrolls in the world.

So what is the story behind our middle scroll, the one I have referred to as our "Holocaust scroll?" Previous rabbis, presidents, and long term members of TBD have no idea of its origin.

We hope to learn more on Tuesday night, Feb. 21, when we bring in a sofer, scribe, to look at our scroll, repair it, and hopefully give us some information about it. The sofer will be here that night approximately 5:00 p.m. and onward. Our religious school students will be able to come in and watch him work. You are welcome to come as well.

On Friday night, Feb. 24 at the 6 & 7th grade Shabbat service, we will honor those who contributed to its repair with an Aliyah and talk more about our Torahs and their history.

We invite you to join us in celebrating our history, our Torahs, and our people's survival.

President's Message

General Hospitality

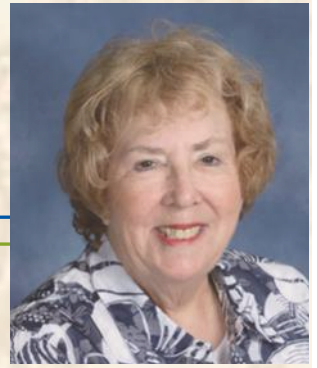

We've all done it. You grab your keys, rush out of the door (the dog didn't run out, did she?) and go speeding off to wherever it is you are trying to arrive on time. You don't make eye contact with the drivers in the cars around you- after all, if you look at them, they may think it is okay to change lanes in front of you. The nerve! You pull into your space and rush to your destination, still tense from your journey. Well, what if that destination is Temple Beth David? Did you just bring those rushed feelings in with you?

Sometimes, we all need to just slow down a bit and engage with those around us. Maybe give a smile. Or say hello to someone you don't know and introduce yourself. You know, kind of the exact opposite that we tend to do during our daily comings and goings. Hospitality is such an important thing for all of us. Feeling welcome and comfortable- especially at TBD- is the key to having memorable experiences and making good memories.

Coincidentally, we are not alone. The Union for Reform Judaism (URJ) is in the midst of a campaign they are calling "Audacious Hospitality." This focuses on their effort to embrace diversity and to reach out to those currently not engaged in Jewish life. The URJ believes that everyone can feel at home in a Jewish community - and that Judaism must meet people where they are today to thrive tomorrow. Here is a link to their website if you would like more information about their initiative <http://www.urj.org/audacioushospitality>.

I think there is a lot to be said for that, and I for one hope that we can all find it within ourselves to always be friendly and polite with one another at TBD, and to make an effort to make everyone (members and visitors alike) feel welcome and comfortable. Even if we had to cut someone off on the freeway on our way here.

SISTERHOOD MATTERS...

The Sisterhood/Brotherhood paid-up dinner will not be held in February. Instead, we are planning something very different to be held in August. You will receive publicity way in advance of the event.

Hope everyone had a fun (and profitable) time at Pechanga.

Please try to attend our very worthy social action workshop planned by Debbie Lelchuk on February 5th. All supplies will be provided.

Difficult to believe, but it is Hamentaschen baking time again! Please call Eileen Tobey to place your advance order. Yummy!

Let's start 2017 with Random Acts of Kindness (no, you are not going to receive a new Honda). To begin, how about writing a note to a friend or let someone in ahead of you in line at the grocery store?

I would like to let Brotherhood know that their Deli Man event was tasty and an entertaining evening.

If you can volunteer a few hours a month in the gift shop, please call chair, Jackie Hewitt at 714-846-4620.

Shalom,

Anne Farber, President

ARZA

By Charlie Niederman

Association of Reform Zionists of America

February 2017

Charlie Niederman, VP, Planning & Development

As we get into 2017 it appears that there have been no arrests in the case of the vandalism and death threats at the Reform Congregation in Ra'anana, a suburb north of Tel Aviv, that was included in last month's article. The Israel Religious Action Center (IRAC) which is the social justice and legal action arm of the Israel Movement for Progressive and Reform Judaism (IMPJ) is taking a strong stand against a domestic ultra-nationalist hate group. Their Executive Director, Anat Hoffman, wrote after the recent Women's Marches, "It is a rare event in anyone's life to see millions around the world marching for the rights and dignity of women. The sight was moving and the message was universal, enough to hate and enough to discrimination. A global display of solidarity of that size against the rising tide of racism and jingoist nationalism might mean that level heads are finally waking up and joining the fray."

She added, that one way IRAC is part of that global struggle is its campaign against the hate group Lehava (the "flame") that is led by the charismatic, Bentzi Gopstein. Gopstein has become an expert at using the language of nationalism and Judaism to justify sending his army of misguided thugs to commit hate crimes against other Jews, churches, and mosques. His main target is Israel's Arab citizens, who make up almost a quarter of the population. He also uses social media to spread his message, raise money, and post fake news scapegoating Arabs for any crime committed in Israel. "It helps him recruit new followers, and to sell his group as something in line with the best of our Jewish values. Nothing could be further from the truth, and we are here to keep the record straight."

By clicking on ARZA you can join and support the IMPJ as it promotes Reform Judaism and its values, and the actions of IRC to achieve pluralism in a democratic and Jewish Israel.

As for predictions that were mentioned last month, the Trump administration still is being assembled, and the outlook for the two state solution and a lasting peace looks bleak. His son-in-law, Jared Kushner, is a close adviser, who does not appear to agree with the long standing and bipartisan US position of support for a two state solution. David Friedman, the proposed US Ambassador to Israel, is an Orthodox Jew who holds views in direct opposition to long-standing U.S. policy positions. He opposes a two-state solution to the Israeli-Palestinian conflict, and is a long time financial supporter of Israeli West Bank settlements. He advocates for Israel's annexation of the West Bank, maintaining that the occupied Palestinian Territories are not occupied. Also, Friedman wants to move the U.S. embassy from Tel Aviv to Jerusalem, thereby recognizing Jerusalem as Israel's capital, a disputed city of which both Israelis and Palestinians claim ownership. He has no career experience with either policy or diplomacy. He is a close Trump friend, and a bankruptcy lawyer who advised Trump during the campaign and the bankruptcy of Trump's investments in Atlantic City casinos.

Adult Ed Presents Rabbi Peter Levi

The Delegitimization of Israel on Campus

Sunday, February 12 at 10:30 a.m.

A must attend program for all Jews!

Rabbi Peter Levi will explain how we can expect an increase in anti-Israel activity on American campuses this coming year especially with the 50th anniversary of the 1967 war. On campus some students are actively working to promote Boycott, Divestment and Sanction (BDS) campaigns against Israel, sponsor "Israeli Apartheid Week" and other anti-Israeli events and reject Jewish groups participation in collaborative efforts on campuses not even related to Israel or Judaism. Come and learn what is happening on campus and what the ADL is doing to combat the delegitimization of Israel.

Please tell all your friends about this program and more importantly tell anyone you know who have children in college or children who are about to go to college

Goodshop

Goodsearch

To Our Temple Beth David Family:

As most of you are aware, our Temple depends on donations to deliver the high quality of services to all of you. We understand that many of you are still struggling with the recent economic downturn. However, we have come up with a way that will allow you to donate to the Temple without spending a penny of your own money, plus you will actually save money on many purchases that you normally make!

We would like to introduce you to Goodshop and Goodsearch. Goodshop works with more than 5,000 stores that will provide all of you with discounts on what you normally buy and then will donate up to 20% of the purchase price to the Temple. You will simply click on a link on the Temple Home Page, start saving money for your family and help the Temple out as well! We have included an easy step-by-step signup guide with this letter. Here are some examples of companies that participate in the program:

Target, Macy's, Nordstrom, Neiman Marcus, Sears, Sak's, Apple, Old Navy, the Gap, Amazon, Office Depot, Petco, Staples, Dell, The Limited, Holiday Inn, Groupon, Levi's, Lands End, Best Buy, 1-800 Flowers, 24 Hour Fitness, and Victoria's Secret.

These are companies that we all normally shop at, and by simply clicking on the link on the Temple website, you will be saving money for your family and actually raising money for the Temple. In addition, you can also save money by dining out at participating restaurants and, at the same time, raising donations for the Temple as well. It's simple, free and easy to use, and the average family using the site over a year will actually raise more than $350 annually for the Temple. Multiply that by our 300 families and we will raise more than $100,000 per year for the Temple! This program really works. Goodshop has raised more than $11 million for charitable organizations with this program.

Likewise, we are also rolling out Goodsearch. By doing your internet searches through Goodsearch.com, which links with Yahoo, the Temple will receive a penny for every internet search. If you can imagine how many internet searches you do, and your families do, this will also add up to real money for the Temple.

We encourage all of you to participate and to help strengthen our Temple for all of us and for the generations to come.

With best regards,
