Temple Beth David Trip to Israel or Europe? Rabbi Nancy Myers

It was only a few years ago that we took members of Temple Beth David on a trip to Israel in March 2014. Andrea Tabor has been asking me to arrange another Temple trip overseas either to Israel or Europe. We are thinking of spring 2018 but that really depends on you. Here are some reflections on our experience of Israel from a few years ago.

“Every time I go to Israel it is in many ways like going home, it is welcoming and comfortable to be in the only country where what we do as Jews is the norm and the way of life.” Charlie Niederman

“Right as we touched down in Israel I knew I had landed in a special place when they said “Shabbat Shalom” over the intercom on the plane. I never heard these words outside of temple, a family gathering or camp... I had a feeling that I’ve come home and that I belonged.” Faith Pantel

“It is not too often an event, trip or project comes out better than you thought it might. Well our trip to Israel was so much better than I dreamed it to be. It was like everything I had learned about or saw pictures of came to life and it just felt good to be there.” Teri Roth

Are you interested in a congregational trip to Israel or to Europe? Interest list is forming and trip will be designed with the dates of those attending. Contact the rabbi with your questions or interest: Rabbimy-ers@templebethdavid.org

SISTERHOOD MATTERS...

I hope everyone had a happy Hanukkah and look forward to a great 2017.

We sent three representatives to the convention in November in Las Vegas. They came back and shared with us many great ideas, handouts and available resources.

Sisterhood has been planning many activities for the coming year. Please mark your calendars and plan to join us for the activities that interest you:

Pechanga Day Trip ---Jan. 31, 2017

Social Action Program – Feb. 5, 2017 (more info to follow)

Hamentashen Baking --- Feb. 26, 2017

Sisterhood Shabbat --- March 10, 2017

Fashion Show --- April 30, 2017

There will be more publicity as the events approach.

The Sisterhood needs volunteers to work a few hours a week or a month in the gift shop. Please call Jackie Hewitt at 714-846-4620 if you can help.

We are very excited about the remote electric window covering for all of the social hall windows that Sisterhood was able to purchase. Now, when we have presentations in the Social Hall, the shining sun will not be a problem! It also gives a warmer look in there. Come see.....

Shalom,

Anne Farber, President

Steve Harris, Brotherhood President

DELIGHTFUL AND INCISIVE JANUARY BROTHERHOOD EVENTS

JANUARY 8, 2017 "END OF LIFE ISSUES" BROTHERHOOD PRESENTATION AND BRUNCH AT 10:30 AM

Dr. Aaron Kern Will Provide the Aspects of It

Dr. Aaron Kern, our former Temple Beth David president and a current experienced physician, will be bringing forth the various elements from the medical end of life regarding family roles, hospice care, advanced directives, and the ethics of assisted suicide.

He will also be answering questions regarding those different concerns. With his extensive and diverse background, Dr. Kern will provide insight for all inquiries brought to him by the attendees. We truly encourage those attending to truly hear and learn from him.

JANUARY 14, 2017 "DELI•MAN" BROTHERHOOD DELI DINNER AND MOVIE OF THAT NAME AT 6:00 PM

Brought forth by Brotherhood member Rick Katz, you will be provided a loving deli dinner and a delightful movie. The meal is delicious and the movie wonderful!!

Your dinner will make you have so many appetites from all you receive. From a corned beef sandwich to pickles, cole slaw, a variety of drinks, along with dessert, you will be truly be happy in what you eat, drink, and have!! Afterwards, you will watch the movie Deli-Man to see "the men behind the food and its tradition!!" Again, you will very much be yummy in your tummy and mind!!

JANUARY 29, 2017 BROTHERHOOD "TEXAS HOLD'EM" NINTH ANNUAL TOURNAMENT AT 11:00 AM

Anually created by Brotherhood board member Jerrold Korn, the "Texas Hold'Em" is a wonderful event in so many ways. You can play, eat a delicious French-dip sandwich, and win in a wonderful manner.

If 40 of you and your friends show up and pay a $54.00 fee, the winner can receive $500.00 and two free tickets to the L.A. Clippers game. Plus, if you want, you can pay another fee to continue playing. FYI: Reserve by January 24 to attend!!

Please Note that the flyers are in this Megillah!

ARZA

By Charlie Niederman

Association of Reform Zionists of America

January 2017

Charlie Niederman, VP, Planning & Development

As 2016 draws to a close we can reflect on what did and did not happen in 2016 and speculate on what 2017 may hold in store for Israel.

The agreement for an egalitarian prayer area at the Western Wall (Kotel) was adopted by the Israeli cabinet at the end of January. There has been resistance by the ultra-Orthodox and several ruling coalition members, and there is no schedule for its implementation. That did not stop non-Orthodox Jews in Israel and the Diaspora from continuing to pressure the government and the Reform movement has held prayer services for men and women at the undeveloped site. Rabbi Gilad Kariv, the Executive Director of the Israel Movement for Reform and Progressive Judaism said "The prayers of hundreds of people and Reform rabbis at the Western Wall is the ultimate answer to the incitement of the ultra-Orthodox leadership... They continue to incite and we continue to create a more pluralistic and tolerant reality in Israel."

In June diplomatic relations between Turkey and Israel were renormalized and ambassadors were exchanged in December. The allies continue to take steps toward a full restoration of ties, but their improving relationship may be an acknowledgement of regional reality rather than a restoration of friendly relations.

In September the world lost a Nobel Peace Prize winner and Israel lost a past Prime Minister and President, as Shimon Peres died at the age of 93. His voice and influence will be missed.

Overall the number of stabbings have decreased as the year comes to an end, but the relationship between Israelis and Palestinians does not show signs of improvement.

The 8-day wave of 90 wildfires in November caused an estimated $520 million in damage. In Haifa 800 apartments were left uninhabitable, making 1,700 people homeless. The international community was instrumental in helping combat the fires. Egypt, Jordan, Azerbaijan and Turkey all sent firefighting equipment to Israel. The Palestinian Authority also pitched in by sending fire trucks to Israel, in a moment of Israeli-Palestinian cooperation. Israeli Public Security Minister said that between 40% and 50% of the fires were the result of arson, and he called it a new form of Palestinian terrorism.

For Israel's Reform Jews the year has presented some sad and stark realities. In addition to the government refusing to implement terms of the Kotel agreement, there has been an increase in vandalism nationwide and against the Reform movement and its institutions. In December the Reform congregation of Ra'anana, a suburb north of Tel Aviv, suffered vandalism for the fifth time. Sprayed on the wall was a verse number from the Book of Obadiah that encourages violence against those deemed heretics. A knife on an outdoor ledge covered three envelopes with the names of prominent Reform leaders: Rabbi Rick Jacobs, president of our Union for Reform Judaism, Rabbi Gilad Kariv, Executive Director of the IMPJ; and Anat Hoffman, chair of Women of the Wall, and Executive Director of the Israel Religious Action Center. On the knife were words from an ancient text that refers to the Jewish laws pertaining to murder. Prime Minister Netanyahu, and other ruling coalition members denounced the attack, but arrests have yet to be made.

No review of the year can be complete without mentioning the current US-Israel row. Until last week, President Obama was the only recent US president to veto rather than abstain from a Security Council resolution critical of Israel. There appear to have been 23 abstentions, with President Reagan's 10 leading the list. All that changed when the US did abstain from one, which while more balanced in its wording, was critical of Israel's West Bank settlements. America's UN Ambassador, Samantha Power, spoke eloquently about UN mistreatment of Israel, and called for an end to "the double-standard that undermines the legitimacy of the UN." Her remarks were intended to explain why America chose to abstain. But many American Jews, including opponents of the settlements, pointed to those remarks as reason the US could have cast a veto.

On Christmas Day Israel's Foreign Minister called the ambassadors of all the nations that voted for the resolution to denounce it. Prime Minister Netanyahu personally called in the American Ambassador. He made public statements denouncing the resolution and attacking the US administration in personal terms. This was followed by an impassioned speech by Secretary of State Kerry that warned Israel that the settlements were destroying the chances for a two state solution leaving Israel to choose between becoming a Jewish or a Democratic state, since eventually it will not be able to be both. He also felt Israel could become a pariah state. It all leaves many American Jews profoundly uncomfortable and wondering if it really had to happen.

Since the incoming US administration is yet to be formed, I'll take the easy route and wait until they take office next month before making any predictions.

HANNUKAH CARNIVAL

Once again I have a lot of people to thank for a successful “potato latke sale”. It’s a lot of work but very rewarding to know that our job is so appreciated.

My sincere thanks go to Eileen Tobey, Marlene Wedner, Jim Michaeloff, Jan Klein, Susan Schoenholtz, Alma Herman, Annette Helfman, Elaine Netzer, Sharon (David) Matalon, Mulu Harrison, Mary Treiger and Michelle Markell . There is no way this could have been done without the help of ALL of these people. It really does take a “village” to do this.

A special thank you to Scott for picking up the potatoes and onions from Frieda’s and schlepping them to the temple and doing anything we ask for the mere payment of a latke!!! And he had to do this on his birthday!!!

Thank you to those who came in the kitchen to offer their help. If you want to help me next year, please respond to the request so I can schedule you.

Once again, I would like to thank Frieda Caplan, Karen Caplan and Jackie Wiggins for their generous donation of the potatoes and onions. They are always there for us and we sincerely appreciate their generosity.

I wish you all a very Happy Hannukah.

“Religion in American Politics”
Tuesdays

January 10th, 17th, and 24th
Starts at 10:30am to 12:00pm

During this 3 session course we will look at the interplay between religion and American political life. With the inauguration of the new president this class will be especially timely. How did various religious communities vote and what influence do religious leaders exert on our political life? Christians, Jews and Muslims have been part of the American story since the beginning and over the years have has huge impact on politics. We will start with an historical review and focus most closely on the contemporary situation.

Cost: $25, checks made out to
Rabbi Michael Mayersohn at the first session

Upcoming Bat Mitzvah

Jessa Kleinman will be called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah on January 14, 2016.

Jessa is a very happy 7th grader at Bell Intermediate. She is often found coloring and listening to music, playing with her friends, teasing her siblings, or making those around her laugh. Her bubbly personality and big heart are truly a blessing. Jessa worked with a friend to complete her mitzvah project, where she made grave markers for the past pets at Seal Beach Animal Care Center.

The Delegitimization of Israel on Campus

Sunday, February 12 at 10:30 a.m.

A must attend program for all Jews!

Rabbi Peter Levi will explain how we can expect an increase in anti-Israel activity on American campuses this coming year especially with the 50th anniversary of the 1967 war. On campus some students are actively working to promote Boycott, Divestment and Sanction (BDS) campaigns against Israel, sponsor "Israeli Apartheid Week" and other anti-Israeli events and reject Jewish groups participation in collaborative efforts on campuses not even related to Israel or Judaism. Come and learn what is happening on campus and what the ADL is doing to combat the delegitimization of Israel.

Please tell all your friends about this program and more importantly tell anyone you know who have children in college or children who are about to go to college

Goodshop

Goodsearch

To Our Temple Beth David Family:

As most of you are aware, our Temple depends on donations to deliver the high quality of services to all of you. We understand that many of you are still struggling with the recent economic downturn. However, we have come up with a way that will allow you to donate to the Temple without spending a penny of your own money, plus you will actually save money on many purchases that you normally make!

We would like to introduce you to Goodshop and Goodsearch. Goodshop works with more than 5,000 stores that will provide all of you with discounts on what you normally buy and then will donate up to 20% of the purchase price to the Temple. You will simply click on a link on the Temple Home Page, start saving money for your family and help the Temple out as well! We have included an easy step-by-step signup guide with this letter. Here are some examples of companies that participate in the program:

Target, Macy's, Nordstrom, Neiman Marcus, Sears, Sak's, Apple, Old Navy, the Gap, Amazon, Office Depot, Petco, Staples, Dell, The Limited, Holiday Inn, Groupon, Levi's, Lands End, Best Buy, 1-800 Flowers, 24 Hour Fitness, and Victoria's Secret.

These are companies that we all normally shop at, and by simply clicking on the link on the Temple website, you will be saving money for your family and actually raising money for the Temple. In addition, you can also save money by dining out at participating restaurants and, at the same time, raising donations for the Temple as well. It's simple, free and easy to use, and the average family using the site over a year will actually raise more than $350 annually for the Temple. Multiply that by our 300 families and we will raise more than $100,000 per year for the Temple! This program really works. Goodshop has raised more than $11 million for charitable organizations with this program.

Likewise, we are also rolling out Goodsearch. By doing your internet searches through Goodsearch.com, which links with Yahoo, the Temple will receive a penny for every internet search. If you can imagine how many internet searches you do, and your families do, this will also add up to real money for the Temple.

We encourage all of you to participate and to help strengthen our Temple for all of us and for the generations to come.

With best regards,

Neil Kornswiet

HELP DEFRAY THE COST OF OFFICE SUPPLIES.

The temple office buys a lot of office supplies. If you have any office supply store coupons, discount cards, or e-mail sales advertisements, please share them with our office to help cut costs.

Thank you to all who have donated! We appreciate your support!!!

Please make sure they are valid dates and not expired

If you have any unused envelopes, the TBD office would appreciate them. Please drop off any time!!! Thank you!!!

TBD offers FREE WIFI
in the Social Hall.
