Camp Newman Fire & Our Youth

Rabbi Nancy Myers

January 2018

It has been known for some time that youth who attend Jewish overnight camp end up with stronger Jewish identities well into adulthood. They are more likely to light candles for Shabbat and Hanukkah, have a connection to Israel, donate to charity, attend synagogue, and participate in Federation. Jewish camp is great for the future of Judaism.

For the Reform movement, the Union of Reform Judaism, hosts a number of excellent camps around the country. At Temple Beth David, we have a special connection with Camp Newman in Northern California. Thanks to the family of Rabbi Henry Front, may his memory be a blessing, there was a fund established with our Foundation to support our youth in attending this camp. Seth Front, in particular, helped inspire our children to attend and we are grateful to him for that.

Personally, I have seen the excitement of our children and how they grow over the weeks at camp. There is special pride in being Jewish within a nurturing environment that embraces Reform values and practices. It has been an honor for me to serve on faculty these last few summers. I can tell you that Camp Newman is an excellent place to send your children.

Many of you are sadly aware that the terrible fires in Northern California destroyed our precious camp.

This loss has impacted many at our synagogue and this is why our youth are coming together with our Sisterhood and Brotherhood to hold a fundraiser for Camp Newman.

On Saturday night, Jan. 20 starting at 6:30 p.m. all are invited to attend the Brotherhood/Sisterhood Paid up dinner where we will learn about Camp Newman and raise some funds to assist in its rebuilding.

We hope that you will join us. I know your presence will mean a lot to our youth and their families.

Camp Newman will certainly be rebuilt and in the meantime we are meeting this upcoming summer at Cal State Maritime in the San Francisco bay area. I don't know how long it will take to rebuild but with your help and the love of our youth and adults, I have no doubt that we will have amazing summers once again at Camp Newman.

Happy New Year!!!

I wanted to take this time to say a very special thank you to everyone!!! This year has been filled with joy, love, rough times, amazing times and through it all I have so much support given to me and the TBD staff. Thank you Rabbi!! Thank you Ian & Gayle Chait for providing such beautiful Palm Fronds for our sukkah and David Baroway, Sable Cantus and Matt Paretsky for schlepping so early in the morning to pick them up and get them to temple. Thank you to Gloria Schwartz for always being there for us on Shabbat, Confirmation, and for keeping us fed! Thank you to David & Julia Metz for helping with our tiles in our Social Hall. You are quite the contractor!, Thank you David Baroway for always being at our beckoned call!!! You really make things so seamless for me and I cannot express how amazing it is to work with you. Thank you to Perry Goldstein & Robin Harrison for being our sound gurus and helping us setup when needed. You guys are awesome!!! Thank you TBD Board. It has been an incredible year filled with so many changes and so many great things to look forward to the future. Eric, you have been so great to work with. I feel very lucky to be able to learn from you.

Thank you Liz!! I love working with you! We are great together!!!!

Brooke, you have been so amazing to work with!!!! I look forward to great things with our Early Childhood Learning Center and to get to know you better!!

Thank you to Scott Whiteside for being so amazing!!! We are so blessed to have you as part of our dream team!! We couldn't do it without you and are so proud of you of how far you have come in a very short time.

Thank you to Charlie Do for being my right hand girl. It was a very special day when you came to work with me. Your loyalty, commitment and work ethic shines so bright Thank you for everything you do on a daily basis to help our office and temple.

And last but not least, thank you to my amazing family for being so patient with me! Sometimes it's very hard to leave my office!! LOL

If I have forgotten anyone, my sincere apologies. I appreciate everything everyone has done.

Cheers to an amazing 2018!!!

ARZA By Charlie Niederman

Association of Reform Zionists of America

January 2018

Charlie Niederman, VP, Planning & Development

At the Union for Reform Judaism Biennial Convention in Boston, Israel was one of the main themes. There were more sessions on Israel than Cathy and I could attend. Those that we did attend included "Israel at 70, Ensuring a Jewish and Democratic State". It was an interview session in which Rabbi Gilad Kariv, President of the Israel Movement for Reform and Progressive Judaism (IMPJ) was interviewed by Charlotte Halle the International Director for Haaretz, a daily newspaper in Tel Aviv. The topics covered were the status of Israeli Reform Judaism which is rapidly growing in membership and in influence on national issues opposing the current Israeli government, and the need for world Jewry to speak up for the Israel they hope to see in the future. He purposely used world Jewry and not Diaspora. There was a reception to celebrate the 40th anniversary the Association of Reform Zionists of America (ARZA). On the final day there was a four hour seminar "Bringing Israel Home, The Essentially Complicated Place of Israel in North American Judaism". It covered the collaboration between the Union for Reform Judaism (URJ), ARZA and the IMPJ. It included three breakout sessions. Cathy attended the "Navigating the Place of Israel Conversation in Your Congregation", and I went to "Working Hand in Hand with Reform Israelis". It is clear for the foreseeable future that North American Reform Jews and IMPJ will work in common purpose on the important issues of the growth of Reform Judaism in Israel and opposition to the actions by the current Israeli Government to promote Ultra Orthodox actions and legislation that reject and inhibit other forms of Judaism. In addition we participated in associated events like, "ARZA at 40 Reception" and the World Union for Progressive Judaism Dinner and Orchestra Concert that premiered the classical Debbie Friedman Suite.

In Israel the bill to prevent the police, who investigate crimes, from making a recommendation to the prosecutors became law. It was pushed by Netanyahu's Likud Party. The law is not retroactive, so investigations currently underway are excluded. It means that the investigations of corruption by Prime Minister Netanyahu will go to the prosecutors with recommendations.

The success of the forces of the Assad regime in Syria against the rebel groups that control the area bordering Israel means for Israel that there will once again be hostile forces on that border. For the rebels and area residents it means that the medical support that they received from Israeli hospitals will be reduced or eliminated.

I cannot ignore the most reported news about Israel, that the US administration has announced that it will move its embassy from Tel Aviv to Jerusalem. It is a reversal of the original, long standing, bipartisan policy to keep the embassy in Tel Aviv. The UN General Assembly passed a resolution condemning the action after the US vetoed a similar action by the Security Council. Guatemala has joined the US in planning a move of their embassy to Jerusalem. The Times of Israel reported that there are nine more countries discussing similar action, the largest of which is Romania.

Palestinian and Arab nations have denounced the move. Palestinians say that they no longer consider the US unbiased and that they will not participate in the peace negotiations. An objective view certainly indicates that the US has decreased its influence as an unbiased partner in the Middle East.

Message from Membership Chair

Happy Secular New Year Everyone!

As Jews we are so fortunate. We get to celebrate the New Year twice each year...the first time for reflection and spiritual soul searching; the second time for playing!

That first celebration, the High Holy Days, always wears me out. I look forward to the Holy Days every year when the rest of the world seems to disappear and we are cocooned safely within our Temple world, praying, singing, reflecting. It is always a rude awakening when I walk outside and hear the cars on the freeway flying by. Where are they all going? Don't they know it's the High Holy Days?

The second New Year celebration on 12/31 has always been a good break in the middle of the year (as a student and then educator, my whole life has always been on the Jewish calendar). When Max and I were younger, we had this compulsion to 'celebrate', go out and have a great time until the ball in Times Square came down. As health issues beset Max, our New Year's Eve celebrations changed to dinner out and a good movie....and then home, sometimes to sleep BEFORE midnight. How I miss those quiet 'celebrations'....for in fact, being with my husband and my family was all I ever really needed.

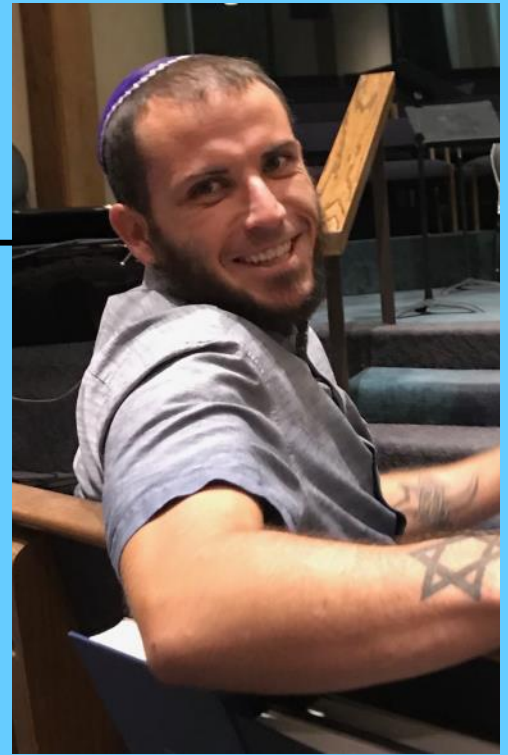

Enjoy your holiday time...know what you really need...Happy Months ahead!!!!

Have you met.....

Matt Saltzman

A young man who inspires...he definitely inspires me! Matt has a fascinating family history, from which he chose to be Jewish. He never met his father, who passed away before Matt had any memories, but his father grew up in Iran, and lived with his family in Saudi Arabia before that. They were all American citizens, but changed their religion from Judaism to Christianity to survive living in the Middle East. Matt's mother is first generation Irish-American, and his Irish born grandfather fought in WWII for Canada. So how did Matt become Jewish? His mother is not Jewish, but her stepmother from Russia was, and Matt chose to take his grandmother's religion!!!

Matt lives in Garden Grove, works, and likes to paddle board in his free time. He is still searching for that life long career path. He LOVES coming to Temple Beth David, which he does regularly on Friday nights, and has volunteered to help organize this year's Chanukah Carnival. Matt loves Temple Beth David because he has this sense of always belonging, of feeling accepted. I love his attitude, that “if you choose to belong, you do belong”. And Matt, you are a vital part of TBD.

Come Celebrate Israel's 70th birthday in Israel!

and learn about its role as the birthplace of the three main world religions

April 12, 2018- April 22, 2018

"Every time I go to Israel it is in many ways like going home, it is welcoming and comfortable to be in the only country where what we do as Jews is the norm and the way of life."

~ Charlie Niederman

I am excited to lead our trip to Israel this upcoming April! I've designed this trip for both newcomers and experienced visitors to Israel. You are welcome to join us whether you are a member of Temple Beth David or just feel a connection to our community.

We will explore the Old City of Jerusalem with its sacred sites to Judaism, Christianity, and Islam. There will be festive Shabbat celebrations. In Jerusalem, we'll enjoy a tasting tour of the Arab market and enjoy shopping opportunities. There will be unique opportunities to learn about the religious diversity of Israel in history and current day.

In Haifa, we'll learn about the Druze community, view the famous Baha'i Gardens, and learn about the plight of Jewish refugees coming to the land before it became a state. We'll enjoy wine tasting and great Israeli food.

On the Western Wall: "You see pictures of it in books, and in the news you see people praying there, but when you are right next to it and can touch it, a whole different feeling came over me...I just stared at the wall and realized Israel is my home as well as the United States and I will always feel that way."

~ Lynne Horn

I agree that visiting Israel can seem like going home, but one where there is always something new to learn or see, even in such a small country. ~ Cathy Niederman

Do you have a BUCK for the Bucket?

TBD Sisterhood is participating in Women of Reform Judaism Pacific District's 2017 Bucket Brigade: Seeds and Mortar for Camp Newman

As many of you know, raging fires recently swept through Northern California. Sadly, Camp Newman lost its physical structure in the fire. We are grateful that no harm came to staff or campers. The Torah scrolls were evacuated. Miraculously, the entrance gate, vineyard, prayer books, tallitot, and the iconic wooden Star of David that overlooks the camp from a rocky perch somehow were spared. Read more in this iweekly.com article and check Camp Newman's Facebook for updates and for other ways you can help.

And if you can spare a buck, our bucket will be on the table in the foyer. All monies collected will be forwarded to WRJ's Pacific District to be forwarded to Camp Newman.

Goodshop

Goodsearch

To Our Temple Beth David Family:

As most of you are aware, our Temple depends on donations to deliver the high quality of services to all of you. We understand that many of you are still struggling with the recent economic downturn. However, we have come up with a way that will allow you to donate to the Temple without spending a penny of your own money, plus you will actually save money on many purchases that you normally make!

We would like to introduce you to Goodshop and Goodsearch. Goodshop works with more than 5,000 stores that will provide all of you with discounts on what you normally buy and then will donate up to 20% of the purchase price to the Temple. You will simply click on a link on the Temple Home Page, start saving money for your family and help the Temple out as well! We have included an easy step-by-step signup guide with this letter. Here are some examples of companies that participate in the program:

Target, Macy's, Nordstrom, Neiman Marcus, Sears, Sak's, Apple, Old Navy, the Gap, Amazon, Office Depot, Petco, Staples, Dell, The Limited, Holiday Inn, Groupon, Levi's, Lands End, Best Buy, 1-800 Flowers, 24 Hour Fitness, and Victoria's Secret.

These are companies that we all normally shop at, and by simply clicking on the link on the Temple website, you will be saving money for your family and actually raising money for the Temple. In addition, you can also save money by dining out at participating restaurants and, at the same time, raising donations for the Temple as well. It's simple, free and easy to use, and the average family using the site over a year will actually raise more than $350 annually for the Temple. Multiply that by our 300 families and we will raise more than $100,000 per year for the Temple! This program really works. Goodshop has raised more than $11 million for charitable organizations with this program.

Likewise, we are also rolling out Goodsearch. By doing your internet searches through Goodsearch.com, which links with Yahoo, the Temple will receive a penny for every internet search. If you can imagine how many internet searches you do, and your families do, this will also add up to real money for the Temple.

We encourage all of you to participate and to help strengthen our Temple for all of us and for the generations to come.

With best regards,

Neil Kornswiet
