Camp Newman Summer

Rabbi Nancy Myers

July 2017

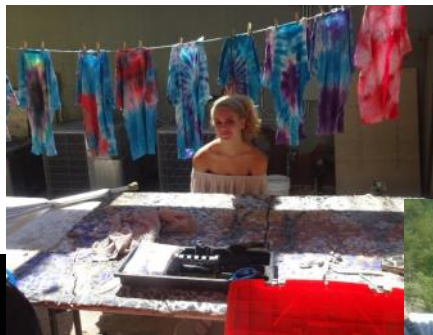

On Monday, July 3, I'll be driving up to Camp Newman for my third summer. For the past few years, we have been sending our youth to the Union for Reform Judaism's California Jewish overnight camp.

I have seen first hand, the joy our kids have in making new friends, developing leadership skills, and deepening their Jewish identities. The activities are varied and include prayer, sessions on Judaism, sports, crafts, swimming, and creative group programming.

This year, we have ten youth attending from our synagogue. They are: Shane Prunty, Jessa Kleinman, Dani Kleinman, Lily Perlman, Elizabeth Halbriech, Ari Fitzer, Kai Fitzer, Evan Greenberg, Sean Greenberg, and Miles Greenberg.

The pictures you see are those kids who went up to camp in the middle of June. I hope to send more pictures when I arrive. Camp Newman prides itself on the Jewish values of Tikkun Olam – bettering our world, Tikkun Middot – bettering ourselves, Gimilut Chasadim – acts of loving kindness, Betzelem Elohim – all humans are created in a divine image, Talmud Torah – love of learning for learning's sake, and Ahavat Israel – love of Israel. “These timeless, universal values form the backbone of every program we plan, anchoring each event in our Jewish tradition. It's just one way we make Judaism relevant, accessible and meaningful today.”

Thank you to our Temple Beth David Foundation and angels for helping to send our kids to camp.

SISTERHOOD MATTERS...

Hi All,

Hope you are enjoying summer and finding time for fun and relaxation.

ARZA By Charlie Niederman

Association of Reform Zionists of America

July 2017

Charlie Niederman, VP, Planning & Development

Over the last year and a half these articles have frequently reported the lack of progress on the agreement reached in January 2016, to construct an egalitarian prayer area at the Kotel, the Western Wall, actually a retaining wall of the Temple mount. It was the result of protracted negotiations between the Ultra-Orthodox authority that administrates the Kotel, and the progressive groups that have pressed for an area where men and women can pray together. The negotiations were moderated by Natan Sharahsky, Chairman of the Executive of the Jewish Agency, who was appointed to the position by Prime Minister Netanyahu, and it was agreed to by the Israeli cabinet. This week the cabinet froze the plan. To add insult to injury the Knesset is considering a bill to declare that only Orthodox conversions conducted by the rabbis and courts under the Chief Rabbinate will be accepted by Israel. The actions provoked immediate disapproval by ARZA (Association of Reform Zionists of America), URJ (The Union for Reform Judaism) and many other Diaspora groups especially in North America, and by much of the Israeli press.

Israel's President Reuven Rivlin urged the government to prioritize the "unity of the Jewish people" and retain its role as the state for all Jews. " Our fellow Jews in the Diaspora have an important and significant role in the building of the State of Israel., The unity of the Jewish People must always remain an important aspiration of the governments of Israel."

The Anti Defamation League declared that the Kotel decision weakens the ties between Israel and American Jewry.

ARZA declared, "ARZA condemns both of these outrageous actions which, if allowed to stand, will cement the power of the ultra-Orthodox minority in Israel at the expense of Jewish unity and pluralism, undermine religious freedom in the State of Israel, and open a schism between Israel and world Jewry."

ARZA declared that the Kotel agreement was a milestone for compromise and unity; and referred to Prime Minister Netanyahu's words, that the agreement "endorsed One Wall for One People".

They continued, "Some commentators have called these bills the trigger for American Jewry to abandon Israel. As the voice of Reform Zionism in America, we refuse this option: In fact, the reason for our outrage is precisely because of our movement's deep and unending commitment to Israel. We fear that the extremist ideology expressed in the government's action against the Kotel compromise and the conversion bill will drive Jews—especially the younger generation—away from Israel. We will continue to express our Zionist love for Israel by working for an Israel that reflects the vibrant tapestry of Jewish expression, free from religious coercion."

Let us hope that Prime Minister Netanyahu and the more moderate members of his cabinet listen to their President, and the voices in the Diaspora.

Goodshop

Goodsearch

To Our Temple Beth David Family:

As most of you are aware, our Temple depends on donations to deliver the high quality of services to all of you. We understand that many of you are still struggling with the recent economic downturn. However, we have come up with a way that will allow you to donate to the Temple without spending a penny of your own money, plus you will actually save money on many purchases that you normally make!

We would like to introduce you to Goodshop and Goodsearch. Goodshop works with more than 5,000 stores that will provide all of you with discounts on what you normally buy and then will donate up to 20% of the purchase price to the Temple. You will simply click on a link on the Temple Home Page, start saving money for your family and help the Temple out as well! We have included an easy step-by-step signup guide with this letter. Here are some examples of companies that participate in the program:

Target, Macy's, Nordstrom, Neiman Marcus, Sears, Sak's, Apple, Old Navy, the Gap, Amazon, Office Depot, Petco, Staples, Dell, The Limited, Holiday Inn, Groupon, Levi's, Lands End, Best Buy, 1-800 Flowers, 24 Hour Fitness, and Victoria's Secret.

These are companies that we all normally shop at, and by simply clicking on the link on the Temple website, you will be saving money for your family and actually raising money for the Temple. In addition, you can also save money by dining out at participating restaurants and, at the same time, raising donations for the Temple as well. It's simple, free and easy to use, and the average family using the site over a year will actually raise more than $350 annually for the Temple. Multiply that by our 300 families and we will raise more than $100,000 per year for the Temple! This program really works. Goodshop has raised more than $11 million for charitable organizations with this program.

Likewise, we are also rolling out Goodsearch. By doing your internet searches through Goodsearch.com, which links with Yahoo, the Temple will receive a penny for every internet search. If you can imagine how many internet searches you do, and your families do, this will also add up to real money for the Temple.

We encourage all of you to participate and to help strengthen our Temple for all of us and for the generations to come.

With best regards,

Neil Kornswiet
