Vote Reform in the World Zionist Elections

Rabbi Myers

January/February 2020

Even from America's shores, we can impact Israel by voting for the 38th congress in the World Zionist election. The World Zionist Congress (WZC) is the governing body of the World Zionist Organization (WZO), Jewish National Fund (JNF), and the Jewish Agency for Israel. The First Zionist Congress, convened by Theodor Herzl in 1897, began the Zionist movement stating that the Jewish people should have a state of their own. The WZC meets every five years to discuss policy and funding for Jewish institutions in Israel and across the world.

With more slates than ever before representing the diversity of thought, opinion and cultural identity of the American Jewish community, we have a rare opportunity to make a direct impact on the future direction of Israel and diaspora affairs. Decisions will be made regarding the priorities of the key National Institutions of Israel – World Zionist Organization (WZO), Jewish National Fund (JNF) and the Jewish Agency for Israel (JNF) – and the allocation of nearly $1 billion in funding in support of Israel and world Jewry.

This is an opportunity to connect with the land of Israel, support Reform Judaism, and strengthen the Jewish state. By voting Reform, you are investing in an Israel that is both Jewish and democratic and is a free society that upholds equality of religion, gender, race, and ethnicity. Our Reform vote will advocate for government recognition of the many diverse expressions of Jewish religious identity and support of a democratic civil society in Israel. It will work so that liberal streams of Judaism are provided equal financial support and resources in the Jewish State. And will advocate for a long-term peace between Israelis and Palestinians.

Please see more at <https://azm.org/wp-content/uploads/2020-ARZA-Platform-and-Slate.pdf>

Who is eligible to vote in the US Elections to the 38th World Zionist Congress?

Be 18 years of age or above (as of June 30, 2020)

Be a permanent resident of the United States

Be Jewish

Have not voted and will not vote in the March 2, 2020 Knesset election

Affirm your commitment to the Jerusalem Program (asserts the unity of the Jewish people and bond to Israel, immigration and integration of immigrants in Israel, strengthening Israel's morality and spirituality, Jewish education, responsibility, and rights of individuals)

Registration and voting will open on January 21, 2020. To register, visit azm.org/elections after that date. The fee to register and vote is $7.50, which covers the administrative costs of running the election (anyone age 25 and under pay $5.00). For more information: <https://azm.org/elections>

We are hoping for many within our congregation to vote. Thank you for supporting the Reform movement and Israel.

President's Message

Well, the new year is upon us, and I would like to take a moment and reflect upon this past year. Our facilities have never looked better. From our lobby to our school building, from our kitchen to our remodeled lobby bathrooms- and don't forget our amazing audio/visual system in the sanctuary- we are fortunate and proud to have such a wonderful place to call our home. Ever mindful of the security realities in which we find ourselves today, however, Beth David has taken, and continues to take, steps to keep our members and our facilities safe and secure. Our Preschool is a rousing success, known county-wide for its incomparable academic programming. Our Jewish School has never been stronger or our students more energized. Our staff at Beth David, including our amazing clergy and office staff, our pre-school and religious school directors and educators, and of course our board members, affiliate organizations and volunteers, keep us running strong. But it is you, our members, that form the collective heartbeat of Beth David. So as we move forward into 2020, let's all keep our eyes on the future of this place we call home as we take on the new year with strength. Wishing us all health, happiness, and success.

Sincerely,

Eric Schiffer, President

As we look back on 2019, we can celebrate a year of successes. Brotherhood ran successful brunches and barbeques, paid-up dinner, carnivals, High Holiday ushering and our annual Texas Hold'em Tournament, among others. We worked with Adult Education, and Social Action on events that have benefitted Beth David and will continue. As we plan for the new year, we look to the possibility of also working with the school and youth programs along with our traditional events.

The Chanukah carnival under Scott Telford's leadership was a surprisingly sunny success, thanks to the efforts of Brotherhood members and volunteers who worked to erect the game booths, procure the game truck, and the inflatable bounce house and slide for the children to enjoy, and provide prizes to the happy participants. The culinary team provided burgers, hot dogs and Chinese chicken salad and drinks. Very special thanks to our carnival sponsors whose generous donations helped make this event possible, and to the volunteers who manned the game booths, cooked the food, provided music, passed out prizes and helped assemble and disassemble the game booths.

During January and February Brotherhood is planning an informative, engaging brunch on January 5, that includes a viewing of the documentary, "Dick Cavett's Watergate," followed by Q & A with Dr. Donald Schwartz, Ph.D. As we now witness the impeachment process, Cavett's Watergate interviews are once again relevant more than 45 years after that defining moment in American history. The brunch will also feature the culinary skills of Dave Metz and Ted Cohen. Those interested in attending can RSVP on the Temple website. The cost is $15 for those who RSVP to Dave Metz davidmetz1@yahoo.com by December 31, or $18 at the door.

On January 26, the Brotherhood will be hosting its 12th annual Texas Hold'em poker tournament from 11 a.m. until a winner is determined. If 40 or more participate, the first prize will be worth $500. In addition to the generous prizes, a delicious lunch featuring "Howie's Famous French dip sandwiches" will be provided. Advanced paid reservations are required by January 21. Participants can make reservations on the Temple website, or by contacting Jerrold Korn jdk4asu@earthlink.net.

On February 8, the Brotherhood, and Sisterhood, will present their annual paid-up membership party. This year's theme/dress code will be "Take Me Out to the Ballgame" and will feature Los Angeles Times sports columnist Bill Shaikin as the guest speaker. Admission is free for Brotherhood or Sisterhood members. The cost for non-members is $18. An annual $36 membership in Brotherhood or Sisterhood can be paid at the door. Please RSVP by February 1 on the Temple website.

The Brotherhood service will be Friday evening, February 14, with an interesting speaker to be announced shortly.

Every Man a Member!

SISTERHOOD MATTERS...

Dear Friends,

As I looked out from the kitchen to the Chanukah Carnival in the social hall, my feet ached from hours of standing and cooking latkes, but my heart was full. I saw people of all generations, from our littlest ones to seniors, enjoying the day. People were greeting each other with hugs and smiles, shopping a great variety of vendors and our own Judaica shop, and relaxing outside (under cloudy, but thankfully dry skies!), enjoying food cooked by Sisterhood and Brotherhood members. It is really amazing what we accomplish as a community and how good it is when we come together (reminds me of a song!).

Of course, an undertaking like this requires considerable help, and I'd like to recognize those who made the magic happen:

Judaica Shop

Chairs: Linda Cohen & Rachelle Wilson

Anne Farber Georgette Davis

Bake Sale

Chair: Mickey Lewin

Debbie Crowley Marlene Wedner
Erika Pogrund Annette Helfman

Vendors

Chair: Barbara Switzky

Robyn Micheloff Jim Michaeloff
Linda Krieger Laurie Cantus
Faith Pantel Mackenzie

Wishing everyone good health, peace, and happiness in 2020!

Message from Membership Chair

Recently, my four year old grandson encountered and lovingly held in his hand, his first....FROG! Part of me was relieved that he was in Carlsbad and I was home, for he surely would have asked, "Here Grandma, do you want to hold the frog in your hand?" The real question is, "Where is Grandpa when you need him?" Grandpa would have said, "Here Ben, put the frog in my hand. We'll leave wimpy Grandma to look on!" I would like to think I would have been brave and held the squishy creature, but I don't know.....! My last 'frog' experience was in high school biology lab, and we know what happened to THAT frog! There were no grandparents to save it.

Grandparents and grandchildren....Beth David may not have any frogs (at least, we hope not), but on every family night, if you look closely, you will find beaming grandparents who come faithfully to pray and celebrate with their grandchildren. When one of those little kiddies runs up the center aisle or takes a whirling dervish run around the sanctuary, there are Grandma and Grandpa beaming proudly! When the Cantor calls the Junior Choir up to the bema, Grandma and Grandpa smile with pride. If one of the littlest children escapes onto the bema to explore new surroundings, Grandma and Grandpa think, "How cute". How fortunate we are to have these multi-generational families. Even at Temple, grandparents play important roles. While their own grown children may inwardly wish their children would be a little quieter and sit still a little longer, grandparents are enjoying every minute of the sometimes impish behavior displayed by the youngest generation.

Grandparents, we honor you for being such great role models. Continue to come, and keep on demonstrating your love of your children and the love for your and their Jewish heritage. Oh, and be careful before you sit down or open a prayer book. You never know what might pop up at you....RIBBIT!

For this issue I'll cover some Israeli politics, the current status of Israel's government and that of the Israel Movement for Reform and Progressive Judaism (IMPJ) and conclude with a way that we can get involved to promote Reform Judaism and democracy in Israel, North America, and worldwide.

Once again nobody could form a government based on the September election results. So, Israel will be holding its third election to form a new government in March. As an Israeli Rabbi put it. "Welcome to the Israeli political reality. Where now we go to elections one time, then another, and an unresolved political deadlock may take us to hope that the third time's the charm. The political impasse that we have been facing for most of 2019, and are likely to face well into 2020 is both debilitating and exasperating. A third election in the span of 10 or 11 months, I fear, would see not only similar electoral results but could cause many citizens to lose faith and potentially just sit this one out. Worse than that, the country simply cannot afford it. A Knesset finance official interviewed on Israeli public radio this week, plainly explained that it's not an issue of wasting taxpayer shekels – which is bad enough – it's that the electoral coffers simply do not have the funds to cover the expense of another election... This impasse has resulted in over 300 days during which Israel has been led by a series of caretaker governments... countless projects have been frozen and public sector workers remain in a kind of indefinite hiatus, never quite sure who will remain at the titular helm of their department — or from which party, or for how long. Full ministries are going bankrupt and diplomatic missions around the world can't afford to function or send their emissaries to do their jobs. Leadership disputes are not new to us and can have long-lasting consequences. We have a long tradition of leaders not being able to vacate their thrones, which could give us insight as to how to overcome today's political pickle."

In a rare challenge to his leadership of the Likud Party, Prime Minister Netanyahu won the party primary with more than 70% of the vote. He announced his hard right agenda, declaring "We will set our final borders, bring about American recognition for Israeli control over Jordan Valley, the Dead Sea and our sovereignty over every settlement in Judea and Samaria (and)... obtain a defense pact with U.S. that will ensure Israeli freedom to act, we will defeat Iran and achieve a peace pact with Arab countries." He did this while his three indictments on charges of bribery and fraud proceed toward a trial.

On a far more upbeat note the IMPJ in a Chanukah message from its Executive Director, Rabbi Gilad Kariv, announced "... we can feel a deep sense of pride in the way we are bringing "light" to Israel and the Jewish people-through the work in our congregations- where we have more than doubled our presence over the last decade from 23 to 52- through our growing youth and young adult movements-through our work in interfaith relations and shared society, through our efforts in making our congregations accessible to all..."

In the first decade of the Twenty First Century the IMPJ was struggling to reach 20 congregations. Now, not only has it impressively grown its religious facilities, but it has become an important force for the realization of the of the goals of social justice and religious pluralism espoused in Israel's Declaration of Independence with the work of its Israel Religious Action Center (IRAC).

We now all have a chance to have a voice in supporting Reform Judaism in Israel and worldwide well into the 2020's. In January voting will begin for the American delegation to the upcoming World Zionist Congress. The Congress is the only body in which all of World Jewry is represented democratically. It determines policy, designates its course of action, chooses the leadership of the World Zionist Organization, as well as the Jewish National Fund (JNF). These decisions influence hundreds of millions of dollars in funding. Importantly, the Congress makes decisions that affect the status of Reform Jews in Israel and across the world. It allocates considerable funding to Progressive Jews in Israel. Voting takes place online from January 21, to March 11, 2020 and it will take less than 90 seconds to participate. If you would like to be part of our upcoming campaign to get out the votes for this important cause please contact me at cniederm@flash.net.

If being Jewish is a verb ,then how we volunteer at our Beth David is the adverb. So, imagine my surprise when I received some interesting advice from a certain six-year-old one night at an oneg. Ethan Cantus, the middle son of Laurie and Sable Cantus, said to me one Shabbat, “ When are you going to play outside the kitchen?” Well sir, out of the mouth of babes indeed. Although working in the Social Hall kitchen gives me the chance to hear a lot of great ideas by our fellow congregants, while also assisting in many other events around Beth David; was I giving my full efforts? How could I contribute more?

Last January one of my 2019 New Year’s resolutions was to give back to my temple community more than just being a volunteer, after a few years of being on many committees and after taking a leadership class at the Long Beach JCC. So, when there was an opening on the Temple Board, I leapt at the opportunity . Sometimes it’s not easy being a Freshman; even if you’re a certain age. But, being on the Temple Board and being able to do different projects that were suggested by fellow Beth David members has been rewarding. This is what I learned so far; small ideas can make a big difference. Like Moms’ Market, which offered healthy snacks for Jewish School. Thanks, Jewish School parents for the great idea, and Crystal Bushinsky for helping out! Working with other branches of the Temple can also help honor everyone; like The Veterans Day Synaplex Dinner and Shabbat, which was a joint effort with Brotherhood. Thank you, Gayle Chiat, for starting a tradition, Ted and Linda Cohen, David Metz, Brotherhood and of course everybody that night. Also, having more fun on Shabbat can be fun with the Disney and Beatles Night Summer Synaplexes. That was a joint idea created by Eileen Tobey and Edie Mino on how to make the Summer Shabbats special. I love keeping a good recipe for fun! And although I am still learning about my Temple Board post, (remember I’m still a Freshman), looking forward to what new ideas that we can share together is wonderful. Here’s to seeing you all in 2020 ,outside of the kitchen , for a cup of coffee and listening ear for new innovations.

Shalom,
Mulu Harrison

Upcoming B'not Mitzvah

Sydney & Payton Rofe

Sydney and Payton Rofe will celebrate their B'not Mitzvah at Beth David on February 8th.

Sydney and Payton are 7th graders at McAuliffe Middle School. At school, Sydney has become very interested in drama, and has written and directed a short screenplay. Payton is extremely excited about her journalism class where she is also a writer and editor for the school's first online newspaper. Both Sydney and Payton have a passion for soccer and play for the SoCal Blues club soccer team. They both are also very involved at Orange County Song and Dance where they take dance and voice classes, and are members of OCSD's performance company. For their mitzvah project, both girls will raise money and participate in the City of Hope Cancer Walk in honor of family members who have lost the battle with cancer, and those currently fighting cancer.

B'nei Mitzvot are stressful; don't let dinner the night before be fast food.

Let Chef Sydney Berman of  cook for you and your whole family!

Be in your own home with a delicious gourmet meal, we clean up too!

Start out the B'nei Mitzvah weekend calm and satisfied!!!
