FROM THE RABBI

The joy of latkes during Hanukkah

Dec. 2022, Jan, Feb. 2023 Rabbi Myers

Hmmmmm, there's something about the aroma wafting through the room as latkes are frying in oil. The rich fragrance brings with it a warmth and reminder of a good meal to come. For Ashkenazi Jews (those of East European descent), we eat potato pancakes called latkes during the 8 nights of Hanukkah. Sephardic Jews, on the other hand, eat jelly filled doughnuts called sufganiot. Eating foods with oil may not be the healthiest of dietary choices and yet they remind us of the miracles of Hanukkah.

After the Maccabee's victory over the Seleucids (Syrian-Greeks), they recovered our holy Temple in Jerusalem. Much to their horror, they found the altar and sacred vessels broken, garbage strewn over the floors, and pagan idols within its precincts. Cleaning up the Temple carefully, the warriors found a small curse of oil that was only enough to illuminate the darkness for one day. Working by the light of this oil, our people joyfully discovered that it continued to burn not just for one day, or two, or three but for 8 days! The greater miracle, of course, was the defeat of an army more powerful and numerous than our rag tag Maccabees.

Oil and light continue to be our way of celebrating Hanukkah. Light is a symbol of hope even in the darkest nights of the year. It reminds us that the weak can overcome the mighty and that we as Jews have survived and flourished for thousands of years. We will proudly light our menorahs beginning on Sunday evening, December 18 and continue to add one candle till the eight lights of the menorah brighten our homes. Some people put a menorah or an electric one in the window to joyfully publicize this wonderful holiday.

Since Hanukkah is so late in his year, it will overlap with Christmas. On the evening of Christmas, we will light the seventh candle of our Festival of Lights. And so, for those of us with Christian family and friends, why not bring your menorah over? I find playing dreidel with gelt can be a wonderful activity for all. In my experience, I have found that non Jewish family and friends are happy to participate. As an aside, I always find little fun gifts and wrap them up for the winner of our dreidel games. You would be surprised who is delighted to get some slime, playdough, or a slinky.

Also one of my favorite latke recipes comes from the LA times kitchen called, "Winter Sunshine Latkes." The recipe calls for equal parts of sweet potato, potato, parsnip, and carrot and combines them with eggs, baking powder, flour, and fresh herbs. It's healthier and more flavorful than the usual potato recipe. If you are interested, try this link: <http://www.latimes.com/la-fo-hanukkahrec9a-2009dec09,0,7395008.story>

In the meantime, we hope to see you at our pre-Hanukkah party on Friday night, December 16. Appetizers and wine begin at 5:30pm., followed by dinner at 6:00, and then a musical worship experience at 7:30 p.m. featuring our adult and children's choirs and a dramatic telling of the Hanukkah story that describes how our people stood up as one to fight for Torah, independence, and the future of our children.

I want to wish you and your families a joyful and meaningful Hanukkah.

BOARD UPDATE

Hanukkah 2022 has arrived and not a moment too soon! As daylight savings kicks in and we lose those precious minutes of daylight, I am grateful for the lights and festivities of Hanukkah that fill my heart and fend off any seasonal blues that may be lurking. And, with the waning of Covid (albeit not fast enough for my taste), our community has sprung into action and has planned a host of exciting activities! Here are just a few of the upcoming events:

- On December 1, "The Club" will be showing "Being the Ricardos" so that members and friends can meet and socialize.
- On December 4, we hold our annual Hanukkah Carnival with games and prizes. Come practice some retail therapy at the Boutique Sale, enjoy our legendary latkes and give your kids a chance to win all sorts of carnival prizes. At 1:15pm, magician Tom Ogden will preform in the sanctuary, mesmerizing the young at heart.
- On December 10, come sing away the blues at "A Chanukah Extravaganza Featuring Fiddler on the Rood Greatest Hits Sing-Along," with Perry Goldstein.
- On December 15, our Young Professionals are hosting their casino night, "Lit Nights '22 for the Gold".
- On December 16, Beth David will host a community-wide Festive Hanukkah Dinner. Come light the menorah (bring your own!!), play dreidel, eat sufganiyot and enjoy a delicious dinner.
- On January 14, the Brotherhood and Women of Beth David are hosting a "Saturday Night at the Movies!" Membership Dinner. Hurry up and be sure to get your membership in so you can join the event!!
- On January 28, come enjoy a very special night with Comedian Stephanie Blum and MC Barry Weisenberg. The event will start off with cocktails and appetizers and end with an evening of laughter.
- On January 29, the Beth David Foundation presents "A special Chapter in Jewish American History, The Jews of Texas" with guest scholar Hollace Ava Weiner. Not only will you learn about a unique part of our history from an amazing speaker, but you will also enjoy a delicious brunch and scrumptious desserts.
- On February 5, come try your hand at the 14th Annual Texas Hold'em Poker Tournament.

This list contains most but not all of our amazing events for the next two months! I encourage everyone to check out our calendar frequently and Join as many of these amazing events as possible. Also, be sure to bring a friend or two! Our community continues to be active and thriving - we have so much to be proud of.

I look forward to seeing you!

Best,
Andrea Chait
President

The Brotherhood has had a whirlwind of activity in the past few months, with many more activities planned in the coming months. We Kicked off the fall season with a barbecue to commemorate the first day of religious school and provided hamburgers, hot dogs, veggie burgers, chips, and drinks, and the Women of Beth David provided dessert for the children and their families. Many thanks to the Brotherhood members who volunteered at the barbecue. Shortly thereafter, the Brotherhood provided ushers during the High Holy days. Thanks go to Elliot Semmelman for coordinating the ushering responsibilities, and to the many volunteers who served as ushers.

The Brotherhood assembled its Sukkah on October 9, and dismantled it a week later. Several activities took place in the Sukkah, including a dinner prior to the Sukkot service, and Scotch and Schnapps with the Rabbi, the young professionals and others after the October 14 Shabbat service. Many thanks to the volunteers who helped assemble and disassemble the Sukkah.

Our first brunch of the year took place on Sunday, October 23, when the League of Women Voters gave a thorough presentation of California's propositions. Those in attendance enjoyed a delicious brunch, and the informative presentation was also made available via live stream. Thank you to the many volunteers who helped at the brunch.

The Brotherhood has procured the services of a face painter and a magician to make this year's Chanukah Carnival interesting and entertaining. In addition, there will be games, prizes, and a bounce house, all for $10 per child, plus delicious food, including Chinese chicken salad, hamburgers, hot dogs, veggie burgers, chips and drinks.

Plans are well underway for an evening of great entertainment on December 10 at the Brotherhood's Chanukah Extravaganza, featuring a Fiddler on the Roof greatest hits sing-a-long that is sure to please. The show was written and is being produced by Perry Goldstein. The price of admission includes hors d'oeuvres prior to the show, and desert afterwards. Tickets are on sale on the Temple website at $18 for adults and $12 for children for general admission, and $36 for reserved seating. Group rates are available for groups of 10 or more, and sponsorships include reserved seating - one seat for a $50 sponsorship and two for a $100 sponsorship.

Our next virtual Bingo game will be on December 15 at 7:30pm on Zoom. This will be our last game unless attendance improves significantly at the game. Despite our best intentions, only a handful of people have participated in the Bingo games, but those who have, found the games to be very entertaining. Many thanks to Elliot Semmelman for calling the games these past two years.

The next Brotherhood/Women of Beth David membership dinner will take place on January 14. The theme for the event is "Saturday Night at the Movies" and the food will be Italian. Attendance is free to Brotherhood and Women of Beth David members who RSVP by January 7.

Please mark your calendars for three upcoming events: a Brotherhood/ Adult Ed brunch on January 8, when Master Teacher Janet Liss will give a presentation titled, "What do I believe? An interactive program," the 14th Annual Texas Hold'em tournament on February 5, and the Brotherhood's annual Shabbat service on February 10.

Did you know that the TBDFOC was founded as an independent non-profit corporation in 1992 for the purpose of benefitting Temple Beth David? Currently, 15 Funds are managed by the Foundation Board. In succeeding articles, each of these funds will be discussed, but for this article the Rabbi Henri E. Font Fund is featured. This fund is Scholar-in-Residence, which was near and dear to Rabbi and Reggie Front, and nurtured by their son, Seth.

Over the years, this fund has made it possible for scholars of many venues to come to Beth David and make excellent presentation - typically coupled with a famous Sunday brunch put together by Brotherhood and Women of Beth David. Some of you may recall author Ron Arons talking about The Hews of Sing Sing, author Steven Pease talking about The Golden Age of Jewish Achievement, and many other interesting presentations of rabbinic academic quality and one dealing with The Crypto Jews of New Mexico.

Keeping with this tradition of excellent interesting events, we have engaged author Hollace Ava Weiner to join us on January 29, 2023 to tell us about the Jews of Texas. You will find that the Lone Stars of David: The Jews of Texas presents a panorama different from the typical East Coast perspective and more like the wild, wild west. Because the Foundation is providing financial support for this event, the charge per person for the famous brunch is only $10.00. Please see the flier and respond with your reservations as early as you can to make sure your space is reserved.

For any questions please feel free to contact me or any other Foundation Board member.

"Amid the California flora, I'll be lighting my menorah" Tom Lehrer's Hanukkah in Santa Monica.

I don't know about you, but it has been a busy couple of weeks. Right after the High Holy Days, I've been nonstop working on a few events at Alpert Jewish Community Center in Long Beach. It's great to be a part of our Temple Beth David representatives on the Jewish Long Beach Board of Directors. Being a member at large is so much fun. I can't wait to share what I've learned back to Beth David. But like any college kid out of state, even if it's just a freeway, I couldn't wait to be home for the winter holiday break. True that we do have gentle winters in California. We can still enjoy the snow in the mountains, and then we can go surf at the beach almost in the same day.

After Sukkot, we can't wait for the change in the weather. As soon as the temperatures dip, or the first good rain, we start our countdowns. Time to bring out the sweaters, deck the halls, and grab the "things to do" lists. We seek the lost family recipes like Indiana Jones, hunt for the perfect gift like Sherlock Holmes, and Mac Gyver house ready for guest and friends to drop by and gather in good cheer. Yes, Hanukkah is coming soon along with the memories of time gone by and hugs with plans for a brighter future. Your Beth David Program Committee has got some nice presents waiting for your January and February. These two events are going to ring in 2023 with a galaxy of new adventures. So, Computer what 1960's television series was ahead of it's time.

Computer says, "What is Star Trek."

January 2023 is time to get into wrap drive. That's right everyone the Star Trek Shabbat Service is back. This fun Summer Shabbat Alive service is back for the holidays on January 20th at 7:30pm. Can't wait to see you there. And please come in your Star Trek best. Then after the service there will be a Cosmic Oneg that would even make Vulcan very happy.

Everyone remembers 1969 Woodstock music festival, but do you know about the city block party that started a movement. On Saturday February 11th at 7:30pm come and enjoy a special movie night for Black History Month called Summer of Soul. This award-winning film examines the 1969 Harlem Cultural Festival which took place on six Sunday between June 20 and August 24 at Mount Morris Park (now called Marcus Garvey Park) in Harlem. Lost film and news footage is brought back to life in this stunning documentary complete with interviews of people and entertainers who were there. The music played that lifted the soul was accelerated with the message of change for social justice; that still rings true today. Summer of Soul was directed by Ahmir "Questlove" Thompson in his Oscar winning directorial debut masterpiece a must see for sure. Since snacks will be provided please RSVP by February 7th, 2023 to muluskwh@yahoo.com

And from all of us to all of you, a Happy Hanukkah and Joyful 2023 New Year.

Shalom,

Mulu Harrison
Program Chairperson

The Beth David Library is currently in the final stages of finishing being organized. Once this task has happened Steve Loken and I will take Inventory to see what is missing. I also need to spend time and clean up the authority files in ResourceMate, our online public access catalog. If we can get the organizing done by the Hanukkah Carnival there will be an open house in the Beth David Library during the Hanukkah Carnival. I will give tours of the Library and show visitors how to use the Library and the online public access catalog. The OPAC can be used from home to see what we have in the collection <https://15993.rmwebopac.com>. You can also get to the database by using the Temple Beth David website www.templebethdavid.org.

In January I will be buying 5 or 6 award winning Jewish Children's books from 2022. Let me know if you would like me to buy Judaica DVD's for the collection.

November 18th is the start of Jewish Book Month. I will try to have a poster or some type of programming for the 31 day period. Jewish Book Month is the month before Hanukkah starts.

Newer Judaica Book donations are always greatly accepted.

TEMPLE BETH DAVID FOUNDATION PRESENTS
A SPECIAL CHAPTER IN JEWISH AMERICAN HISTORY
THE JEWS OF TEXAS
JANUARY 29, 2023 - 10:30 AM

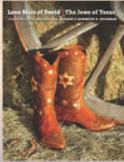

Jewish life in the United States is too often told from an East Coast perspective. Lone Stars of David presents a different panorama, with narratives of Jewish women and men, who ventured to Texas before the battle of the Alamo, who fought for the Confederacy, who herded cattle up the Chisholm Trail, who drilled for oil, and who forged Jewish communities far from New York's Lower East Side.

Guest Scholar, Hollace Ava Weiner, Author
