FROM THE RABBI

Thank you for my sabbatical

Sabbaticals for congregational rabbis are, first and foremost, to stave off burnout. Doing congregational work is, indeed, very rewarding but can also be very stressful. For rabbis like myself, who intend to continue many years in this role, a sabbatical is crucial for mental and physical well-being. I recall, ten years ago, when I came back from my first sabbatical is to get my neck and back to relax and to release the stress that I have been holding on to for so long.

Secondly, I never like to waste time, as many of you know, and so I intend to write another novel. I really want to be a good writer and the only way to do so, is well, to write. I learned a lot about the process of writing ten years ago in my first attempt at creative writing. I now know the steps I need to take and I'm excited to give it another go. Hopefully, this next one will come to fruition quicker than the last one. During my six months, I hope to get the story 'out' of me and integrate my brother's initial critique. And then when I am back, I hope to use my day off to continue the editorial process with both volunteer and professional assistance.

During this time, I will also do some travels. My brother correctly pointed out that my lap top can go with me and I can write anywhere. And so, I will take a number of trips that will include some outdoor adventure, family time, and more.

I realize the timing of my sabbatical isn't ideal with a merger on the horizon, however, afterwards it will be impossible for me to take any substantial time off for many years. There is going to be a lot of work integrating new members of our community as we plan worship, events, and holidays together. And so, it is really is, now or never.

In the meantime, while I am away, Rabbinical student Robin Harrison and Cantor Linder will cover my primary responsibilities. They will lead holiday and Shabbat services with the support of volunteers. Both Cantor and Robin are deeply caring and committed to the well-being of our community. They will provide excellent pastoral care to you in times of hardship and loss. We also have amazing lay leaders who will assist and continue to ensure that the Temple is there for you in every way.

And so, I just want to say, "Thank you." Thank you for giving me this needed time away. I am so proud of our synagogue and I look forward to serving our community for many, many years to come.

BOARD UPDATE

WOMEN OF BETH DAVID has many volunteers to thank!!!!

Women of Beth David gave Rosh Hashanah bags to religious school classes. Thank you to Eileen Tobey, Florence Sudakow, Laurie Schneider, Ellen Korn, Karen Korduner, Leslie Mueller, Laurel Jarrick, and Sue LeBoff for preparing the bags.

October 5 was the kick-off event for Women of Beth David. Thank you to Karen Korduner and Robyn Michaeloff—our membership chairs—and their committee—Eileen Tobey, Candy Fox-Tobey, Florence Sudakow, Laurie Schneider, Elaine Netzer, and Sue LeBoff. Greg Korduner and Jim Michaeloff set up the tables the day before. Delia Taft from the Orange County Jewish Historical Society gave a great presentation of Jewish history in Orange County.

Thank you to our Program Chair Mona Doshay and her committee for presenting a program on the craft of paper-cutting.

November 15 was Set-up for the CHANUKAH CARNIVAL which was November 16. There were LATKES, a BAKE SALE, a BOUTIQUE, and JUDAICA SHOP. Women of Beth David had lots of volunteers.

LATKES—Thank you to Laurie Schneider, Eileen Tobey, Thea Weintraub, Shiela Romo, Rosalind Cantor, Barbara Robbins, Karen Korduner, Barbara Switzky, Robyn Michaeloff, Mulu Skinner-Harrison, and Lucy Ablesar. 50 pounds of latkes were sold!

BAKE SALE—Thank you to Marcia Rosenzweig, Marlene Wedner, Sue LeBoff, Denise Silberman, Elaine Netzer, Cathy Niederman, and our high school volunteers Kylin and Alexis.

BOUTIQUE—Thank you to Barbara Switzky for getting all the venders and setting up the boutique. Thank you also to Lauren who helped with set-up.

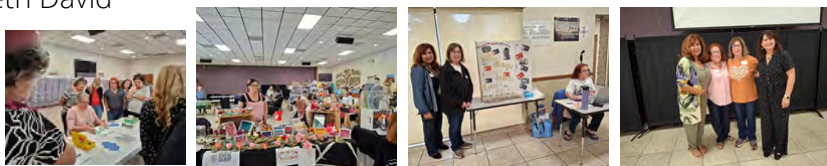

JUDAICA SHOP—Thank you to Leslie Kern, Florence Sudakow, Candy Fox-Tobey, Shelly Levinson, Deb Lechuk, Mulu Skinner-Harrison, Sue LeBoff, Ellen Wishnetsky, and Rachelle Wilson.

On November 18 Women of Beth David had a great Mahjong Tournament. There were 14 tables! Thank you to Eileen Tobey and her committee—Robyn Michaeloff, Laurie Schneider, Karen Korduner, Laurel and Alan Jarrick, Sue LeBoff, Thea Weintraub, Edie Mino, and Mulu Skinner-Harrison.

COMING EVENTS!!!!

On Saturday January 24 Women of Beth David and Brotherhood will put on JAZZ NIGHT featuring the SOUTH COAST SIMCHA BAND. Dinner will be catered by Stone Fire Grill.

Shalom,
Sue LeBoff
President, Women of Beth David

Did you know that the TBDFOC was founded as an independent non-profit corporation in 1992 for the purpose of benefitting Temple Beth David? Currently, 15 Funds are managed by the Foundation Board. In succeeding articles, each of these funds will be discussed, but for this article the Rabbi Henri E. Font Fund is featured. This fund is Scholar-in-Residence, which was near and dear to Rabbi and Reggie Front, and nurtured by their son, Seth.

Over the years, this fund has made it possible for scholars of many venues to come to Beth David and make excellent presentation - typically coupled with a famous Sunday brunch put together by Brotherhood and Women of Beth David. Some of you may recall author Ron Arons talking about The Hews of Sing Sing, author Steven Pease talking about The Golden Age of Jewish Achievement, and many other interesting presentations of rabbinic academic quality and one dealing with The Crypto Jews of New Mexico.

For any questions please feel free to contact me or any other Foundation Board member.

Walt Disney

Opening Day Speech for Disneyland

July 17, 1955

I love the fun of looking back at old photos. Especially the ones in family photo albums. You know the Kodak Polaroid one's from Disneyland, or the one's from your High School Yearbook. Maybe this is why I decided, since it was Fall going into Winter, to use a Walt Disney quote. If you grew up in California, a trip to Disneyland was a kind of birth right. Those Disneyland pictures during the holidays stayed on the fridge until the New Year's calendar went up. And like many a California Mom, you hoped the smiles would last the whole year perfectly. Who knew that Walt's idea for a better amusement park for his daughters, one that the entire family could enjoy Disneyland, is still around after 70 years.

There is nothing like nostalgic memories to start the beginning of a new year. Because by holding or looking at these tiny, sometimes blurred time capsules, we see ourselves caught in history; life goes fast and only a click of a camera can catch it. We see how we've grown. We see who we remember. We see why we have evolved. And we see what we have created. It's a time of reflection. A time of tracing our legacy. And a time of looking forward to the next snapshot of life. We are brought together for those same snapshot moments wrapped in a bow during the holidays. We spiritually stop to recognize life, ourselves, and our community. Then it's on to the next adventure of life, and what the future holds. Always unpredictable and ever changing.

Last year your Ways and Means Committee shared a lot of snapshot moments. By celebrating Rabbi Nancy Myers' anniversary here at Beth David, the Purim Carnival Silent Auction, and of course the fun we had at the Cabaret Magnifique (this year's Cantor Concert), our committee and community are awesome. And next calendar year, we will hopefully share a few more magical moments. Because before you know it, March is just around the corner and our Purim Carnival Auction will be ready for bids. But for now, it's time for spinning those dreidels, frying up the latkes, and the warmth of family and friends. So, from all of us here at the Ways and Means Committee to all of you, have a wonderful and blessed Hanukkah. And have a beautiful New Year in 2026!

Shalom,

Mulu Harrison

VP Co- Trustee of Ways & Means

Beth David Library Column

The new books that have come into the Beth David Library in 2025 are:

Live Your Dreams: the story of a Jewish Basketball all star by Tamir Goodman PJ Publishing 2025.

One Little Goat: a Passover catastrophe by Dara Horn Norton Young Readers 2025 Middle Grades

Finding Forgiveness: a Slichot story by Rebecca Gardyn Levington Farrar, Straus, Giroux 2025.

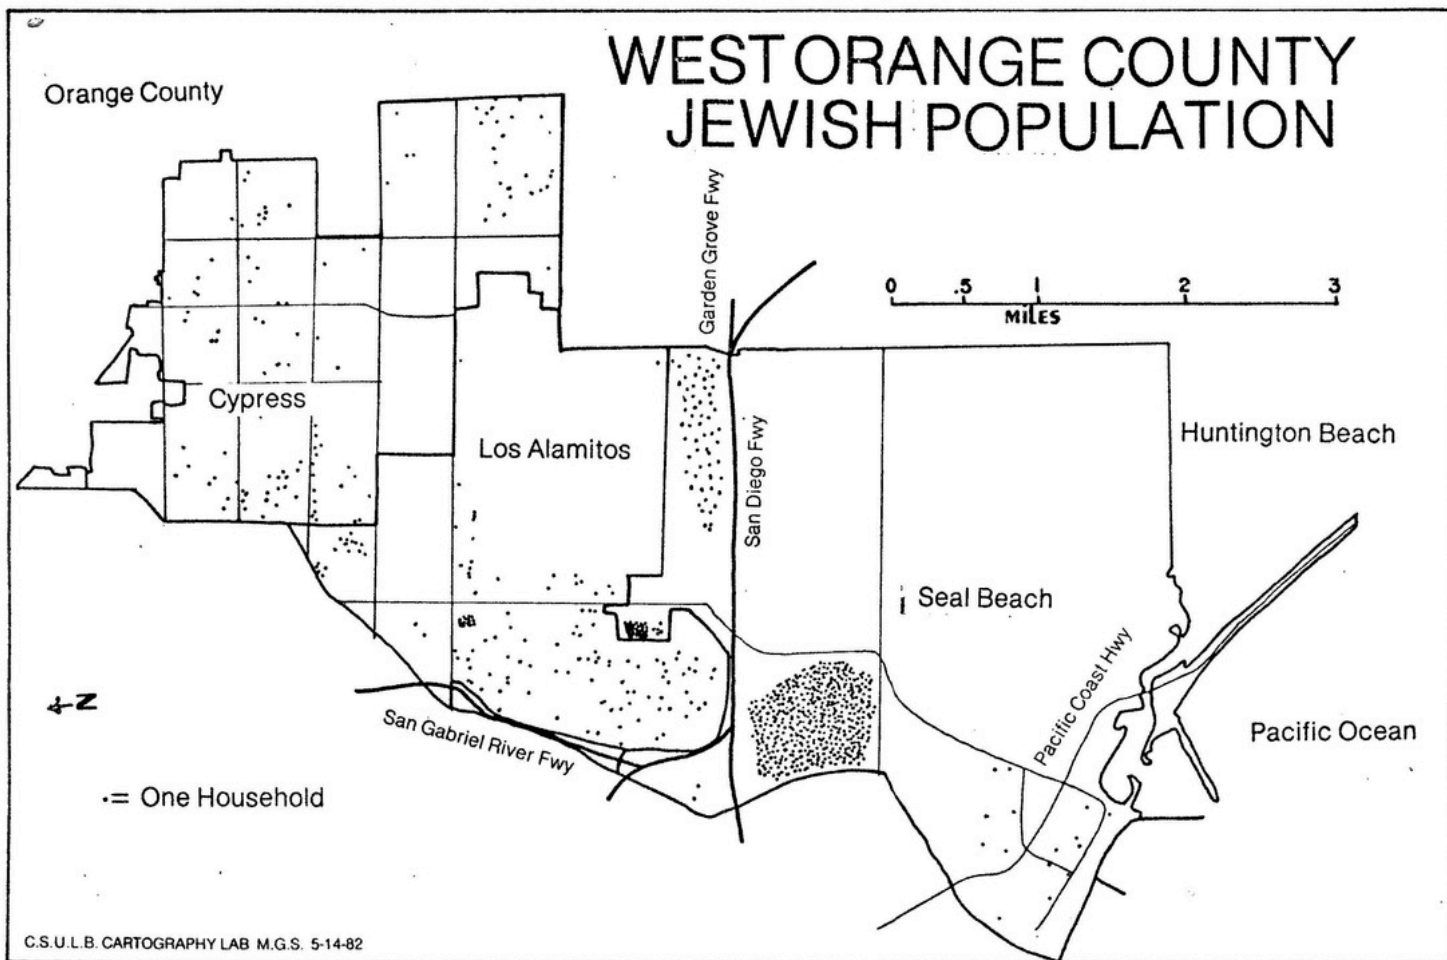

And Eddie had an egg by Dina Leifer Green Bean Books 2025.

If anyone has Jewish books to donate to the Beth David Library please make sure they are in good condition and are newer books. The library is almost full already.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

HELP FELLOW CONGREGANTS

Let's all remember that while the year-end holiday season and quickly approaching new year can be filled with tremendous joy, it can also (or instead) be a very difficult and emotionally draining time for many. Being there for one another (our closest of friends and also other fellow temple members) during the hardest of times is one of the most important roles any synagogue's congregation can play. Please consider signing up to help fellow congregants in one or more of the following ways noted below. And, also please let us know confidentially if you or a loved one in your household is in need of any such caring support. Send an email to: sharethecaring@templebethdavid.org.

VISITORS, CALLERS, COOKS, DRIVERS, AND OTHER HELP IS NEEDED!

- We need volunteers to help braid the hair of a congregant going through a weekly medical treatment. If you are available on a Wednesday evening to do so, please let us know as soon as possible.
- Since humor can be helpful, please send us funny Jewish and secular stories, jokes, and one-liner riddles to be shared with fellow congregants.
- We have congregants who could really use an in-person visit, a kind phone call, a warm meal while they heal, or a ride to temple to stay connected. Whether you can help once or more, your time and caring heart is great appreciated.

Thank You to the MANY temple members who have helped share the caring since this special initiative was launched this past May. The comfort and peace of mind you have given fellow congregants is so deeply appreciated...and such a memorable mitzvah!

Wishing Everyone a Peaceful Hanukkah and a Meaningful 2026,
